Faire De Lhistoire Nouvelles Approches:

The Latest Catastrophe Henry Rousso, 2016-07-06 The writing of recent history tends to be deeply marked by conflict by personal and collective struggles rooted in horrific traumas and bitter controversies Frequently today s historians can find themselves researching the same events that they themselves lived through This book reflects on the concept and practices of what is called contemporary history a history of the present time and identifies special tensions in the field between knowledge and experience distance and proximity and objectivity and subjectivity Henry Rousso addresses the rise of contemporary history and the relations of present day societies to their past especially their legacies of political violence Focusing on France Germany the United Kingdom and the United States he shows that for contemporary historians the recent past has become a problem to be solved No longer unfolding as a series of traditions to be respected or a set of knowledge to be transmitted and built upon history today is treated as a constant act of mourning or memory an attempt to atone Historians must also negotiate with strife within this field as older scholars who may have lived through events clash with younger historians who also claim to understand the experiences Ultimately The Latest Catastrophe shows how historians at times against their will have themselves become actors in a history still being made

Memory and Commemoration in Medieval Culture Elma Brenner, Meredith Cohen, Mary Franklin-Brown, 2016-04-22 In medieval society and culture memory occupied a unique position It was central to intellectual life and the medieval understanding of the human mind Commemoration of the dead was also a fundamental Christian activity Above all the past and the memory of it occupied a central position in medieval thinking from ideas concerning the family unit to those shaping political institutions Focusing on France but incorporating studies from further afield this collection of essays marks an important new contribution to the study of medieval memory and commemoration

Arranged thematically each part highlights how memory cannot be studied in isolation but instead intersects with many other areas of medieval scholarship including art history historiography intellectual history and the study of religious culture Key themes in the study of memory are explored such as collective memory the links between memory and identity the fallibility of memory and the linking of memory to the future as an anticipation of what is to come Annales Stuart Clark,1999 This collection reprints key articles written within the past 30 years on the Annales school their journal their influence on history historiography and other academic fields Opera, Power and Ideology Vlado Kotnik,2010 Opera is able to offer enchanting performance sites in which people create and experience glamorous or ecstatic imagined worlds but behind this picture we find a real social organization embraced by reality which makes opera's world and its history accessible for ethnographic enquiry historical reflection and cultural analysis This book therefore presents the author's original anthropological study which shows complex historical socio cultural political economic ideological academic and ethnographic facets of opera culture in Slovenia including the field sites of both Slovenian national opera houses in Ljubljana and Maribor The study explicates how social representations of opera are produced and enacted by different social agents involved within the Slovenian national operatic habitus and how opera is used as an idealized vision of nationhood and national identity in a provincial society Colonial Culture in France since the Revolution Pascal Blanchard,Sandrine Lemaire,Nicolas Bancel,Dominic Thomas,2013-12-02 This landmark collection by an international group of scholars and public intellectuals represents a major reassessment of French colonial culture and how it continues to inform thinking about history memory and identity This reexamination of French colonial culture provides the basis for a revised understanding of its cultural political and social legacy and its lasting impact on postcolonial immigration the treatment of ethnic minorities and national identity Opera as Anthropology Vlado Kotnik,2016-09-23 This book contemplates the relationship between opera and anthropology It rests on the following central arguments on the one hand opera is quite a new and exotic topic for anthropologists while on the other anthropology is still perceived as an unusual approach to opera Both initial arguments are indicative of the current situation of the relationship between anthropological discipline and opera research The book introduces the work of anthropologists and ethnographers whose personal and professional affinity for opera has been explicated in their academic and biographical accounts Anthropological ethnological ethnographic and semiotic accounts of opera by Claude Lévi Strauss Michel Leiris William O Beeman Denis Laborde Paul Atkinson and Philippe Joseph Salazar establish that opera can be a pertinent object of anthropological interest ethnographic investigation cultural analysis and historical reflection By touching on opera not merely as a musical aesthetic or artistic category but as a social cultural historical and transnational phenomenon that over the last four centuries has significantly influenced and reflected the identity of Western culture and society this monograph suggests that opera and anthropology no longer need be alien to one another Réussir ses études supérieures en histoire Christophe Poupault,2022-07-26 Cet ouvrage propose des analyses

Les communautés ecclésiales de base au Brésil Maurilio Alves Rodrigues, 2006-11-01 Les Communautés ecclésiales de base Ceb au Brésil sont nées dans une des périodes les plus fécondes du catholicisme latino-américain autour du concile Vatican II L'ouvrage aborde les racines historiques des Ceb qui furent l'origine de l'émergence d'une série de mouvements sociaux jouant un rôle important dans les luttes socio-politiques l'intérieur de la société brésilienne Les Ceb sont devenues un modèle alternatif où les laïcs deviennent les protagonistes de l'action de l'Eglise Voici un exemple d'interaction entre religion et société

Space in the Medieval West Fanny Madeline, 2016-04-01 In the last two decades research on spatial paradigms and practices has gained momentum across disciplines and vastly different periods including the field of medieval studies Responding to this spatial turn in the humanities the essays collected here generate new ideas about how medieval space was defined constructed and practiced in Europe particularly in France Essays are grouped thematically and in three parts from specific sites through the broader shaping of territory by means of socially constructed networks to the larger geographical realm The resulting collection builds on existing scholarship but brings new insight situating medieval constructions of space in relation to contemporary conceptions of the subject
