Failed Federations Robin W. Winks, 1970 The Politics and Economics of Decolonization in Africa Andrew Cohen, 2017-05-26 The slow collapse of the European colonial empires after 1945 provides one of the great turning points of twentieth century history With the loss of India however the British under Harold Macmillan attempted to enforce a second colonial occupation supporting the efforts of Sir Andrew Cohen of the Colonial Office to create a Central African Federation Drawing on newly released archival material The Politics and Economics of Decolonization offers a fresh examination of Britain's central African territories in the late colonial period and provides a detailed assessment of how events in Britain Africa and the UN shaped the process of decolonization The author situates the Central African Federation which consisted of modern day Zambia Zimbabwe and Malawi in its wider international context shedding light on the Federation's complex relationships with South Africa with US Presidents Dwight Eisenhower and John F Kennedy and with the expanding United Nations The result is an important history of the last days of the British Empire and the beginnings of a more independent African continent Federalism and Ethnic Conflict Regulation in India and Pakistan K. Adeney, 2016-01-12

Katharine Adeney demonstrates that institutional design is the most important explanatory variable in understanding the different intensity and types of conflict in the two countries rather than the role of religion Adeney examines the extent to which previous constitutional choices explain current day conflicts Defunct Federalisms Emilian Kavalski, Magdalena Zolkos, 2016-05-13 Since the end of the Cold War the global arena has become a place for dynamic change in particular for federal political units The focus on defunct federalisms draws attention not only to the difference between state making and nation building it also points to the fact that state making does not necessarily lead to the creation of a national identity This comparative volume looks at the track record of several defunct federalisms to identify options that have been overlooked and decisions that precipitated the collapse Bringing together insights from the study of state failure and federal collapse it examines the ways in which parallel assessment is crucial for suggesting the complex structures of identity accommodation in federal entities The volume is ideal for advanced undergraduates and graduate students as well as university lecturers and researchers working on the issues related to contemporary federalism history of federal units and the questions of national identity Why Federations Fail Thomas M. Franck, 1968 SCOTT Copy 1 From the John Holmes Library Collection

Cayman Islands a Spy Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP USA, Failed Federations Robin W. Winks, 1970 The Decolonisation of Zimbabwe Kate Law, 2020-05-21 Rhodesia's illegal Unilateral Declaration of Independence UDI in 1965 is an act that not only shaped regional politics but also had a profound effect on Britain's attempt to retreat from its empire This edited collection brings together leading voices in the field whose contributions on the role of finance big business and the regional and international actors involved in the country's negotiated independence update long held historiographical wisdoms signalling a revival in economic and diplomatic explanations for the country's decolonisation In particular they shed fresh light on the role s played in the decolonisation of Zimbabwe by economic private business and political liberation movements Western and Southern African governments actors that until now have been studied with very limited access to primary sources As scholarship on Zimbabwe is currently dominated by studies that seek to understand the crisis in which the country has recently found itself this collection acts as a clarion call that reinforces the importance of studies of earlier historical processes In doing so the book provides a more nuanced understanding of the continuities and discontinuities between Zimbabwe s colonial and postcolonial history and examines the roles played by external governments and individuals in the decolonisation of Zimbabwe This book was originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History

Federations Chad Rector, 2011-02-23 Why would states ever give up their independence to join federations While federation can provide more wealth or security than self sufficiency states can in principle get those benefits more easily by cooperating through international organizations such as alliances or customs unions Chad Rector develops a new theory that states federate when their leaders expect benefits from closer military or economic cooperation but also expect that cooperation via an international organization would put some of the states in a vulnerable position open to extortion from their erstwhile partners The potentially vulnerable states hold out refusing to join alliances or customs unions and only agreeing to military and economic cooperation under a federal constitution Rector examines several historical cases the making of a federal Australia and the eventual exclusion of New Zealand from the union the decisions made within Buenos Aires and Prussia to build Argentina and Germany largely through federal contracts rather than conquests and the failures of postindependence unions in East Africa and the Caribbean

