Fair Prisoner:

The Prisoner Society Ben Crewe, 2012-01-19 While the use of imprisonment continues to rise in developed nations we have little sociological knowledge of the prison's inner world. Based on extensive fieldwork in a medium security prison, The Prisoner Society: Power, Adaptation and Social Life in an English Prison provides an in-depth analysis of the prison's social anatomy. It explains how power is exercised by the institution, individualizing the prisoner community and demanding particular forms of compliance and engagement. Drawing on prisoners' life stories, it supplies a detailed typology of adaptive styles showing how different prisoners experience and respond to the new range of penal practices and frustrations. It then explains how the prisoner society, its norms, hierarchy, and social relationships, is shaped both by these conditions of confinement and by the different backgrounds, values, and identities that prisoners bring into the prison environment. Through this analysis, this meticulously researched book aims to revive and update the dormant tradition of prison ethnography. It provides an empirical snapshot of a modern prison, documenting the aims and techniques of contemporary imprisonment and illuminating the social structures and behaviours that they generate. Through a penetrating account of power relations throughout the institution, the author documents the pains of modern imprisonment, the new techniques of survival, and the prison's distinctive forms of trade, friendship, and everyday culture. Prison Management, Prison Workers, and Prison Theory Stephen C. McGuinn, 2014-11-25 Prison Management, Prison Workers, and Prison Theory develops a new conception of prison infrastructure, organization, and policy to explore how workers and administrators are essential in the development of culture and morality within the prison environment. Stephen C. McGuinn demonstrates that effective managers prioritize prison workers in order to meet external social demands of imprisonment and internal demands of daily operation. McGuinn argues that prison administrators need to unify prison staff under a new conception of the institution. The exploration of current power structures and their opportunities for improvement provides insight for those interested in criminology, criminal justice, prison theory, and reform policy studies and labor studies. Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Labor, 1928 Report of the inspector of prisons, North-west. Provinces North-western provinces, 1853 Prison Masculinities / edited by Don Sabo, Terry A. Kupers, and Willie London Donald F. Sabo, Terry Allen Kupers, Willie James London, 2001 This book explores the frightening ways our prisons mirror the worst aspects of society-wide gender relations. It is part of the growing research on men and masculinities. The collection is unusual in that it combines contributions from activists, academics, and prisoners. The opening section, which features an essay by Angela Davis, focuses on the historical roots of the prison system, cultural practices surrounding gender and punishment, and the current expansion of corrections into the prison industrial complex. The next section examines the dominant or subservient roles that men play in prison and the connections between this hierarchy and male violence. Another section looks at the spectrum of intimate relationships behind bars, from rape to friendship, and another at physical and mental health. The last section is about efforts to reform prisons and prison masculinities including support groups for men It features an essay about prospects for post release success in the community written by a man who after doing time in Soledad and San Quentin went on to get a doctorate in counseling The contributions from prisoners include an essay on enforced celibacy by Mumia Abu Jamal as well as fiction and poetry on prison health policy violence and intimacy The creative contributions were selected from the more than 200 submissions received from prisoners Author note Don Sabo Professor of Social Sciences at D Youville College in Buffalo is author or editor of five books most recently with David Gordon Men s Health and Illness Gender Power and the Body and with Michael Messner Sex Violence and Power in Sports Rethinking Masculinity Sabo has appeared on The Today Show Oprah and Donahue Terry A Kupers M D a psychiatrist teaches at the Wright Institute in Berkeley He is the author of four books editor of a fifth His latest books are Prison Madness The Mental Health Crisis Behind Bars and What We Must Do About It and Revisioning Men s Lives Gender Intimacy and Power Kupers has served as an expert witness in more than a dozen cases on conditions of confinement and mental health services Willie London a published poet is General Editor of the prison publication Elite Expressions He is currently an inmate at Eastern Corrections For nine years he was a prisoner at Attica
