Connecting Children with Classics Meagan Lacy, Pauline Dewan, 2018-03-14 This guide identifies hundreds of books that can help children develop into engaged readers Children's librarians collection development specialists in public libraries as well as K-8 school librarians and teachers will choose from the best in children's titles This unique readers advisory and collection development guide for librarians and others who work with children focuses on readers and their needs rather than simply categorizing books by their characteristics and features as traditional literature guides do Taking this unusual perspective brings forth powerful new tools and curricular ideas on how to promote the classics and how to best engage with young readers and meet their personal and emotional needs to boost interest and engagement The guide identifies seven reader-driven appeals or themes that are essential to successful readers advisory awakening new perspectives providing models for identity offering reassurance comfort strength and confirmation of self-worth connecting with others giving courage to make a change facilitating acceptance and building a disinterested understanding of the world By becoming aware of and tapping into these seven themes librarians and other educators can help children more deeply connect with books thereby increasing the odds of becoming lifelong readers The detailed descriptions of each book provide plot summaries as well as notes on themes subjects reading interest levels adaptations and alternative formats translations and read-alikes This informative guide will also aid librarians in collection development and bibliotherapy services

Accessing the Classics La Vergne Rosow, 2005-12-30 Help readers improve reading skills while stimulating their appreciation and increasing their understanding of great literature Using a scaffolding approach this guide leads readers from simple and engaging reads to more challenging texts and simultaneously cultivates their interest and skills An invaluable resource for middle and high school ABE and ESL educators as well as for readers advisors All readers even those still learning to speak English can enjoy the delights and benefits of great literature with the help of this motivational and practical book guide Rosow takes you on a journey through the history of Western literature beginning with ancient myths and moving to medieval tales and classics of the Renaissance Romantic Movement and Modernism Along the way she shows you how to give readers easy access to some of the best literature of all time Scores of collections focus on such ancient and enduring stories as Gilgamesh Beowulf the tales of Chaucer historical masterpieces of William Shakespeare Jane Austen Edgar Allan Poe Charles Dickens and stellar names of more recent times such as Virginia Woolf John Steinbeck Ernest Hemingway and J.R.R. Tolkien Each carefully selected collection lists an assortment of titles ranging in reading level and arranged progressively from simple renditions such as picture book retellings through more advanced selections and readings where audio versions and simpler formatting support the reader and on to the most challenging reads Author profiles and narrative as well as detailed descriptions of each title provide further insights into the story lines and features of the books while building a scaffold of reading experience and knowledge to help readers better understand the texts For example the Mark Twain collection begins with a brief biographical sketch of the author followed by descriptions of two illustrated books about the author and two readers theatre skits based on his work A collection of Twain's short stories is recommended next and then several illustrated versions of his novels and an illustrated edition of Twain's memoir Life on the Mississippi which is supported by an audiotape version Each recommended title is rated as start here next read support here or challenging read and related reads and audio and video versions are listed when appropriate The author also notes author and student favorites titles with exceptional illustrations and other features of interest Focus is on authors and titles of the Western canon that are generally available in library collections Because some of the titles cited are older editions this is a valuable collection development tool in libraries as well as an essential resource for readers advisors Adult Basic Education and English as Second Language educators and young adult educators and librarians Young adult and adult or Grades 9 and up

Tales from the thousand and one nights N. J. Dawood, 1980 Tales from the Thousand and One Nights, 1973-05-31 Sometimes known as the Arabian Nights Tales from the Thousand and One Nights includes some of the world's best loved tales including such classics as Aladdin and Sindbad the Sailor The tales told by Scheherazade over a thousand and one nights to delay her execution by the vengeful King Shahryar have become among the most popular in both Eastern and Western literature From the epic adventures of Aladdin and the Enchanted Lamp to the farcical Young Woman and her Five Lovers and the social criticism of The Tale of the Hunchback the stories depict a fabulous world of all powerful sorcerers jinns imprisoned in bottles and enchanting princesses But despite their imaginative extravagance the Tales are also anchored to everyday life by their bawdiness and realism providing a full and intimate record of medieval Eastern world In this selection N J Dawood presents the reader with an unexpurgated translation of the finest and best known tales preserving their spirited narrative style in lively modern English In his introduction he discusses their origins in the East and their differences from Classical Arabic literature and examines English translations of the tales since the eighteenth century
