About the Music

The subtitle of this work explains the entire purpose of the piece: in hopes that every tomorrow carries a wonderful memory of one of your "yesterdays..." It is dedicated to Darcy Williams, Director of Bands at Deerpark Middle School in Austin, Texas. In February 2011, she lost her husband under tragic circumstances. How anyone deals with such a loss is completely beyond me, but I felt compelled to offer some musical sympathies that could be performed without much rehearsal, yet would still provide the emotional sophistication required to cope with such a situation. While I initially did not think I would have enough time to compose anything, an idea suddenly hit me one day—literally with such force that I started writing entire sections of the piece that day.

The music finds much joy and happiness through its expressive lines as they move from minor to major tonality. As Darcy's husband was a trumpet player, the piece ends with trumpets playing the final motif in a major key while the rest of the band rests peacefully under them. The dedication, form and music all remind us to cherish wonderful memories of the past regardless of what tomorrow may bring.

Tomorrow's Yesterdays is humbly dedicated to Darcy Williams, Jenna Yee, and the entire Deerpark Middle School Band, family and friends.
