Fact Or Fiction:

From Fact to Fiction Shelley Fisher Fishkin, 1988 This volume offers the first full length study to examine the tradition in American letters since the 1830s of great imaginative writers beginning their careers in journalism Fishkin focuses on the lives and careers of Walt Whitman Mark Twain Theodore Dreiser Ernest Hemingway and John Dos Passos in order to discover the roots of their greatest imaginative works and the factors that led each writer to turn to fiction Her probing examination of the poetry and fiction that followed the newspaper and magazine work of these writers reveals how each transformed fact into art and how journalism has helped to give a distinctively American cast to American literature Fact and Fiction in Contemporary Narratives Jan Alber, Alice Bell, 2021-05-11 This book explores the complex interrelationship between fact and fiction in narratives of the twenty first century Current cultural theory observes a cultural shift away from postmodernism to new forms of expression Rather than a radical break from the postmodern however postmodernist techniques are repurposed to express a new sincerity a purposeful self reflexivity a contemporary sense of togetherness and an associated commitment to reality In what the editors consider to be one manifestation of this general tendency this book explores the ways in which contemporary texts across different media play with the boundary between fact and fiction This includes the examination of novels autobiography autofiction film television mockumentary digital fiction advertising campaigns and media hoaxes The chapters engage with theories of what comes after postmodernism and analyse the narratological stylistic and or semiotic devices on which such texts rely The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies Fact and Fiction Lydia Maria Francis Child, 2000 Fact Or Fiction, 1958 Reading Tutor, Grades 4 - 8 Betz, 2009-08-24 Make reading fun for students in grades 4 and up using Reading Tutor Biographies This 48 page book captures readers enthusiasm with interesting age appropriate biographies and activities relating to biographies The book includes activities that reinforce difficult comprehension skills and improve reading levels It is great for use in the classroom and at home Revising Fiction, Fact, and Faith Nathaniel Goldberg, Chris Gavalier, 2020-07-01 This book addresses how our revisionary practices account for relations between texts and how they are read It offers an overarching philosophy of revision concerning works of fiction fact and faith revealing unexpected insights about the philosophy of language the metaphysics of fact and fiction and the history and philosophy of science and religion Using the novels of J R R Tolkien as exemplars the authors introduce a fundamental distinction between the purely physical and the linguistic aspects of texts They then demonstrate how two competing theories of reference descriptivism and referentialism are instead constitutive of a single semantic account needed to explain all kinds of revision The authors also propose their own metaphysical foundations of fiction and fact The next part of the book brings the authors philosophy of revision into dialogue with Thomas Kuhn s famous analysis of factual and specifically scientific change It also discusses a complex episode in the history of paleontology demonstrating how scientific and popular texts can diverge over time Finally the authors expand their philosophy of revision to religious texts arguing that rather than being distinct such texts are always read as other kinds that faith tends to be more important as evidence for religious texts than for others and that the latter explains why religious communities tend to have remarkable historical longevity Revising Fiction Fact and Faith offers a unique and comprehensive account of the philosophy of revision It will be of interest to a wide range of scholars and advanced students working in philosophy of language metaphysics philosophy of literature literary theory and criticism and history and philosophy of science and religion Handbook of Narratology Peter Hühn, Jan Christoph Meister, John Pier, Wolf Schmid, 2014-10-10 This handbook provides a systematic overview of the present state of international research in narratology and is now available in a second completely revised and expanded edition Detailed individual studies by internationally renowned narratologists elucidate central terms of narratology present a critical account of the major research positions and their historical development and indicate directions for future research Facts, Fiction, and

