Fact Finders People:

The Great American History Fact-finder Pam Cornelison, Ted Yanak, 2004 Over 2 000 entries covering the who what where when and why of U S history Thumbnail The Transformation of Human Rights Fact-finding Philip Alston, Sarah Knuckey, 2016 Fact finding is at the heart of human rights advocacy and is often at the center of international controversies about alleged government abuses In recent years human rights fact finding has greatly proliferated and become more sophisticated and complex while also being subjected to stronger scrutiny from governments Nevertheless despite the prominence of fact finding it remains strikingly under studied and under theorized Too little has been done to bring forth the assumptions methodologies and techniques of this rapidly developing field or to open human rights fact finding to critical and constructive scrutiny The Transformation of Human Rights Fact Finding offers a multidisciplinary approach to the study of fact finding with rigorous and critical analysis of the field of practice while providing a range of accounts of what actually happens It deepens the study and practice of human rights investigations and fosters fact finding as a discretely studied topic while mapping crucial transformations in the field The contributions to this book are the result of a major international conference organized by New York University Law School s Center for Human Rights and Global Justice Engaging the expertise and experience of the editors and contributing authors it offers a broad approach encompassing contemporary issues and analysis across the human rights spectrum in law international relations and critical theory This book addresses the major areas of human rights fact finding such as victim and witness issues fact finding for advocacy enforcement and litigation the role of interdisciplinary expertise and methodologies crowd sourcing social media and big data and international guidelines for fact finding Labor Fact-finding Boards Act United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Education and Labor, 1946 Appointment of Fact-finding Boards United States. Congress. House. Committee on Labor, 1946 Quality Control in Fact-Finding Morten Bergsmo, 2013-11-16 This book discusses how fact finding mechanisms for alleged violations of international human rights humanitarian and criminal law can be improved There has been a significant increase in the use of international internationalised and domestic fact finding mechanisms since 1992 including by the United Nations human rights system international commissions of inquiry truth and reconciliation commissions and NGOs They are analysed and assessed in detail by 19 authors under the common theme Quality Control in Fact Finding The authors include Richard J Goldstone Martin Scheinin LIU Daqun Charles Garraway David Re Simon De Smet FAN Yuwen Isabelle Lass e WU Xiaodan Dan Saxon Chris Mahony Dov Jacobs Catherine Harwood Lyal S Sunga Wolfgang Kaleck Carolijn Terwindt Ilia Utmelidze and Marina Aksenova Serge Brammertz has written the Preface and LING Yan a Foreword The book emphasises quality awareness and improvement in non criminal justice fact work This quality control approach recognises inter alia the importance of leadership in fact finding mechanisms the responsibility of individual fact finders to continuously professionalise and the need for fact finders to be mandate centred It is an approach that invites the consideration of how the quality of every functional aspect of fact finding can be improved including work processes to identify locate obtain verify analyse corroborate summarise synthesise structure organise present and disseminate facts The book also considers regulatory approaches to enhance quality and professionalisation Report of United Nations Fact-finding Mission to South Viet-Nam United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1964 Report of United Nations Fact-Finding Mission to South Viet-Nam United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee to Investigate the Administration of the Internal Security Act and Other Internal Security Laws,1964

Fact-Finding without Facts Nancy A. Combs,2010-07-30 Fact Finding Without Facts explores international criminal fact finding empirically conceptually and normatively After reviewing thousands of pages of transcripts from various international criminal tribunals the author reveals that international criminal trials are beset by numerous and severe fact finding impediments that substantially impair the tribunals ability to determine who did what to whom These fact finding impediments have heretofore received virtually no publicity let alone scholarly treatment and they are deeply troubling not only because they raise grave concerns about the accuracy of the judgments currently being issued but because they can be expected to similarly impair the next generation of international trials that will be held at the International Criminal Court After setting forth her empirical findings the author considers their conceptual and normative implications The author concludes that international criminal tribunals purport a fact finding competence that they do not possess and as a consequence base their judgments on a less precise more amorphous method of fact finding than they publicly acknowledge 66256 Expert Evidence and Scientific Proof in Criminal Trials Paul Roberts, 2017-07-05 Forensic science evidence and expert witness testimony play an increasingly prominent role in modern criminal proceedings Science produces powerful evidence of criminal offending but has also courted controversy and sometimes contributed towards miscarriages of justice The twenty six articles and essays reproduced in this volume explore the theoretical foundations of modern scientific proof and critically consider the practical issues to which expert evidence gives rise in contemporary criminal trials The essays are prefaced by a substantial new introduction which provides an overview and incisive commentary contextualising the key debates The volume begins by placing forensic science in interdisciplinary focus with contributions from historical sociological Science and Technology Studies STS philosophical and jurisprudential perspectives This is followed by closer examination of the role of forensic science and other expert evidence in criminal proceedings exposing enduring tensions and addressing recent controversies in the relationship between science and criminal law A third set of contributions considers the practical challenges of interpreting and communicating forensic science evidence This perennial battle continues to be fought at the intersection between the logic of scientific inference and the psychology of the fact finder s common sense reasoning Finally the volume s fourth group of essays evaluates the limited success of existing procedural reforms aimed at improving the reception of expert testimony in criminal adjudication and considers future prospects for institutional renewal with a keen eye to comparative law models and experiences success stories and cautionary tales Records & Briefs New York State Appellate Division ,
