Biblical Theology Prof. Leo Perdue, 2010-10-01 One of the thorniest problems in theological study is the relationship between biblical studies on the one hand and constructive theology on the other Theologians know that the Bible is the core source document for theological construction and hence that they must be in conversation with the best in critical study of Scripture For many biblical scholars the point of what they do is to help the biblical text speak to today's church and world and hence they would do well to be in conversation with contemporary theology Yet too often the two groups fail to engage each other's work in significant and productive ways The purpose of the Library of Biblical Theology and this introductory volume to it is to bring the worlds of biblical scholarship and constructive theology together It will do so by reviving biblical theology as a discipline that describes the faith of the biblical periods on the one hand and on the other hand articulates normative understandings of modern faith and practice In this volume the authors begin by providing an overview of the history and possible future of biblical theology They introduce biblical theology as a fundamentally contrastive discipline one that is neither dogmatic theology seeking to explain the official teachings of a particular Christian tradition nor is it a purely historical approach to Scripture eschewing questions of the Bible's contemporary message and meaning Rather biblical theology takes seriously both the need to understand the message of Scripture in its particular historical context and the need to address that message to questions that confront contemporary human life

Theology of Jürgen Moltmann Richard Bauckham, 1995-01-06 The most comprehensive study available of one of the most influential of German Protestant theologians Spirit of the Last Days Peter

Althouse,2003-10-01 Early Pentecostals proclaimed the restoration of the charismatic gifts as a sign of the imminent coming of Christ This eschatology was later marginalized by the rise of fundamentalist dispensationalism Today Pentecostal eschatology is being revised to include a more transformative view of the kingdom This boook proposes a further revision of Pentecostal eschatology created to recover prophetic elements of early Pentecostalism that invite a responsible social engagement in the world and to overcome fundamentalist assumptions which have crept into Pentecostal theology in its middle years To this end the eschatological thought of selected Pentecostal theologians is placed in dialogue with Jurgen Moltmann This dialogue critiques fundamentalist tendencies within contemporary Pentecostalism by advocating a theology more open to history and creation and a Pentecostal ethic both personal and social in scope An Evangelical Christology

Bernard L. Ramm,1993-02 In this book Bernard Ramm offers us an introduction to Christology Focusing on the work of Rudolf Bultmann his study includes a discussion of the trends in the contemporary Christological debate as well as a defence of the historic Christology of the Christian church Book jacket Theology as Hope Ryan A. Neal,2009-01-01 Hope is the leitmotiv of J rgen Moltmann s theology Not merely one aspect of his project hope is the whole of it the supreme doctrine interpenetrating all others Indeed hope is his method The present study is both historical and developmental while also being analytical and interrogative This chronological exploration seeks to show the nature composition and development of Moltmann s doctrine of hope as the distinctive doctrine of his theology implicating all others Part I establishes Moltmann s doctrine of hope as grounded in God s faithfulness in the cross and resurrection Part II investigates major doctrines in his project in light of this ground This design seeks to take advantage of the chronological approach while also integrating the best elements of a topical approach Gustavo Gutierrez

Robert McAfee Brown,2013-03-01 Here is a definitive introduction to liberation theology through the life and work of its most significant proponent Gustavo Gutierrez Robert McAfee Brown draws extensively on Gutierrez s own writings some never published in English and on personal conversations with him Brown clearly and compellingly presents the basics of liberation theology and the differences between North American and Latin American theologies The form of Gustavo Gutierrez is that of a drama Brown s initial program notes introduce and situate the author the actors the critics He sets the stage with a history of church and state in Latin America and introduces its definitive figures themes and milestones A collective biography of Gutierrez s spiritual predecessors is followed by a biography of Gutierrez himself which takes critical account of his works Then we are ready dramatically and theologically to move to the first act that of commitment to the poor The second act in two scenes explores first liberation theology s method of critical reflection on praxis and also its content nothing less than the Word of God Brown delves next into the controversies and criticisms Gutierrez faces especially the challenges from authorities in Rome Finally in act three readers discover that in this particular drama they too are on stage and must take part by reflecting on what this drama really means for them The Dialectics of Creation Martin G. Poulson,2014-03-13 This book investigates the philosophical components of Christian faith in creation by analyzing the distinction and the relation between creation and its Creator The writings of Edward Schillebeeckx and David Burrell supply a terminology of distinction and relation that shapes the discourse following in the footsteps of Aquinas Poulson elucidates the relational dialectic in the thought of Schillebeeckx as a way of thinking about the Creation and offers a helpful comparison with the thought of David Burrell Relational dialectic is an organizing principle not only of Schillebeeckx's account of creation but of his philosophical theology more generally It can operate as a hermeneutic for his material on praxis and humanism in a way that resolves some problems noted by other Schillebeeckx scholars Poulson's interpretation of Schillebeeckx enriches current approaches to this thinker and offers a significant contribution to thinking on the doctrine of Creation and issues surrounding the ontological distinction which is of major concern in philosophical theology today

Scriptural Interpretation Darren Sarisky, 2012-08-21 In Scriptural Interpretation Sarisky brilliantly draws together Patristic Theology and a theological interpretation of Scripture in the modern day to examine Scripture's central place in the life of the Church and ordinary believers Examines the importance of scriptural interpretation in the life of Christians and of the church Draws together two lively discussions a study of the theology of the Cappadocian fathers and a discussion of theological interpretation of Scripture in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Covers an impressive historical range from Basil of Caesarea right up to the work of the major contemporary thinkers Stanley Hauerwas and Rowan Williams Offers a sophisticated understanding of many Patristic thinkers an area of huge current interest in the field and challenges accepted readings of the theology of Basil of Caesarea
