Examining The Effect Of Blended Learning On Medical Students' Engagement And Achievement With English Language Terminology Dr. Norah Banafi, 2023-06-10 Researchers attention has been drawn to blended learning BL methodologies during the past ten years because of their emphasis on combining traditional face to face learning with the use of technology Numerous studies that study the effects of BL on teaching and learning have been undertaken and many researchers have investigated the usefulness of BL There hasn t yet been a case study that assesses how well BL taught Saudi Arabian students English medical terms The goal of the study was to evaluate the impact of BL on an experimental group of students who were using WhatsApp and Jazan Jump Blackboard to expand their vocabulary as they prepared to pursue careers in medicine Their learning was contrasted with that of the control group Group which only used face to face methods and one piece of technology Blackboard The current study looked at how various BL approaches affected attitudes feelings of anxiety and self efficacy in both the controlled and experimental groups as well as student engagement and self efficacy The study looked at how English medical terminology teachers behaved in relation to their teaching experience prior usage of platforms like WhatsApp and Jazan Jump Blackboard preferred teaching strategies attitudes towards technology constructivist beliefs and understanding of digital self efficacy Four sources were used in the current study to gather data interviews questionnaires and pre and post tests Pre and post test results showed that combining in person instruction with WhatsApp and Jazan Jump Blackboard can have a positive effect on student progress Based on the findings of the experimental group survey data and data analysis it was revealed that instructional cognitive and social presence in a hybrid setting had a beneficial impact on student engagement Compared to medical students in a typical classroom students who used WhatsApp and Jazan Jump were generally more capable self regulated and suffered mild anxiety Concerning WhatsApp and Jazan Jump teachers observed low to moderate proficiency levels Positive learning outcomes for students from BL with various electronic tools can inspire instructors with all levels of technological proficiency to adopt innovative learning techniques and technology into the classroom

Neurosociology: A New Field for Transdisciplinary Social Analysis Gennaro Iorio, Rosalba Morese, Rudina Rama, Vincenzo Auriemma, 2022-05-26

Uzbekistan's New Face S. Frederick Starr, Svante E. Cornell, 2018-10-10 Uzbekistan long considered the center of Central Asia has the region's largest population and borders every other regional state including Afghanistan For the first 25 years of its independence it adopted a cautious defensive policy that emphasized sovereignty and treated regional efforts at cooperation with skepticism But after taking over as President in autumn 2016 Shavkat Mirziyoyev launched a breathtaking series of reform initiatives His slogan it is high time the government serves the people not vice versa led to large scale reforms in virtually every sector Time will tell whether the reform effort will succeed but its first positive fruits are already visible particularly in a new dynamism within Uzbek society as well as a fresh approach to foreign relations where a new spirit of regionalism is taking root This book is the first systematic effort to analyze Uzbekistan's reforms
