Facing Death Patients Families And Professionals:

Facing Death Averil Stedeford,1994      Palliative Care: An Integrated Approach Jenny Buckley,2008-07-31 This evidence based text brings together the theory and practice of palliative care It examines at all aspects of palliative care i e psycho social spiritual and physical in a highly practical way The evidence base for cancer care has been developed within the Hospice Movement over the past 50 years and in the main it transfers across to patients dying of diseases other than cancer The book addresses the palliative needs of any patient with any disease in any care setting which gives it a generic approach This is in line with current government directives Contributions to care and treatment are considered in a multidisciplinary and complementary way      Death Liturgy and Ritual Paul P.J. Sheppy,2017-07-05 This title was first published in 2003 Death Liturgy and Ritual is a two volume study of Christian funerary theology and practice presenting an invaluable account of funeral rites and the central issues involved for compilers and users Paul Sheppy writes from direct experience of conducting funerals and of drafting liturgical resources for others In Volume I A Pastoral and Liturgical Theology Sheppy argues that the Church ought to construct its theological agenda in dialogue with other fields of study He proposes a Christian statement about death that finds its basis in the Paschal Mystery since human death must be explained by reference to Jesus death descent to the dead and resurrection Using the three phases of van Gennep s theory of rites of passage the author shows how the Easter triduum may be seen as normative for Christian liturgies of death The companion volume Volume II A Commentary on Liturgical Texts reviews a wide range of current Christian funeral rites and examines how they reflect both the Church s concern for the death and resurrection of Christ and the contemporary secular demand for funerals which celebrate the life of the deceased      Management of Advanced Disease, Fourth edition Polly Edmonds,Nigel Sykes,John Wiles,2012-11-27 The fourth edition of this the first textbook of palliative care continues to provide a concise but authoritative guide to the provision of palliative care The text has been thoroughly revised and reorganized throughout to reflect the recent pace of change in this rapidly moving field Coverage is comprehensive ranging from symptom control to      Loss, Bereavement and Grief Bob Spall,Stephen Callis,1997 Helps the reader to confront and address the personal issues of experienced and feared loss thus enabling them as a professional carer to work more effectively with others Presents a clear insight into the links between theoretical personal and professional issues Provides highly practical guidance on coping with the most difficult situations Structured questions are designed to trigger consideration of key issues      Facing Death Averil Stedeford,1984      Supporting People Bereaved through a Drug- or Alcohol-Related Death Peter Cartwright,2020-09-21 This pioneering book provides guidance for those helping bereaved adults through the process of grieving loved ones who died as a result of substance use People bereaved in this manner require very specific support through these unique circumstances and this book contains contributions from a range of leading experts in the field on how to help people bereaved in this way with examples of good practice It combines theory research and practice in a straightforward and untechnical way clearly describing the complex severe nature of these bereavements and how to support bereaved people through this complex grieving process The book also explains bereavement substance use and how addictive substance use can affect a family and provides comprehensive case studies that illustrate how to support and counsel Rooted in specialist professional experience this is the indispensable guide for all those whose work involves supporting these bereaved people as well as being of interest to those bereaved this way and their family friends and colleagues who may be supporting them Oxford Textbook of Palliative Medicine Geoffrey W. C. Hanks, 2011-07-21 Emphasising the multi disciplinary nature of palliative care the fourth edition of this text also looks at the individual professional roles that contribute to the best quality palliative care Handling Death and Bereavement at Work David Charles-Edwards, 2005-03-31 This is a uniquely invaluable book which tackles how death and bereavement can affect the workplace It is a sensitive and constructive text for dealing with issues that touch all working lives

Psychosocial Palliative Care Frances Sheldon, 1997 Written by a Macmillan lecturer this comprehensive handbook demonstrates the application of theory to good practice offering practical guidance to anyone involved with the care of dying people and their families Death and Dying Glennys Howarth, 2007-01-05 Glennys Howarth provides a cutting edge comprehensive discussion of the key topics in death and dying and in so doing demonstrates that the study of mortality is germane to all areas of sociology The book is organized thematically utilizing empirical material from cross national and cross cultural perspectives It carefully addresses questions about social attitudes to mortality the social nature of death and dying and explanations for change and diversity and explores traditional and contemporary experiences of death Jacket

Families Facing Death Elliott J. Rosen, 1998-03-16 A down to earth and highly practical guide this is the first book to explain and illustrate the relationship between family systems illness and loss This updated paperback edition includes theoretical information along with specific suggestions for developing the important skills needed to manage psychosocial symptoms in the patient and family both during illness and after death The author explains how to understand the dynamics of the family as an interactive intradependent system He also explains how to help families define and facilitate the tasks they must take to adjust to illness and loss On the Death of a Child Celia Hindmarch, 2009 With revised material and entirely new chapters the third edition of this classic text offers unique guidelines for professionals of varying levels of experience This book provides professionals with both practical advice and much needed reassurance that they can make a difference Helping The Patient with Advanced Disease Claude Regnard, 2018-08-07 Helping others to learn about caring for people with advanced disease has always been a fundamental part of effective palliative care This flexible learning material formally evaluated by the Open University is based on the Current Learning in Palliative Care CLIP worksheets to cover all aspects of palliative care Easy to use with activities throughout they can be reproduced as handouts when presenting to a group or used individually alongside a tutor or within a group setting Each worksheet is carefully structured
