Faith In The Living God:

Faith in the Living God J. C. Polkinghorne, Michael Welker, 2001-01-01 The authors examine the central themes of the Christian faith in a dialogue This approach which was successfully used in The Meaning of Jesus by N T Wright and Marcus Borg allows these two eminent theologians to address head on the challenges each wants to make to the other's position

Ashley Down; Or, Living Faith in a Living God William Elfe Tayler, 1861 Ashley Down; or, Living Faith in a Living God. Memorials of the new orphan houses on Ashley Down, Bristol, under the superintendence of G. Müller

William Elfe Tayler, 1861 Quest for the Living God Elizabeth A. Johnson, 2007-10-14 Since the middle of the twentieth century writes Elizabeth Johnson there has been a renaissance of new insights into God in the Christian tradition On different continents under pressure from historical events and social conditions people of faith have glimpsed the living God in fresh ways It is not that a wholly different God is discovered from the One believed in by previous generations Christian faith does not believe in a new God but finding itself in new situations seeks the presence of God there Aspects long forgotten are brought into new relationships with current events and the depths of divine compassion are appreciated in ways not previously imagined This book sets out the fruit of these discoveries The first chapter describes Johnson's point of departure and the rules of engagement with each succeeding chapter distilling a discrete idea of God Featured are transcendental political liberation feminist black Hispanic interreligious and ecological theologies ending with the particular Christian idea of the one God as Trinity Living God's Way Arthur Wallis, 1984 I Believe in the Living God Emil Brunner, 2025-01-01

Emil Brunner is best known as one of the greatest theologians of the twentieth century but I Believe in the Living God is a reminder that he was also an exceptional preacher With twelve sermons rooted in the Apostles Creed Brunner shows how faith in Jesus Christ is inclusive of the facts to which the creed refers and what this means in our lives both individually and socially Intended for the layman Brunner recognises how remote the creed can feel and so interprets it in a way that accounts for the difference between first century minds and our own For him the Apostles Creed is a living proclamation of the Christian faith and a powerful attestation to the reign of Christ Eloquently written and engagingly presented I Believe in the Living God inspires faith Seeking the Living God Elizabeth A. Johnson, College of St. Catherine, 2008 The Book on The Living God Bo Yin Ra, 2014-01-01 The Book On The Living God Prologue The tabernacle of God with men The White Lodge Supernatural experience The Path En S ph On searching for God On deeds and works On holiness and sin The occult world The hidden temple Karma War and peace The unity of religions The will to find the light The high powers of recognition On death On the spirit The path to perfection On eternal life The light dwells in the east Faith talisman and divine image The magic of the word A call from Himavat Eucharist Epilogue The Living God Julia A. Lamm, 1996 German theologian F D E Schleiermacher's doctrine of God the first to be developed in the post Kantian era fundamentally changed the course of Christian theology The degree to which his doctrine of God was influenced by the philosophy of Benedict de

Spinoza remains in dispute however This study examines the ways in which Schleiermacher actively adopted elements of Spinoza s thought in the development of his own theological doctrine of God Julia Lamm s analysis of little known but seminal essays by Schleiermacher reveals his young creative genius in daring to go beyond the neo Spinozism of Herder and the post Kantianism of Fichte by developing his own post Kantian Spinozism Schleiermacher s unique simultaneous appropriation of Kant and Spinoza is characterized by four themes an organic monism an ethical determinism a critical realism and a nonanthropomorphic view of God which Lamm traces through his two major theological works On Religion Speeches to Its Cultured Despisers and The Christian Faith Ultimately Lamm finds that Schleiermacher departs from Spinoza in significant ways Most notably he talks about the living God who is best expressed through the divine attributes of love and wisdom This living God is what Schleiermacher refers to as the third alternative to on the one hand the anthropomorphized God of orthodox Protestantism and on the other hand Spinoza s natura naturans      The Living God in England and India Keshub Chunder Sen,1870      Book on the Living God B Yin R,2007-09-01 You should not read this book if you believe the teachings of your faith with heart and soul You should not read this book if you have never doubted God This book is written for all those who suffered bitter conflicts in themselves in their labours never found Him      Encountering the Living God in Scripture William M. IV Wright,Francis Martin,2019-01-22 This work gives a philosophical and theological account of the belief that Scripture enables people to encounter the life giving reality of God The authors examine the biblical foundations for this belief as given in a variety of witnesses from both Testaments and explain the philosophical and theological underpinnings of Christian exegesis The book sums up and makes accessible the teaching of revered senior scholar and teacher Francis Martin and is aimed squarely at students assuming no advanced training in philosophy or theology It includes a foreword by Robert Sokolowski      Quest for the Living God Elizabeth A. Johnson,2007-10-14 Concerned with new frontiers in our understanding of God this book aims to spread the light of theological knowledge ever ancient ever new
