Faith Formation And Decision Ethics In The Community Of Promise:

Faith, Formation, and Decision James M. Childs, 1992 James Childs's concise and compelling introduction is based on twenty years of teaching and writing in Christian ethics. Illuminating his case with examples from business, medicine, and public policy dilemmas, Childs constructs an original and comprehensive proposal for Christian ethics: dialogical ethics, one that resonates well with contemporary concern for character and virtue but is also animated and informed by Christian faith.

Ethics in the Community of Promise James M. Childs, 2006 In this excellent and accessible introduction now in a second edition, Childs helpfully articulates the shared features of Christian faith and shows how that communal commitment forms our values, character, virtues, and eagerness to do what is right. Who we are informs what we choose. This dynamic dialogical basis for ethics is an open framework. Childs applies it to a host of tough real-life dilemmas such as affirmative action, end-of-life decisions, medical ethics, truth-telling, environmental justice, and war-making. Previously published by Fortress Press in 1992 as Faith Formation and Decision, the new edition updates discussions throughout, adds numerous cases and illustrations, adds questions for discussion, and items for further reading, and contains a new section on courage.

The Promise of Lutheran Ethics Karen L. Bloomquist, John R. Stumme, 1998-08-01 Here ten Lutheran theologians explore Lutheran emphases, themes, and approaches to offer their account of Christian ethics as a way of life in today's world. Writing in dialogue, they raise foundational concerns of biblical and theological sources and norms of Christian freedom and responsibility of call and social witness of justice and formation in prayer. Then in a lively Table Talk, the participants discuss and debate the tradition's insights and oversights and show how it might illumine today's burning ethical issues such as homosexuality.

Wisdom Robin Sampson, 2006-10-15 This homeschool study is one of the most important things you will ever do with your children. Suppose you wanted to go to a city in Texas but you were given a map to Florida mislabeled Texas. Following the directions would not work even if you changed your mind, tried harder, or increased your speed. You would still be lost. The problem is not your attitude or effort. The problem is you have the wrong map. Many homeschoolers are following the wrong map on their homeschool journey. They follow the state standards curriculum scope and sequence or SAT benchmarks. This unique unit study is a map to TRUE Wisdom.

Transformative Lutheran Theologies Mary J. Streufert, 2010 The first of its kind, this book is a systematic presentation of Lutheran feminist womanist and mujerista theologies systematic in that it addresses classical loci of systematic theology contemporary in that it is resoundingly constructive and relevant for the contemporary church and feminist in that the contributors write from a feminist perspective although they reflect a variety of positions within feminist discourse The contributors to this multi authored work share a common commitment to Lutheran theology as a continual process of reform Luther is a partner in the conversation because of his theological insights and commitment to faithful criticism which the writers seek to continue not because his voice settles a debate The book focuses on central themes that Luther addressed and that are representative of Lutheranism today including justification by grace through faith and Luther's theology of the cross From diverse contexts these Lutheran theologians like Luther seek reformation by giving voice to new perspectives in theology that continue to transform the church and the world Along with Mary J Streufert contributors include Krista E Hughes Kathryn A Kleinhans Kristen E Kvam L DeAne Lagerquist Mary E Lowe Lois Malcolm Anna Mercedes Cynthia Moe Lobeda Cheryl M Peterson Mary Joy Philip Caryn D Riswold Deanna A Thompson Marit Trelstad Alicia Vargas and Beverly Wallace A remarkable addition to the rich history of Lutheran theology Not only have these theologians opened doors to fresh new worlds of Lutheran thought they've done so in a way that honors the past by extending it forward I can't wait to use Transformative Lutheran Theologies in class I've been waiting twenty years for a text like this Imagine teaching Luther's thought and placing it by side with these cutting edge essays Luther would no doubt be proud maybe even a bit envious Serene Jones President and Roosevelt Professor of Systematic Theology Union Theological Seminary New York

