Faith And Power The Politics Of Islam:

Faith and Power Edward Mortimer, 1982 Traces the history of Islam and examines its manifestations in modern Turkey Saudi Arabia Pakistan Iran and Russia Faith and Power Bernard Lewis, 2010-05-05 Short collection of previously unpublished in English works by the doyen of Middle Eastern history Politics of Islamic Finance Clement Henry, 2019-07-30 Can the contemporary Islamic finance movement be shown to meet the requirements of modern commerce In the wake of the terrorist attacks on America the UN Security Council passed a resolution targeting transnational sources of terrorist funds The United States and the International Monetary Fund are encouraging the governments of the Middle East to adopt policies of economic liberalism and a new type of capitalism based on Islamic values and beliefs is emerging The aims of the book are to explore the political implications of the slow but steady accumulation of Islamic capital to analyse the connections between Islamic finance and Islamic political movements in Middle Eastern and North African countries to show that the commonly perceived connection between Islamic finance and money laundering and terrorism is by no means the complete picture Readers will learn to appreciate the various political contexts in which Islamic finance operates in the Middle East and North Africa and will acquire some understanding of its political as well as economic constraints Hopefully possible misunderstandings about Islamic banking and finance will be corrected The book is divided into two parts part one is thematic and lays the ground for the country specific case studies in part two covering the Sudan Kuwait Jordan Turkey Tunisia and Egypt The contributors include political scientists economists and historians Key Features A major topical issue Written by the world's leading experts on Islamic Political Economy Explores the connections between Islamic finance and Islamic political movements Includes country specific case studies Asian Power and Politics Lucian W. PYE, Mary W. Pye, Lucian W Pye, 2009-06-30 In a major new book Lucian W Pye reconceptualizes Asian political development as a product of cultural attitudes about power and authority He contrasts the great traditions of Confucian East Asia with the Southeast Asian cultures and the South Asian traditions of Hinduism and Islam and explores the national differences within these larger civilizations Breaking with modern political theory Pye believes that power differs profoundly from one culture to another In Asia the masses of the people are group oriented and respectful of authority while their leaders are more concerned with dignity and upholding collective pride than with problem solving As culture decides the course of political development Pye shows how Asian societies confronted with the task of setting up modern nation states respond by fashioning paternalistic forms of power that satisfy their deep psychological craving for security This new paternalism may appear essentially authoritarian to Western eyes but Pye maintains that it is a valid response to the people's needs and will ensure community solidarity and strong group loyalties He predicts that we are certain to see emerging from Asia's accelerating transformation some new version of modern society that may avoid many of the forms of tension common to Western civilization but may also produce a whole new set of problems This book revitalizes Asian political studies on a plane that comprehends the large differences between Asia and the West and at the same time is sensitive to the subtle variations among the many Asian cultures Its comparative perspective will provide indispensable insights to anyone who wishes to think more deeply about the modern Asian states

Islam and Power Alexander S. Cudsi, E. Hillal Dessouki, 2013-07-24 The 1970s witnessed a mushrooming of Islamic movements and ideas which was described variously as Islamic revival Islamic resurgence and Islam on the march Whether as part of the majority or minority whether under capitalist or socialist regimes Muslims have been moved by this reawakening But what really are the causes and nature of this Islamic resurgence Is it a purely religious revival Or is it a social and political movement that must be understood in the context of the Muslim s conditions and milieu Will it really lead to the establishment of an Islamic socio political order or will it end up as an instrument of struggle between Muslim ruling elites and their opposition And what are the foreign policy implications of these developments Do they necessarily lead to a more militant and hostile attitude towards the West These questions and more are tackled by the contributors to Islam and Power First published in 1981

Between Faith and Power Walter R. Ratliff, 2020-10-12 What happens when Christians reconsider political engagement Among leading Christian thinkers political engagement is either unavoidably necessary or theologically impossible Is this a false dilemma Between Faith and Power examines how Christian groups are grappling with the demands of a pluralistic public square while remaining faithful to their tradition Using the lenses of social science research and theological analysis the book examines the successes and failures of these groups as they engage the public square What emerges are models of Dynamic Engagement that Christian leaders are using to consistently pursue religious liberty across faiths while contributing to the common good

Money, Power and Politics in Early Islamic Syria John Haldon, 2016-04-22 The transformation of the eastern provinces of the Roman empire from the middle of the seventh century CE under the impact of Islam has attracted a good deal of scholarly attention in recent years and as more archaeological material becomes available has been subject to revision and rethinking in ways that radically affect what we know or understand about the area about state building and the economy and society of the early Islamic world and about issues such as urbanisation town country relations the ways in which a different religious culture impacted on the built environment and about politics This volume represents the fruits of a workshop held at Princeton University in May 2007 to discuss the ways in which recent work has affected our understanding of the nature of economic and exchange activity in particular and the broader implications of these advances for the history of the region