African Creative Imaginations Toyin Falola, Fallou Ngom, 2009-09-11 This volume brings together insights from distinguished scholars from around the world to address the facts fiction and creative imaginations in the pervasive portrayals of Africa its people societies and cultures in the literature and the media The fictionalization of Africa and African issues in the media and the popular literature that blends facts and fiction has rendered perceptions of Africa its cultures societies customs and conflicts often superficial and deficient in the popular Western consciousness The book brings eminent scholars from a variety of disciplines to sort out the persistent fictionalization of Africa from facts pertaining to the genesis of powerful cultural political or religious icons the historical and cultural significance of intriguing customs such as tribal marks gender relations causes of conflicts and African responses and creative imaginations in contemporary African films fiction and literature among others Reading Historical Fiction Kate Mitchell, 2012-12-03 This collection examines the intersection of historical recollection strategies of representation and reading practices in historical fiction from the eighteenth century to today In shifting focus to the agency of the reader and taking a long historical view the collection brings a new perspective to the field of historical representation Fact and Fiction Lydia Maria Child, 1846

Narrative Desire and Historical Reparations Timothy Gauthier, 2013-10-15 This book examines and explains the obsession with history in the contemporary British novel It frames these historical novels as expressions of narrative desire highlighting the reciprocal relationship between a desire to disclose and to rid ourselves of anxieties elicited by the past Scrutinizing representative novels from Byatt McEwan and Rushdie contemporary fiction is revealed as capable of advocating a viable ethical stance and as a form of authentic commentary Our anxieties often exist in response to what might be perceived as the oppression or eradication of values whether this is through the modern repudiation of Victorian principles Byatt the Western rethinking of Enlightenment narratives in light of the Holocaust McEwan or pluralism threatened by religious fundamentalism Rushdie Each of these novelists differentially employs postmodern artifice sometimes as a way to reject the notion of historical construction sometimes to advocate for it but always to bring us closer to what the author believes are significant values and truths rather than relativism The representative qualities of these novels serve to highlight themes concerns and anxieties present in many of the works of each author and by extension those of their contemporaries     The Outlook Lyman Abbott,Hamilton Wright Mabie,Ernest Hamlin Abbott,Francis Rufus Bellamy,1914     The Autofictional Alexandra Effe,Hannie Lawlor,2022-01-03 This open access book offers innovative and wide ranging responses to the continuously flourishing literary phenomenon of autofiction The book shows the insights that are gained in the shift from the genre descriptor to the adjective and from a broad application of the autofictional as a theoretical lens and aesthetic strategy In three sections on Approaches Affordances and Forms the volume proposes new theoretical approaches for the study of autofiction and the autofictional offers fresh perspectives on many of the prominent authors in the discussion draws them into a dialogue with autofictional practice from across the globe and brings into view texts forms and media that have not traditionally been considered for their autofictional dimensions The book in sum expands the parameters of research on autofiction to date to allow new voices and viewpoints to emerge     Inventors and Inventions Lorraine Hopping Egan,1997 Presents reproducible cross curricular activities for grades four through eight on historic and modern inventions and inventors and includes ideas for student inventions     The Magic of Truth Farah Dally,2014-11-10 Questions of truth have occupied philosophers scientists and theologians throughout human history What is truth Does it exist How do we define truth Who determines what is true and what is not The Magic of Truth defends the relativity of truth by examining its role in literature the arts and science as well as in our own lives and traditions The product of intensive research on the idea of truth and the secret meaning it holds Farah Dally argues that no field of study can progress without calling into question the traditional view of truth as a clear objective image     Oscar Wilde and Modern Culture Joseph Bristow,2009-01-12 Oscar Wilde and Modern Culture The Making of a Legend explores the meteoric rise sudden fall and legendary resurgence of an immensely influential writer s reputation from his hectic 1881 American lecture tour to recent Hollywood adaptations of his dramas Always renowned if not notorious for his fashionable persona Wilde courted celebrity at an early age Later he came to prominence as one of the most talented essayists and fiction writers of his time In the years leading up to his two year imprisonment Wilde stood among the foremost dramatists in London But after he was sent down for committing acts of gross indecency it seemed likely that social embarrassment would inflict irreparable damage to his legacy As this volume shows Wilde died in comparative obscurity Little could he have realized that in five years his name would come back into popular circulation thanks to the success of Richard Strauss s opera Salome and Robert Ross s edition of De Profundi With each