Justification in a Post-Christian Society Carl-Henric Grenholm, Goran Gunner, 2015-03-26 Since the Reformation in the sixteenth century Lutheran traditions have impacted culture and politics in many societies At the same time Lutheran belief has had an effect on personal faith morality and ethics Modern society however is quite different from that at the time of the Reformation How should we evaluate Lutheran tradition in today's Western multicultural and post Christian society Is it possible to develop a Lutheran theological position that can be regarded as reasonable in a society that evidences a considerable weakening of the role of Christianity What are the challenges raised by cultural diversity for a Lutheran theology and ethics Is it possible to develop a Lutheran identity in a multicultural society and is there any fruitful Lutheran contribution to the coexistence of different religious and non religious traditions in the future

Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W. Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483-1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations Lutheranism and the arts theology and important representatives of Lutheranism This is done through a detailed chronology an introductory essay an appendix of Lutheran Churches a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism Ethical Issues that Matter Enoch Hammond Oglesby,2002 Faith communities have always struggled with the questions of ethical method and cultural inclusivity Accordingly Ethical Issues that Matter enlarges the methodological discussion among ethicists and theologians by adopting the landscape of a mountain as a useful metaphor for racism Christian Education and the Emerging Church Wendi Sargeant,2015-07-24 All signs point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today s church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos The Work of Faith Justin Nickel,2020-08-31 Many scholars assume that Luther advocates for a Christian life in which human beings are always passive recipients of God s grace as it is delivered in preaching and mere instruments through which God works to serve their neighbors The Work of Faith Divine Grace and Human Agency in Martin Luther s Preaching offers a different reading of Luther s views on human agency by drawing on a fresh source Luther s preaching Using Luther s sermons in the Church Postil as a primary source Justin Nickel argues that Martin Luther preached as though Christians have real if secondary agency in the lives they lead before God and neighbor As a result Nickel presents a Luther substantively concerned with how Christians lead their lives Greed James M. Childs, In this book Childs probes this disturbing development in its economic and cultural dimensions gauging contemporary ways in light of Christian ethical principles Investigating such issues as corporate downsizing executive compensation health care delivery and global economic disparities mirrored in hunger Childs also offers a biblically based alternative vision of sharing and community BOOK JACKET SCM Studyguide to Christian Spirituality Ross Thompson,2008-09-01 TheSCM Studyguide Christian Spiritualityis designed as an introduction to spirituality for students of all religious backgrounds coming to the subject for the first time Fundamental Theology Matthew L. Becker, 2014-12-18 Introducing university students to the academic discipline of Christian theology this book serves as an orientation to fundamental theology from a Protestant perspective by addressing issues that are preliminary and foundational to the discipline in the context of a liberal arts university The book also sets forth what has traditionally been called a theological encyclopedia that is a description of the parts of Christian theology that together form the discipline into a unified academic subject Finally the book examines the relation of Christian theology to the arts and sciences within the university and underscores the need for critical and positive interaction with these other academic disciplines

