Photo-era , 1920 The Politics of Story in Victorian Social Fiction Rosemarie Bodenheimer, 1988 Letters from the West John Stillman Wright, 1819 Letters From The West Or A Caution To Emigrants written by John S Wright and published in 1819 presents the impressions of the author about opportunities for settlement in the Ohio Valley Having just completed a six month trip there where he had gone as a plain practical farmer to judge for myself the merits of a country so highly extolled Wright came back profoundly disillusioned He believed his own experience demonstrated that before any man removed his family to a distant country he ought first to visit it and judge of it himself Wright s collection of letters serves as a forceful reminder that not everyone found the West to his liking Foreward The Atlantic Monthly , 1923 Realism, Representation, and the Arts in Nineteenth-Century Literature Alison Byerly, 1997 This book confronts a significant paradox in the development of literary realism the very novels that present themselves as purveyors and celebrants of direct ordinary human experience also manifest an obsession with art that threatens to sabotage their Realist claims Unlike previous studies of the role of visual art or music or theatre in Victorian literature Realism Representation and the Arts in Nineteenth Century Literature examines the juxtaposition of all of these arts in the works of Charlotte Bront William Thackeray George Eliot Thomas Hardy and others Alison Byerly combines close textual analysis with discussion of relevant ancillary topics to illuminate the place of different arts within nineteenth century British culture Her book which also contains sixteen illustrations represents an effort to bridge the growing gap between aesthetics and cultural studies