Islam in Perspective Patrick Bannerman,2013-06-03 There has been a significant upsurge of western interest in the political manifestations and significance of Islam in the last decade fuelled by the notion of Islamic revival the Iranian revolution and by events in countries as diverse as Egypt Pakistan and Sudan Oil power and its effect on the international economic order the relationship of Muslim countries with the superpowers and the continuation of the Arab Israeli conflict have also served to focus attention on Islamic politics and in particular on the notion of Islamic reassertion As the author of this book argues one result of this interest has been the development of a view of Islam as monolithic and implacable He takes a broad view of the intellectual and cultural history of Islam emphasising the extraordinary diversity of Islamic societies and the ways in which the ideal is often pragmatically adapted to reality In this wider social and historical context the nature of Islamic revival is then reassessed First published in 1988

Piety, Politics, and Power David D. Grafton,2009-03-16 From the time of Martin Luther s writing of On War Against the Turk in 1529 to American Lutheran military chaplains serving in the U S led invasion of Iraq in 2003 Lutheranism has had a symbiotic relationship with Islam in the Middle East framed across cultural and religious borders There have been those who have crossed these borders to engage in mission and dialogue In Piety Politics and Power David Grafton examines the origins of the American Lutheran missionary movement in the Middle East with a focus on its encounter with Muslims and the varied Lutheran theological responses toward Islam The narrative is placed within historical contexts to provide an overarching background of Middle Eastern history and Christian Muslim Relations The survey covers Lutheran missionary communities in Persia Iraq Egypt Lebanon and Jerusalem and the West Bank including the work of the Lutherans working for the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missionaries the Anglican Church Missionary Society the Lutheran Orient Mission the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America Whether enthusiastic Pietists seeking the conversion of Muslims and Jews cautious theologians in dialogue with Islam Judaism or Oriental Orthodoxy or social activists working on behalf of refugees in Egypt and the West Bank Grafton argues that these Christian missionaries were all enmeshed in the politics of the communities in which they lived and either contributed to or suffered from the realities of Middle Eastern and international politics Given the current reality of Pax Americana in the Middle East the author asks the driving question about the role of American Lutheran missions and Lutheran Middle Eastern Muslim dialogue in the age of American power in the Middle East

Intellectual Discourse and the Politics of Modernization Ali Mirsepassi,2000-10-12 In this thought provoking study Ali Mirsepassi explores the concept of modernity exposing the Eurocentric prejudices and hostility to non Western culture that have characterized its development Focusing on the Iranian experience of modernity he charts its political and intellectual history and develops a new interpretation of Islamic Fundamentalism through the detailed analysis of the ideas of key Islamic intellectuals The author argues that the Iranian Revolution was not a simple clash between modernity and tradition but an attempt to accommodate modernity within a sense of authentic Islamic identity culture and historical experience He concludes by assessing the future of secularism and democracy in the Middle East in general and in Iran in particular A significant contribution to the literature on modernity social change and Islamic Studies this book will be essential reading for scholars and students of social theory and change Middle Eastern Studies Cultural Studies and many related areas Religious

Appeals in Power Politics Peter S. Henne, 2023-10-15 Religious Appeals in Power Politics examines how states use or attempt to use confessional appeals to religious belief and conscience to advance political strategies and objectives Through case studies of the United States Saudi Arabia and Russia Peter S Henne demonstrates that religion although not as high profile or well funded a tool as economic sanctions or threats of military force remains a potent weapon in international relations Public policy analysis often minimizes the role of religion favoring military or economic matters as the important arenas of policy debate As Henne shows however at transformative moments in political history states turn to faith based appeals to integrate or fragment international coalitions Henne highlights Saudi Arabia s 1960s rivalry with Egypt the United States s post 9 11 leadership in the global war on terrorism and the Russian Federation s contemporary expansionism both to reveal the presence and power of calls for religious unity and to emphasize the uncertainty and anxiety such appeals can create Religious Appeals in Power Politics offers a bold corrective to those who consider religion as tangential to military or economic might Nigeria - Politics, Religion, Pentecostal-Charismatic Power and Challenges Akintayo

Emmanuel, 2023-10-13 Nigeria presents an enthralling case study for understanding developing archetypes in interreligious encounters in Africa The global community needs a cultural understanding and sensitivity for productive engagement with the Arab and non Arab Muslim world The Nigeria religious exigencies provide a requisite intelligence into the challenges facing a global community seeking to foster peace Without a domain of tolerance love equity and justice Nigeria will continually be immured by pessimism parochialism cynicism and mutual suspicion Despite being the largest economy in Africa and the most populous Black country Nigeria demonstrates incessantly an uncommon fault line between Christianity and Islam The significance of this goes beyond the borders of Nigeria but has become a global showcase anywhere the two religions exist contemporaneously Nigeria is the nexus between west and central Africa Rooted in the dusty Sahel of the north the savannah plains the rich rainforests of the Atlantic coast the rocky hills of the West and the oil filled swamps of the Delta Nigeria is the beauty sound vision passion and the soul of the African continent In Nigeria the Nigeria Pentecostal Charismatic Movement possesses a distinctive flair that demands a holistic understanding of the movement s historical

