The New Zealand Smallholder, 1928 Prairie Farmer, 1901 Clinical Ethics and the Necessity of Stories Osborne P. Wiggins, Annette C. Allen, 2011-02-02 This collection of articles honors the work of Richard Zaner a distinguished philosopher who has worked for over twenty years as an ethics consultant at Vanderbilt University Medical Center His work in the clinical setting especially the use of narrative in understanding what is going on in this setting is the focus of some of the papers others relate his methodology and phenomenological approach to the more standard bioethical problemata and approaches The essential questions what then is the role of the philosopher turned medical ethicists Is medical ethics a form of applied philosophy or is it also a form of therapy distinguish Zaner's phenomenology from hermeneutical philosophy

The Wiley World Handbook of Existential Therapy Erik Craig, Alfred Laengle, Kirk J. Schneider, Digby Tantam, Simon du Plock, 2019-04-15 An existential therapy handbook from those in the field with its broad scope covering key texts theories practice and research The Wiley World Handbook of Existential Therapy is a work representing the collaboration of existential psychotherapists teachers and researchers It's a book to guide readers in understanding human life better through the exploration of aspects and applications of existential therapy The book presents the therapy as a way for clients to explore their experiences and make the most of their lives Its contributors offer an accurate and in depth view of the field An introduction of existential therapy is provided along with a summary of its historical foundations Chapters are organized into sections that cover daseinsanalysis existential phenomenological humanistic and integrative therapies and existential group therapy International developments in theory practice and research are also examined Ethics of Eating and

Drinking Adriano Fabris, 2024-01-01 This book presents and discusses some of the problems that are increasingly emerging today in our relationship with food as well as in our style of eating and drinking The first three chapters focus on issues concerning eating and on our relationship with what we can eat The fourth chapter deals with the act of drinking with our relationship with water and discusses justice aspects in the use of water The main idea is that the acts of eating and drinking are to be understood as relationships i.e. as a way human beings relate to other beings As such they can be performed ethically well or badly Therefore an ethics of eating and of drinking should be developed Not only the book highlights some key ethical problems associated with the act of eating and drinking yet it also describes some ethically sustainable solutions to them It ends with a list of reflections which are intended to guide our choices in the relations with food and drinks with a normative approach Mainly written for university students and researchers in the field of applied ethics this book will also offer an inspiring reading to a wider audience of academics and professionals
