Unbuttoned Christopher Dummitt,2017-05-01 When Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King died in 1950 the public knew little about his eccentric private life In his final will King ordered the destruction of his private diaries seemingly securing his privacy for good Yet twenty five years after King s death the public was bombarded with stories about Weird Willie the prime minister who communed with ghosts and cavorted with prostitutes Unbuttoned traces the transformation of the public s knowledge and opinion of King s character offering a compelling look at the changing way Canadians saw themselves and measured the importance of their leaders personal lives Christopher Dummitt relates the strange posthumous tale of King s diary and details the specific decisions of King s literary executors Along the way we learn about a thief in the public archives stolen copies of King s diaries being sold on the black market and an RCMP hunt for a missing diary linked to the search for Russian spies at the highest levels of the Canadian government Analyzing writing and reporting about King Dummitt concludes that the increasingly irreverent views of King can be explained by a fundamental historical transformation that occurred in the era in which King s diaries were released when the rights revolution Freud 1960s activism and investigative journalism were making self revelation a cultural preoccupation Presenting extensive archival research in a captivating narrative Unbuttoned traces the rise of a political culture that privileged the individual as the ultimate source of truth and made Canadians rethink what they wanted to know about politicians      Black Belt ,1966-10 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known marital arts figure in the world      Architecture of Instruction and Delight Pieter van Wesemael,2001      Radioactive Contamination Virginia Brodine,1975
