Holocaust and Human Behavior Facing History and Ourselves, 2017-03-24 Holocaust and Human Behavior uses readings primary source material and short documentary films to examine the challenging history of the Holocaust and prompt reflection on our world today Facing history and ourselves William S. Parsons, Margot Stern Strom, 1978

Facing History and Ourselves, 1994 The Care of the Witness Michal Givoni, 2016-10-31 During the twentieth century witnessing grew to be not just a widespread solution for coping with political atrocities but also an intricate problem As the personal experience of victims soldiers and aid workers acquired unparalleled authority as a source of moral and political truth the capacity to generate adequate testimonies based on this experience was repeatedly called into question Michal Givoni's book follows the trail of the problems torments and crises that became commingled with witnessing to genocide disaster and war over the course of the twentieth century By juxtaposing episodes of reflexive witnessing to the Great War the Jewish Holocaust and third world emergencies The Care of the Witness explores the shifting roles and responsibilities of witnesses in history and the contribution that the troubles of witnessing made to the ethical consolidation of the witness as the leading figure of nongovernmental politics Centering Educational Administration Robert J. Starratt, 2003-04-02 In this book Starratt enters the national conversation among educational administration scholars and practitioners about what constitutes the core of their knowledge and practice In Part I he develops three main themes cultivating meaning community and moral responsibility which he then positions against national themes about the core of educational administration school improvement democratic community and social justice Rather than focusing on the routine managerial tasks normally associated with school administration budgeting personnel and legal problems time and resource management etc this text asks aspiring school leaders to reflect first on the underlying philosophical and sociological perspectives that constitute the substance of administrative work in education Centering Educational Administration provides A Unique Perspective on Leadership The author views leadership as organically related to teaching and learning as concerned with internal capacity building in response to state imposed accountability pressures and as an existential process of writing one's autobiography through their day to day work An Interdisciplinary View of Educational Administration Centering Educational Administration asks educational administrators to bring contemporary philosophical ethical and anthropological issues as well as learning theory social theory and political theory into their thinking about the daily operation of the school A Unique Perspective on School Improvement This text asserts that school improvement narrowly defined as improving results on high stakes tests can likewise place the nation at risk An equally important agenda is teaching the young the basic satisfactions norms and potential of using their knowledge in the service of the community and of a wider humanity Exercises in Reflective Practice This book challenges the reader to use the ideas of each chapter to analyze the current practices in their school and to propose concrete changes to improve the teaching and learning environment of their school Looking Backward, Moving Forward Richard G.