Power, Politics, and Tradition in the Mongol Empire and the Ilkhānate of Iran Michael Hope, 2016-09-29 This study provides a new interpretation of how political authority was conceived and transmitted in the Early Mongol Empire 1227-1259 and its successor state in the Middle East the Ilkhānate 1258-1335 Authority within the Mongol Empire was intimately tied to the character of its founder Chinggis Khan whose reign served as an idealized model for the exercise of legitimate authority amongst his political successors Yet Chinggis Khan's legacy was interpreted differently by the various factions within his army In the years after his death two distinct political traditions emerged within the Mongol Empire the collegial and the patrimonialist Each of these streams represented the economic and political interests of different groups within the Mongol Empire respectively the military aristocracy and the central government The supporters of both streams claimed to adhere to the ideal of Chinggisid rule but their different statuses within the Mongol community led them to hold divergent views of what constituted legitimate political authority Michael Hope's study details the origin of and the differences between these two streams of tradition analyzing the role that these streams played in the political development of the Mongol Empire and the Ilkhānate and assessing the role that ideological tension between the two streams played in the events leading up to the division of the Ilkhānate Hope demonstrates that the policy and identity of both the Early Mongol Empire and the Ilkhānate were defined by the conflict between these competing streams of Chinggisid authority

Faith in Politics A. James Reichley, 2004-05-26 According to current polls about 85 percent of Americans identify with some religious faith and more than 40 percent say they attend religious services at least once a week In recent years religious observance and even religious belief have become important factors influencing voter choice Active participation in electoral politics by some religious groups has fueled apprehensions that the traditional separation of church and state may be threatened A James Reichley explores the questions and conflicting positions surrounding the relations between government and politics in a new book that draws upon his landmark work Religion in American Public Life In Faith in Politics Reichley explores the history of religion in American public life and considers some practical and philosophic questions affecting future participation by religious groups in the formation of public policy Reichley begins by examining the various attitudes and points of view of strict separationists liberal social activists moderate accommodationists and direct interventionists He goes on to discuss the way religion and politics relate to each other through a theoretic structure of seven value systems monism absolutism ecstacism egoism collectivism civil humanism and transcendent idealism Further chapters examine the trends and constitutional arrangements that developed during the formative years of the American Republic the evolution of judicial interpretations of the free exercise and establishment clauses and the history of church involvement in politics from the early years of the Republic to the 2000 election and the aftermath of the September 11 terrorist attacks A chapter covering events and developments from 1986 to 2002 includes accounts of political activism by the African American church ideological divisions among Roman Catholics Jewish liberalism and commitment to Israel the rise and decline of the religious right and political differences

Finding Faith in Foreign Policy Gregorio Bettiza, 2019-06-04 Finding Faith in Foreign Policy comprehensively investigates how American foreign policymakers have come to think about engage with and manage religion in world politics across a range of domains since the end of the Cold War and in the aftermath of 9 11 Gregorio Bettiza develops an original theoretical framework and draws upon extensive empirical research and interviews in order to explain policymakers attempts to promote international religious freedom deliver aid through faith based channels fight terrorism by supporting moderate Muslims and Islam and engaging religious actors for the purposes of resolving conflicts and finding solutions to current world crises Hungry for Power Aydogan Vatandas,2015-07-07 For much of the last thirteen years Turkey rode a wave of political social and economic success When the AK Party came to power in 2002 it pursued a progressive and democratic agenda which resulted in the advancement of democratic and human rights and widespread economic growth Two landslide election victories reaffirmed the AK Party s successes and Turkey was held up to the world as an example of the peaceful co existence between Islam and democracy So now we ask what went wrong After the AK Party secured its third sweeping victory in the 2011 Parliamentary elections Recep Tayyip Erdo an suddenly veered off the train to democracy and began pursuing his personal agenda The result has been four years of brutal crackdowns on public demonstrations the criminalization of the free press and internet and the deliberate polarization of society through hate speech and fear mongering What was once a growing democracy has become a burgeoning police state All sections of society have suffered but few have suffered more than Hizmet a peaceful civic movement that has been the victim of a massive witch hunt as the government has sought scapegoats for its increasingly corrupt behavior Such a witch hunt should serve as a warning to the whole of Turkish society even the peaceful are not safe This collection of articles shed light on Erdo an s transition from Muslim democrat to authoritarian leader analyzing events as they happened They present a variety of perspectives on Turkey s unique position in the Middle East its relationship with the USA Erdo an s extreme reactions to any form of opposition and his escalating authoritarianism and witch hunt