Decolonisation, Identity and Nation in Rhodesia, 1964-1979 David Kenrick, 2019-11-02 This book explores concepts of decolonisation identity and nation in the white settler society of Rhodesia now Zimbabwe between 1964 and 1979 It considers how white settlers used the past to make claims of authority in the present It investigates the white Rhodesian state s attempts to assert its independence from Britain and develop a Rhodesian national identity by changing Rhodesia s old colonial symbols and examines how the meaning of these national symbols changed over time Finally the book offers insights into the role of race in Rhodesian national identity showing how portrayals of a timeless black population were highly dependent upon circumstance and reflective of white settler anxieties Using a comparative approach the book shows parallels between Rhodesia and other settler societies as well as other post colonial nation states and even metropolises as themes and narratives of decolonisation travelled around the world

Empires and Colonies Jonathan Hart, 2014-02-06 Empires and Colonies provides a thoroughgoing and lively exploration of the expansion of the seaborne empires of western Europe from the fifteenth century and how that process of expansion affected the world including its successor the United States Whilst providing special attention to Europe the book is careful to highlight the ambivalence and contradiction of that expansion The book also illuminates connections between empires and colonies as a theme in history concentrating on culture while also discussing the rich social economic and political dimensions of the story Furthermore Empires and Colonies recognizes that whilst a study of the expansion of Europe is an important part of world history it is not a history of the world per se The focus on culture is used to assert that areas and peoples that lack great economic power at any given time also deserve attention These alternative voices of slaves indigenous peoples and critics of empire and colonization are an important and compelling element of the book Empires and Colonies will be essential reading not only for students of imperial history but also for anyone interested in the makings of our modern world

Failure. Russia Under Putin Harley D. Balzer, Steven A. Fisher, 2025-07-10 Examines the significant failures Russia has faced under Vladimir Putin's leadership and presents an important counterpoint to a broad range of studies emphasizing Russia's resurrection status as a persistent power or successful military reform Despite Putin's claims of restoring Russia's rightful place in the world reviving the economic and industrial capacity destroyed in the 1990s and improving living standards data show that the gains from the oil price bonanza of 2000-2008 have long since vanished The success Putin has achieved in centralizing power and repressing opposition now prevents any effective changes to address Russia's long term decline Failures include the inability to diversify the economy reduce corruption reverse demographic and educational decline alleviate poverty or address social inequalities This edited volume examines how Putin's policy choices have led to Russia's inexorable decline on the global stage Depicting Russia's inability under Vladimir Putin's rule to improve critical spheres of its national life aggravated by military belligerence and adventurism abroad chapters detail how Putin's policies have severely limited Russia's development and institutional stability leaving the country without a clear leadership transition mechanism or capacity to abandon flawed policies

Tides of Empire Gerald S. Graham, 1972-01-01

Understanding Federalism and Federation Alain-G. Gagnon, Soeren Keil, 2016-03-09 Based on a variety of contemporary debates on federal theory Understanding Federalism and Federation honours Michael Burgess' contribution to the study of these topics through a selection of approaches theories debates and interpretations Gathering contributors from diverse subfields to synthesize current debates it offers a snapshot of the immense range of current research on federalism and federation Leading authors debate key issues such as American federalism Canada and the role of Quebec the latest insights into comparative federalism and federation the European Union as a federal project and the analysis of constitutional courts in federal systems Different theoretical and empirical fields and perspectives are brought together synthesizing major findings and addressing emerging issues and these topics are analysed through multiple lenses to provide new insights original approaches and much needed theoretical and empirical data on federalism and federation