succeeding decade the twentieth century continued to honor Wilde s name by keeping his plays in repertory producing dramas about his life adapting his works for film and devising countless biographical and critical studies of his writings This volume reveals why more than a hundred years after his demise Wilde s value in the academic world the auction house and the entertainment industry stands higher than that of any modern writer      Black Fatigue Mary-Frances Winters,2020-09-15 The first book to define and explore the intergenerational impact of systemic racism on the health of Black people and how to combat its pernicious effects Black people young and old are fatigued says award winning diversity and inclusion leader Mary Frances Winters It is physically mentally and emotionally draining to continue to experience inequities and even atrocities day after day when justice is a God given and legislated right And it is exhausting to have to constantly explain this to white people even and especially well meaning white people who fall prey to white fragility and too often are unwittingly complicit in upholding the very systems they say they want dismantled This book designed to illuminate the myriad dire consequences of living while Black came at the urging of Winters s Black friends and colleagues Winters describes how in every aspect of life from economics to education work criminal justice and very importantly health outcomes for the most part the trajectory for Black people is not improving It is paradoxical that with all the attention focused over the last fifty years on social justice and diversity and inclusion little progress has been made in actualizing the vision of an equitable society Black people are quite literally sick and tired of being sick and tired Winters s work as a diversity and inclusion leader informs this exploration of the toll that systemic racism takes on Black people every single day and the need for activism that leads to meaningful radical change Popsugar Winters hopes to inspire aspiring allies with better insight into the Black experience Book Riot 12 Essential Books About Black History and Identity      Forbidden Fruit Richard Ned Lebow,2010-01-18 Could World War I have been averted if Franz Ferdinand and his wife hadn t been murdered by Serbian nationalists in 1914 What if Ronald Reagan had been killed by Hinckley s bullet Would the Cold War have ended as it did In Forbidden Fruit Richard Ned Lebow develops protocols for conducting robust counterfactual thought experiments and uses them to probe the causes and contingency of transformative international developments like World War I and the end of the Cold War He uses experiments surveys and a short story to explore why policymakers historians and international relations scholars are so resistant to the contingency and indeterminism inherent in open ended nonlinear systems Most controversially Lebow argues that the difference between counterfactual and so called factual arguments is misleading as both can be evidence rich and logically persuasive A must read for social scientists Forbidden Fruit also examines the binary between fact and fiction and the use of counterfactuals in fictional works like Philip Roth s The Plot Against America to understand complex causation and its implications for who we are and what we think makes the social world work      The Fall of the Roman Empire Martin M. Winkler,2009-04-20 The essays collected in this book present the first comprehensive appreciation of The Fall of the Roman Empire from historical historiographical and cinematic perspectives The book also provides the principal classical sources on the period It is a companion to Gladiator Film and History Blackwell 2004 and Spartacus Film and History Blackwell 2007 and completes a triad of scholarly studies on Hollywood s greatest films about Roman history A critical re evaluation of the 1964 epic film The Fall of the Roman Empire directed by Anthony Mann from historical film historical and contemporary points of view Presents a collection of scholarly essays and classical sources on the period of Roman history that ancient and modern historians have considered to be the turning point toward the eventual fall of Rome Contains a short essay by director Anthony Mann Includes a map of the Roman Empire and film stills as well as translations of the principal ancient sources an extensive bibliography and a chronology of events      No Price I Bring Joel Cooper, 2008 If you have ever despaired with your efforts to earn your eternal salvation you might want to read this book By relating the experiences of a minister of the gospel his efforts to save himself the book attempts to show that in the end only the grace of God will suffice Moreover in telling the story the minister reveals the nature of racism in Little Rock and the effects of the hippie revolution in Fayetteville a split church in the former and a burned church in the latter You may find that you resonate with the minister's struggle to find a faith that can endure all the evil that can befall an individual and will counter all the arguments that atheistic scientism can give
