Fade Out The Calamitous Final Days Of Mgm:

Fade Out Peter Bart,1990 New York Magazine ,1992-05-04 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Entertainment Industry Economics Harold L. Vogel,2014-12-31 The entertainment and media industries already important sectors of the US economy continue to grow rapidly in other countries around the world This ninth edition of Entertainment Industry Economics continues to be the definitive source on the economics of film music television advertising broadcasting cable casino and online wagering publishing performing arts and culture toys and games sports and theme parks It synthesizes a vast amount of data to provide a clear comprehensive and up to date reference guide on the economics financing accounting production and marketing of entertainment in the United States and overseas Completely updated it includes new sections on price effects art markets and Asian gaming Financial analysts and investors economists industry executives accountants lawyers regulators and legislators and journalists as well as students preparing to join these professionals will benefit from this invaluable guide on how the entertainment and media industries operate Leading Lady Stephen Galloway,2017-04-25 The definitive biography of movie executive and philanthropist Sherry Lansing traces her groundbreaking journey to become the first female head of a major motion picture studio sharing behind the scenes tales from movie sets and Hollywood boardrooms When Sherry Lansing became the first woman ever to be named president of a major studio the news ricocheted around the world That was just the beginning of an extraordinary run that saw her head two studios make hundreds of films produce classic pictures such as Fatal Attraction and rule for twenty five years as the most powerful woman Hollywood has ever known Award winning writer Stephen Galloway takes us behind the scenes of Lansing s epic journey inside the battles up close with the stars and into the heart of a creative world populated by the likes of Meryl Streep Steven Spielberg Jane Fonda Angelina Jolie and Tom Cruise He shows us the velvet touch that masked the iron hand and the roller coaster drama behind such movies as Titanic Forrest Gump Braveheart and Saving Private Ryan Above all he takes us into the mind of Lansing creating a revealing portrait of a dynamic driven woman who overcame unimaginable odds pushed boundaries and left Hollywood at the peak of her power to achieve the life she wanted Some Kind of Hero Matthew Field,Ajay Chowdhury,2015-10-12 For over 50 years Albert R Broccoli s Eon Productions has navigated the ups and downs of the volatile British film industry enduring both critical wrath and acclaim in equal measure for its now legendary James Bond series Latterly this family run business has been crowned with box office gold and recognised by motion picture academies around the world However it has not always been plain sailing Changing financial regimes forced 007 to relocate to France and Mexico changing fashions and politics led to box office disappointments and changing studio regimes and business disputes all but killed the franchise And the rise of competing action heroes has constantly questioned Bond's place in popular culture But against all odds the filmmakers continue to wring new life from the series and 2012's Skyfall saw both huge critical and commercial success crowning 007 as the undisputed king of the action genre Some Kind of Hero recounts this remarkable story from its origins in the early 60s right through to the present day and draws on hundreds of unpublished interviews with the cast and crew of this iconic series

Escape Velocity Bradley Schauer, 2017-01-03 Today movie theaters are packed with audiences of all ages marveling to exciting science fiction blockbusters many of which are also critically acclaimed However when the science fiction film genre first emerged in the 1950s it was represented largely by exploitation horror films lurid culturally disreputable and appealing to a niche audience of children and sci fi buffs How did the genre evolve from B movie to blockbuster Escape Velocity charts the historical trajectory of American science fiction cinema explaining how the genre transitioned from eerie low budget horror like It Came from Outer Space to art films like Slaughterhouse Five and finally to the extraordinary popularity of hits like E.T. Bradley Schauer draws on primary sources such as internal studio documents promotional materials and film reviews to explain the process of cultural aesthetic and economic legitimation that occurred between the 1950s and 1980s as pulp science fiction tropes were adapted to suit the tastes of mainstream audiences Considering the inescapable dominance of today's effects driven blockbusters Escape Velocity not only charts the history of science fiction film but also gives an account of the origins of contemporary Hollywood