Introducing Christian Ministry Leadership William D. M. Carrell, 2022-10-17 The demand for integrity genuine spirituality exemplary character and competent skills among ministry leaders has never been greater This book introduces students and beginning practitioners to the theological and practical elements that make for healthy leadership and leaders in Christian ministry How ministry leaders understand who God is and who they themselves are governs every aspect of their work and well being and how they understand the nature of the church and their role as ministry leaders forms their sense of purpose and identity This book is written from the perspective of ministry leadership in Christian traditions with congregational polity but there is much that applies to ministry leadership in all Christian traditions The text introduces terms ideas and skills foundational for getting started in ministry leadership and for more advanced study in each area Most importantly the book integrates biblical historical and theological reflection with the description of practical skills demonstrating how students themselves can think theologically about ministry leadership Thinking clearly about context calling and character provides the perspective from which to understand the essential practices of ministry leadership and to conduct them with integrity , Free in Deed Craig L. Nesson, 2022-01-11 Free in Deed serves as a primer in Lutheran ethics for faith and the church as the body of Christ It captures the fruit of Craig L Nesson s teaching of ethics and his research and reflection on Christian ethical existence over his entire career The heart of Lutheran ethics Nesson claims involves serving neighbors When Christ sets us free indeed John 8:36 we are set free to serve others in deed Ethics involves intentional and disciplined reflection together in community on the choices we must make in living out our lives in the world While the focus on loving the neighbor is not unique to Lutheran ethics the author contends in this book that it is the most distinctive feature of ethics in the Lutheran perspective To that end Nesson explores biblical authority and Lutheran hermeneutics alongside the authority of the traditional elements of tradition reason and experience He moves on to explore what gospel freedom looks like in the current American context Nesson acknowledges the misinterpretation of Luther s two kingdoms teaching opting to describe Luther s two kingdoms as God s two strategies to bring forth the kingdom shalom of God Also addressed are the themes of justification and sanctification the vocation of the universal priesthood the ethics of the cross Lutheran ethics and political advocacy and the ethics of forgiveness The book is accessibly written with theology students pastors and interested lay readers in mind Preaching Justice James M. Childs, Jr., 2000-03-01 The principal concern of this book is not complex theoretical discussions of justice so common to the discipline of ethics but how working for justice fits into the church's mission and especially into its preaching An opening chapter sets forth a biblical and theological basis for the conviction that justice is at the heart of the church's mission and witness Then follows a chapter on preaching that distinguishes between merely moralizing about justice and genuinely preaching it The remaining chapters in the book speak of preaching justice in dialogue with current contextual realities such as 1 the racism of our American context 2 the church's pentecostal heritage of communicating in and through all cultures 3 the fact that much of the injustice in our society is a by product of greed in its individual and enculturated manifestations and 4 the need to deal appropriately and faithfully with the multicultural context of today A concluding chapter brings the preacher back into the context of the church and its gospel foundations that is the source of preaching justice and walking together with the people of God in quest of it James M Childs is the Joseph A Sittler Professor of Theology and Ethics and Academic Dean at Trinity Lutheran Seminary Columbus Ohio He is the author of Faith Formation and Decision Ethics in the Community of Promise 1991 and Ethics in Business Faith at Work 1995 For Clergy seminarians homiletics ethicists peace and justice readership's students of mission and modern culture Moral Warriors, Moral Wounds Wollom A. Jensen, James M. Childs Jr., 2016-05-19 The experience of Wollom Jensen's distinguished career in military service and James Childs's long and productive career in the fields of theology and ethics combine to bring Christian ethics into dialogue with the harsh realities of military service in today's world of war The authors seek to correlate the ethics of neighbor love with the vocation of the chaplaincy the framework of just war theory the published values of the military services and sample issues such as the challenge of pluralism for the chaplaincy drone warfare interrogation practices and truth telling Special emphasis is placed on the reality of moral injury and the moral obligation of society and the churches to respond to the needs of these wounded warriors The book espouses the view that the Christian ethic more than a set of principles is a true ministry to those who struggle to be faithful and fear that they have not been Aging and Loving James M. Childs, 2021 Aging and Loving Christian Faith and Sexuality in Later Life aims to address the social ethical physical and spiritual issues related to sexuality and aging The book is written for various professionals who minister to the aged pastors chaplains other care providers for the aging and aged themselves and for their families The focus is on people sixty five years old and older This is the age group whose sexuality is most vulnerable to being dismissed by those around them It is also the age group that experiences new challenges to their sexual lives as age brings physical and sometimes psychological changes as well as changes in living circumstances To be human is to be sexual Undermining or failing to appreciate that fact in older age can be hurtful Regarding the diminishments of aging as the end of sexuality and therefore the dissipation of fully meaningful life is a critical dimension of ageism To understand the realities of sexuality in later life and the choices older adults face along with providing a theological and ethical account that affirms their sexuality as integral to their humanity and vocation in later life is a curb against ageism and provides much needed information to the aged the aging and their families Equipping those who care for the aging and minister to them is essential The book seeks to enable those related to the aged to have a deeper respect for their sexuality and thus their dignity and to provide an ethical account of Christian love that liberates as it engages the special issues of sexuality in later life
