French film directors Douglas Morrey, 2005-10-07 This volume offers a new interpretation of one of the most innovative directors in the history of cinema It is the first book to cover the whole of Godard s career from the French New Wave to the recent triumphs of Histoire s du cin ma and Eloge de l amour Drawing on a wide range of literary filmic and philosophical texts the book places Godard s work within its intellectual context examining how developments in French culture and thought since 1950 have been mirrored in and sometimes anticipated by Godard s films Numerous sequences from Godard s films are singled out for close analysis demonstrating how the director s radical approaches to narrative editing sound and shot composition have made the cinema into an analytical tool in its own right

Gendered Frames, Embodied Cameras Cybelle H. McFadden, 2014-05-29 Gendered Frames Embodied Cameras Varda Akerman Cabrera Calle and Ma wenn is the first book to link these five filmmakers together through an analysis of the relationship between filming one s own body and the creative body Through engaged artistic practices these female filmmakers turn the camera to their bodies as a way to show the process of artistic creation and to produce themselves as filmmakers and artists in their work from 1987 2009 By making visible their bodies they offer a wider range of representation of women in French film Through avant garde form in which tangible corporeal elements are made image they transform representational content and produce new cinematic bodies with the power to influence signifying practices in contemporary French culture By rendering visible their artistic practice and praxis and their camera in their work reflexive practices that also unite these filmmakers these women also visually claim the role of filmmaker and creative subject Thus they establish their authority in a film industry in which women s participation and recognition of their achievements have historically been lower than that of their male counterparts

Close Up, 1928 House Full Lakshmi Srinivas, 2016-08-31 Film studies have traditionally focused on texts meanings techniques and appreciation criticism Now we have in House Full an ethnography of movie going and movie goers in India of all places Bangalore where the focus has been shifted away from the movie as product to the study of patterns of social behavior in production marketing and consumption of film India is a place of surprises and that goes for movie theatres and film patronage House Full presents a raucous multi ethnic multi class tableau You would guess the audience is Srinivas s focus and that is accurate because in India they have a role in choosing buying tickets for and sitting through and reacting to movies participating loudly and interactively that differs from what North Americans are used to Srinivas s interviews with audience members across ethnic and class lines distributors movie theater managers and also the actors directors writers and other production crew make for fascinating comparisons to what we in the west are used to The interactional character of her study places it firmly in the tradition of the Chicago School of sociology Lest we forget meanwhile India is the largest producer of feature films worldwide with the largest market in terms of films produced and audiences reached selling 4 billion tickets annually Courrier cinematographique ,1929 Le Cinéopse ,1929