Contemporary Hollywood Cinema STEVE NEALE,Murray Smith,2013-04-15 A comprehensive overview of the film industry in Hollywood today Contemporary Hollywood Cinema brings together leading international cinema scholars to explore the technology institutions film makers and movies of contemporary American film making Hollywood's Cold War Tony Shaw,2007-09-19 Hollywood s Cold War Burt Lancaster Kate Buford,2013-09-18 Startlingly handsome witty fanatically loyal charming scary and intensely sexual Burt Lancaster was the quintessential b te du cin ma one of Hollywood s great stars He was as well an intensely private man and he authorized no biographies in his lifetime Kate Buford is the first writer to win the cooperation of Lancaster s widow close friends and colleagues and her book is a revelation Here is Lancaster the man from his teenage years bolting the Depression era immigrant neighborhood of East Harlem where he grew up for the life of a circus acrobat then the electric New York theater of the 1930s then the dying days of vaudeville We see his production company Hecht Hill Lancaster become the biggest independent of the 1950s a bridge between the studio era and modern filmmaking With the power he derived from it we see him gain a remarkable degree of control which he used to become the auteur of his own career His navigation through the anti Communist witch hunts made him an example of a star who tweaked the noses of HUAC and survived His greatest roles in Sweet Smell of Success Elmer Gantry Birdman of Alcatraz The Swimmer Atlantic City kept to the progressive edge that had originated in the tolerant diverse reforming principles of his childhood And in the extraordinary complete roster of his films From Here to Eternity Gunfight at the O K Corral Judgment at Nuremberg The Leopard 1900 and Field of Dreams among many others he proved to be both a master of commercial movies that pleased a worldwide audience and an actor who pushed himself beyond stardom into cinematic art Kate Buford has written a dynamic biography of a passionate and committed star the first full scale study of one of the last great unexamined Hollywood lives Los Angeles Magazine ,2001-09 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian

The Cinema of Urban Crisis Lawrence Webb,2025-10-01 In the 1970s cities across the United States and Western Europe faced a deep social and political crisis that challenged established principles of planning economics and urban theory At the same time film industries experienced a parallel process of transition the effects of which rippled through the aesthetic and narrative form of the decade s cinema The Cinema of Urban Crisis traces a new path through the cinematic legacy of the 1970s by drawing together these intertwined histories of urban and cultural change Bringing issues of space and place to the fore the book unpacks the geographical and spatial dynamics of film movements from the New Hollywood to the New German Cinema showing how the crisis of the seventies and the emerging postindustrial economy brought film and the city together in new configurations Chapters cover a range of cities on both sides of the Atlantic from New York Philadelphia and San Francisco to London Paris and Berlin Integrating analysis of film industries and production practices with detailed considerations of individual texts the book offers strikingly original close analyses of a wide range of films from New Hollywood The Conversation The King of Marvin Gardens Rocky to European art cinema Alice in the Cities The Passenger Tout va Bien and popular international genres such as the political thriller and the crime film Focusing on the aesthetic and representational strategies of these films the book argues that the decade s cinema engaged with and helped to shape the passage from the urban crisis of the late sixties to the neoliberal urban renaissance of the early eighties Splicing ideas from film studies with urban geography and architectural history the book offers a fresh perspective on a rich period of film history and opens up new directions for critical engagement between film and urban studies

Roadshow! Matthew Kennedy,2015-09-02 In Roadshow The Fall of Film Musicals in the 1960s film historian Matthew Kennedy explores the downfall of a beloved genre caught in the hands of misguided creators who glutted the American film market with a spate of expensive and financially unrewarding musicals between 1967 and 1972 In doing so it offers an alternative view of this era in the world of American popular entertainment telling of the cultural importance of the studios death grip on the film business rather than dwelling on the failures of the flops themselves

