triumphs and defeats of twelve environmentalists from Henry David Thoreau to Barry Commoner Their biographies form the dramatic and ongoing story of the conservation movement in America Beginning with Thoreau Frederick Law Olmsted and George Perkins Marsh Strong shows that conservation enjoyed the support of a few writers and scientists even in the heyday of land development in the mid nineteenth century Later chapters are devoted to John Wesley Powell who after the Civil War attempted to introduce enlightened land policies in the arid West Gifford Pinchot Theodore Roosevelt s chief forester ohn Muir who popularized the gospel of wilderness preservation Stephen Mather who launched the National Park Service and Aldo Leopold advocate of an ethical attitude toward the land Other chapters deal with Harold Ickes who as Franklin D Roosevelt s secretary of the interior spurred conservation efforts and encouraged economic recovery from the Great Depression David Brower the controversial executive director of the Sierra Club and Rachel Carson and Barry Commoner who alerted Americans to the dangers of an environment increasingly polluted by toxic chemicals Nuclear Rites Hugh Gusterson,1996-11-29 An extremely important work It demonstrates the power that ethnographic analysis can have when directed at an examination of our own society's central nervous system Faye Ginsburg author of Contested Lives Essential reading for anyone trying to understand what Cold War science was in all its cultural aspects and what this same science now in transformation might yet be George E Marcus co editor of The Traffic in Culture Researching and Teaching Social Issues Samuel Totten,Jon Pedersen,2012-05-01 originally published by Lexington Books A division of Rowman Littlefield Researching and Teaching Social Issues The Personal Stories and Pedagogical Efforts of Professors of Education is comprised of original personal essays in which notable teacher educators delineate the genesis and evolution of their thought and work vis a vis the teaching of social issues In relating their personal stories the authors were asked to discuss among other issues those individuals and or scholarly works that have most influenced them and how their own aspirations in the field the frustrations they have faced their perceptions of the field their major contributions and their current endeavors Our goal was that each and every story be as informative instructive and engaging as possible We believe that readers will be thoroughly engaged as they read the stories of these individuals stories that are inspiring filled with passion and reflective in nature We also believe that readers will gain unique pedagogical insights into the field and ample food for thought The individuals selected for inclusion in the book dedicated a great amount of time thought energy and commitment to creating powerful and pedagogically sound ways to teach about social and or controversial issues Many have done so for well over forty years and have been among the strongest advocates vis vis the place social issues have in the extant curriculum and beyond The Sociology of Terrorism Michael Blain,2009 This book is a compilation of previously published studies on the role of culture and language in political violence and terrorism These studies have contributed to a paradigmatic shift in sociological thinking about language and culture in politics particularly in regard to the genesis and dynamics of violence and terrorism Blending ideas derived from Michel Foucault and Kenneth Burke this book is unique in its range of focus from detailed studies of specific cases of violence and terrorism to peace movements in resistance of violence war and terrorism Accessions List Environmental Science Information Center. Library and Information Services Division,1985 Late Cold War Literature and Culture Daniel Cordle,2017-03-03 This book analyses the 1980s as a nuclear decade focusing on British and United States fiction Ranging across genres including literary fiction science fiction post apocalyptic fiction graphic novels children's and young adult literature thrillers and horror it shows how pressing nuclear issues were particularly the possibility of nuclear war and how deeply they penetrated the culture It is innovative for its discussion of a nuclear transatlantic placing British and American texts in dialogue with one another for its identification of a vibrant young adult fiction that resonates with more conventionally studied literatures of the period and for its analysis of a politics of vulnerability animating nuclear debates Placing nuclear literature in social and historical contexts it shows how novels and short stories responded not only to nuclear fears but also crystallised contemporary debates about issues of gender the environment society and the economy The Workbook ,1983 The Nuclear Freeze Campaign J. Michael Hogan,1994 In the first in depth critical analysis of the nuclear freeze campaign J Michael Hogan examines the rhetorical strategies of freeze activists in political speeches mass market paperbacks direct mail documentaries and even public school curricula Through a series of case studies Hogan examines the reasons for the campaign s success as a media phenomenon while also accounting for its failure as a policy initiative The rhetorical strategies of the freeze campaign Hogan argues attracted sympathetic news coverage especially on television news but those very strategies doomed the campaign to failure in institutional political contexts and produced only superficial and transitory public support The Nuclear Freeze Campaign explores what public debate and deliberation can and cannot accomplish in the telepolitical age In focusing upon the freeze campaign Hogan offers a new more critical interpretation of a political cause often praised for empowering the public in the nuclear debate He also explains why such an apparently powerful political movement had so little impact on electoral politics and strategic arms policies Above all however Hogan warns of larger threats to American democracy threats posed by dangerous trends in the ways Americans identify discuss debate and resolve important public issues These are the threats posed by the politics of imagery and emotionalism of sloganeering and sound bites that suggest to Americans that politics is a spectator sport A Peace of the Action! Damien Carey,1987 A bibliography on peace education reviewed by teachers for teachers WLW Journal Women Library Workers (U.S.),1988 HCL Cataloging Bulletin Hennepin County Library.