Beyond Federation Emma Hunter, Daniel Branch, Ismay Milford, Gerard McCann, 2025-08-18 In the period of mid twentieth century decolonization when nationalism and globalism were hotly contested East Africans nurtured regionalism in their intellectual and creative work This book looks beyond political projects of federation to recover ideas and practices of regionalism their remarkable longevity and their significance for understanding possibilities of radical change In doing so it tells a different story about the fate of the category of East Africa building on a body of scholarship about the imagined political communities of decolonizing Africa and rejecting narratives that explain the failure of regional integration as the immediate consequence of postcolonial authoritarianism or global economic crisis Labour and Economic Change in Southern Africa c.1900-2000 Rory Pilosof,Andrew Cohen,2021-06-03 This book explores the social and economic development of Zimbabwe Zambia and Malawi over the course of the twentieth century These three countries have long shared and interconnected pasts All three were drawn into the British Empire at a similar time and the formation of the ill fated Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland formally linked these countries together for a decade in the mid twentieth century This formal political relationship created dynamics that resulted in yet closer economic and social links After Federation the economic realities of industry transport and labour supplies meant that these three countries continued to be intricately interconnected Yet despite these connected pasts comparative work on the economic histories of Malawi Zambia and Zimbabwe and how these change over time is rare This book addresses the gap by providing the first comprehensive collection of labour and census data across the twentieth century for these three countries The different economic models and performances of these states offer good comparison allowing researchers to look at different models of development and how these played out over the long term The book provides data on population growth and change industrial and occupational structure and the various shifts in what the economically active population did It will be useful for historians economists development studies scholars and non governmental organisations working on twentieth century and contemporary southern Africa Africa since Decolonization Martin Welz,2021-01-21 Home to more than 1 2 billion people living in 54 recognized states speaking around 3 000 languages Africa is a diverse and complex continent made up of states which differ in regard to their colonial history political system socio economic development economic policies and their experience with crises and conflicts This introduction and overview of African history and politics since decolonization emphasises throughout the diversity of the continent Organised thematically to include chapters on decolonization and its legacies external influences economics political systems inter African relations crises conflicts and conflict management and Africa s external relations Martin Welz strikes a fine balance between the use of contextual information analysis case studies and examples with theoretical debates in development politics and global policy Accessible to students at all levels it counters histories which offer reductive explanations of complex issues and offers new insights into the role African actors have played in influencing international affairs beyond the continent Survival in the 'Dumping Grounds' Laura Evans,2019-05-27 Survival in the Dumping Grounds examines a defining aspect of South Africa s recent past the history of apartheid era relocation While scholars and activists have long recognised the suffering caused by apartheid removals to the so called homelands the experiences of those who lived through this process have been more often obscured Drawing on extensive archival and oral history research this book examines the makings and the multiple meanings of relocation into two of the most notorious apartheid dumping grounds established in the Ciskei bantustan during the mid 1960s Sada and Ilinge Evans examines the local and global dynamics of the project of bantustan relocation and develops a multi layered analysis of the complex histories and ramifications of displacement and resettlement in the Ciskei Taxing Colonial Africa Leigh Gardner,2012-10-04 Taxation was one of the most contentious aspects of British colonial rule in Africa shaping relationships between Africans colonial governments and European settlers This is the first detailed comparative study of both taxation and public spending in British colonies in Africa Cold War Camera Thy Phu,Erina Duganne,Andrea Noble,2022-11-14 Cold War Camera explores the visual mediation of the Cold War and illuminates photography s role in shaping the ways it was prosecuted and experienced The contributors show how the camera stretched the parameters of the Cold War beyond dominant East West and US USSR binaries and highlight the significance of photography from across the global South Among other topics the contributors examine the production and circulation of the iconic figure of the revolutionary Vietnamese woman in the 1960s and 1970s photographs connected with the coming of independence and decolonization in West Africa family photograph archives in China and travel snapshots by Soviet citizens photographs of apartheid in South Africa and the circulation of photographs of Inuit Canadians who were relocated to the extreme Arctic in the 1950s Highlighting the camera s capacity to envision possible decolonialized futures establish visual affinities and solidarities and advance calls for justice to redress violent proxy conflicts this volume demonstrates that photography was not only crucial to conducting the Cold War it is central to understanding it Contributors Ariella Azoulay Jennifer Bajorek Erina Duganne Evyn L Espiritu Gandhi Eric Gottesman Tong Lam Karintha Lowe ngeles Donoso Macaya Darren Newbury Andrea Noble Sarah Parsons Gil Pasternak Thy Phu Oksana Sarkisova Olga Shevchenko Laura Wexler Guigui Yao Donya Ziaee Marta Zi tkiewicz