The Man who Seduced Hollywood B. James Gladstone,2013 In Hollywood history no other lawyer has achieved the movie star like fame and glamour that Greg Bautzer enjoyed This revealing biography tells for the first time the amazing story of a self made man who for 50 years used his irresistible charm and prodigious legal talent to dominate the courtrooms boardrooms and bedrooms of Hollywood Columnists of the 1930s through 1950s dubbed him Hollywood Bachelor Number One and for good reason His long term relationships and momentary conquests were a who's who of leading ladies Through e Dictionary of Film Finance and Distribution John W. Cones, 2013 This dictionary is an aid to anyone involved in seeking to finance a feature film project especially independents It covers terms used in film production and distribution marketing accounting insurance securities corporate structures and general financial arenas All of the principal forms of feature film finance are covered including studio distributors production companies lending institutions co financing pre sales grants foreign and passive investor financing involving the sale of a security The Agency Frank Rose, 1996 The story of the William Morris Agency is the story of show business itself Founded at the turn of the century it stood as the premier agency in Hollywood for 80 years With unvarnished descriptions of the board that runs William Morris and the needy and demanding stars they represent The Agency is a compelling tale that lifts the curtain on the most intriguing business in America today Photos With Love, Mommie Dearest A. Ashley Hoff, Bruce Vilanch, 2024-05-07 When she died in 1977 Joan Crawford was remembered as an icon of Hollywood's Golden Age until publication the following year of her daughter's memoir Mommie Dearest Christina Crawford's book was an immediate bestseller combining the infrequently discussed topic of child abuse with the draw of Hollywood drama But when Paramount Pictures released the film version starring Faye Dunaway as Crawford it was panned and it remains one of the most legendary critical bombs in film history The lavish big screen adaptation drew unexpected laughter for its over the top the scenes depicting life in the Crawford household Rarely have such good intentions been met with such ridicule Despite this the movie was a commercial success and remains four decades later immensely popular as an unintentional camp classic Based on new interviews with people connected to the book and the film from cast and crew members to industry insiders With Love Mommie Dearest details the writing and selling of Christina's book and the aftermath of its publication as well as the filming of the motion picture whose backstage drama almost surpassed what was viewed on screen in the film Hollywood historian A Ashley Hoff explores the phenomenon the camp and the very real social issues addressed by the book and film Tough as Nails Douglass K. Daniel, 2011-04-08 Called God's angry man for his unyielding demands in pursuit of personal and artistic freedom Oscar winning filmmaker Richard Brooks brought us some of the mid twentieth century's most iconic films including Blackboard Jungle Cat on a Hot Tin Roof Elmer Gantry In Cold Blood and Looking for Mr Goodbar The important thing he once remarked is to write your story to make it believable to make it live His own life story has never been fully chronicled until now Tough as Nails The Life and Films of Richard Brooks restores to importance the career of a prickly iconoclast who sought realism and truth in his films Douglass K Daniel explores how the writer director made it from the slums of Philadelphia to the heights of the Hollywood elite working with the top stars of the day among them Humphrey Bogart Cary Grant Elizabeth Taylor Jean Simmons Sidney Poitier Sean Connery Gene Hackman and Diane Keaton Brooks dramatized social issues and depicted characters in conflict with their own values winning an Academy Award for his Elmer Gantry screenplay and earning nominations for another seven Oscars for directing and screenwriting Tough as Nails offers illuminating insights into Brooks's life drawing on unpublished studio memos and documents and interviews from stars and colleagues including Poitier director Paul Mazursky and Simmons who was married to Brooks for twenty years Daniel takes readers behind the scenes of Brooks's major films and sheds light on their making their compromises and their common threads Tough as Nails celebrates Brooks's vision while adding to the critical understanding of his works their flaws as well as their merits and depicting the tumults and trends in the life of a man who always kept his own compass Best Books for General Audiences selected by the American Association of School Librarians Outstanding Book selected by the Public Library Reviewers

The Feature Film Distribution Deal John W. Cones, 1997 John W. Cones whose real goal is to stimulate a long term film industry reform movement shows how the financial control of the film industry in the hands of the major studios and distributors actually translates into creative control of the industry Cones discusses the pros and cons of the debate relating to the industry's so called net profit problem and the way in which the distribution deal plays an integral part in that problem He then breaks down five major film finance distribution scenarios explaining various distribution deals and suggesting ways of negotiating distribution Critically examining the specific terms of the distribution deal itself Cones covers gross receipts exclusions distributor fees and distribution expenses He also investigates the various forms of interest issues of production costs matters of creative control and general contractual provisions For handy reference Cones includes an extensive checklist for negotiating any feature film distribution deal The list deals with distribution fees distribution expenses interest production costs creative control issues general contractual provisions distributor commitments and the limits of negotiating His nine appendixes present a Motion Picture Industry Overview Profit Participation Audit Firms ADI Top 50 Market Rankings an AFMA Member List 1992 1993 a Production Financing Distribution Agreement a Negative Pickup Distribution Agreement a Distribution Rights Acquisition Agreement a Distribution Agreement Rent a Distributor Deal and a Foreign Distribution Agreement Cones wrote this book for independent producers executive and associate producers and their representatives directors actors screenwriters members of talent guilds distributors and entertainment antitrust and securities attorneys Securities issuers and dealers investment bankers and money finders investors and financiers of every sort also will be interested In addition Cones suggests and hopes that the book will interest Congress their research staff government regulators at the Internal Revenue Service the Securities and Exchange Commission the Federal Trade Commission and law enforcement officials such as the Los Angeles District Attorney and the U S Justice Department
