Akinade, 2014-07-10 This book examines the various Christian responses to Islam in Nigeria It is a study of the complex interreligious relationships in Nigeria Using a polymethodic approach the book grapples with many narratives dealing with interreligious competition and cooperation in Nigeria Routledge Handbook on Christian-Muslim Relations David Thomas, 2017-08-16 The matter of Christian Muslim relations cannot be ignored these days While the term itself may not appear all that often relations between the two faiths and their reciprocal perceptions are undeniable influences behind many current conflicts declarations of mutual recognition and peace negotiations not to mention the brooding hatred of religious extremists Since 9 11 relations between the two faiths have in one form or another hardly been away from the news This Handbook contains fundamental information about the major aspects of relations between Christians and Muslims Its various sections follow the history from the early seventh century to the present the major religious issues that have led to disputes between the two faiths and the political implications of religious differences at various stages through history as well as in the present It includes analysis of scriptural and theological themes and explores the characteristics of relations at important points in history and also in various parts of the world today Chapters are devoted to the most significant intellectual interpretations and encounters the main armed clashes including the Crusades and the important documents issued by each faith that in recent years have led the way towards new developments in recognition and acceptance With chapters written by some of the foremost experts in the field the book traces the largely dark history of relations and explains the underlying reasons why Muslims and Christians have found tolerance and respect for the other difficult It is an excellent resource for understanding the past and for highlighting lessons for future relations between the world's two largest religions

Annual Report, International Religious Freedom United States. Department of

State,2006      Collier's ,1926      One Faith No Longer George Yancey,Ashlee Quosigk,2021-07-06 Irreconcilable differences drive the division between progressive and conservative Christians is there a divorce coming Much attention has been paid to political polarization in America but far less to the growing schism between progressive and conservative Christians In this groundbreaking new book George Yancey and Ashlee Quosigk offer the provocative contention that progressive and conservative Christianities have diverged so much in their core values that they ought to be thought of as two separate religions The authors draw on both quantitative data and interviews to uncover how progressive and conservative Christians determine with whom they align themselves religiously and how they distinguish themselves from each other They find that progressive Christians emphasize political agreement relating to social justice issues as they determine who is part of their in group and focus less on theological agreement Among conservative Christians on the other hand the major concern is whether one agrees with them on core theological points Progressive and conservative Christians thus use entirely different factors in determining their social identity and moral values In a time when religion and politics have never seemed so intertwined One Faith No Longer offers a timely and compelling reframing of an age old conflict

Culture, Religion and Conflict in Muslim Southeast Asia Joseph A. Camilleri,Sven Schottmann,2013 By examining the sometimes surprising and unexpected roles that culture and religion have played in mitigating or exacerbating conflicts this book explores the cultural repertoires from which Southeast Asian political actors have drawn to negotiate the pluralism that has so long been characteristic of the region Focusing on the dynamics of identity politics and the range of responses to the socio political challenges of religious and ethnic pluralism the authors assembled in this book illuminate the principal regional discourses that attempt to make sense of conflict and tensions They examine local notions of dialogue reconciliation civility and conflict resolution and show how varying interpretations of these terms have informed the responses of different social actors across Southeast Asia to the challenges of conflict culture and religion The book demonstrates how stumbling blocks to dialogue and reconciliation can and have been overcome in different parts of Southeast Asia and identifies a range of actors who might be well placed to make useful contributions propose remedies and initiate action towards negotiating the region s pluralism This book provides a much needed regional and comparative analysis that makes a significant contribution to a better understanding of the interfaces between region and politics in Southeast Asia      Rage and Carnage in the Name of God Abiodun Alao,2022-07-11 In Rage and Carnage in the Name of God Abiodun Alao examines the emergence of a culture of religious violence in postindependence Nigeria where Christianity Islam and traditional religions have all been associated with violence He investigates the root causes and historical evolution of Nigeria s religious violence locating it in the forced coming together of disparate ethnic groups under colonial rule which planted the seeds of discord that religion elites and domestic politics exploit Alao discusses the histories of Christianity Islam and traditional religions in the territory that became Nigeria the effects of colonization on the role of religion the development of Islamic radicalization and its relation to Christian violence the activities of Boko Haram and how religious violence intermixes with politics and governance In so doing he uses religious violence as a way to more fully understand intergroup relations in contemporary Nigeria

Pilgrims of Christ on the Muslim Road Paul-Gordon Chandler,2008-10-03 Today s tensions between the Islamic East and Christian West run high Here Paul Gordon Chandler presents fresh thinking in the area of Christian Muslim relations showing how Christ_whom Islam reveres as a Prophet and Christianity worships as the divine Messiah_can close the gap between the two religions Historically Christians have taken a confrontational or missionary approach toward Islam leading many Muslims to identify Christianity with the cultural prejudices and hegemonic ambitions of Westerners On the individual level Christ followers within Islam have traditionally been encouraged by Christians to break away from their Muslim communities Chandler boldly explores how these two major religions_which share much common heritage_can not only co exist but also enrich each other He illustrates his perspective with examples from the life of Syrian novelist Mazhar Mallouhi widely read in the Middle East Mallouhi a self identified Sufi Muslim follower of Christ seeks to bridge the chasm of misunderstanding between Muslims and Christians through his novels

Retrieving Apologetics Glenn B. Siniscalchi,2016-01-07 Given the popes recent statements of their desires to implement the New Evangelization it is imperative that Catholic theologians and other intellectually engaged laypersons retrieve the vital discipline of apologetics For the New Evangelization places particular emphasis on reproposing the Gospel to those who have experienced a crisis of faith due to secularization One salient method of Catholic apologetics used to be characterized by three demonstrations each of which assumes the conclusions established in the previous step s Some might think that this classical method of apologetics has been abandoned in the postconciliar Church but Siniscalchi s book updates it Unlike the classical apologetics of the preconciliar era Siniscalchi engages contemporary scholarship in a variety of academic disciplines such as philosophy history biblical studies sociology and theology to develop the steps that are necessary for showing the reasonableness of faith

Islam in a Post-Secular Society Dustin Byrd, 2017-04-11 Islam in the Post Secular Society Religion Secularity and the Antagonism of Recalcitrant Faith critically examines the unique challenges facing Muslims in Europe and North America From the philosophical perspective of the Frankfurt School's Critical Theory this book attempts not only to diagnose the current problems stemming from a marginalization of Islam in the secular West but also to offer a proposal for a Habermasian discourse between the religious and the secular By highlighting historical examples of Islamic and western rapprochement and rejecting the clash of civilization thesis the author attempts to find a common language between the religious and the secular which can serve as a vehicle for a future reconciliation Culture, Diaspora, and Modernity in Muslim Writing Rehana Ahmed, Peter Morey, Amina Yaqin, 2012 Fiction by writers of Muslim background forms one of the most diverse vibrant and high profile corpora of work being produced today from the trail blazing writing of Salman Rushdie and Hanif Kureishi which challenged political and racial orthodoxies in the 1980s to that of a new generation including Mohsin Hamid Nadeem Aslam and Kamila Shamsie This collection reflects the variety of those fictions Experts in English South Asian and postcolonial literatures address the nature of Muslim identity its response to political realignments since the 1980s its tensions between religious and secular models of citizenship and its manifestation of these tensions as conflict between generations In considering the perceptions of Muslims contributors also explore the roles of immigration class gender and national identity as well as the impact of 9 11 This volume includes essays on contemporary fiction by writers of Muslim origin and non Muslims writing about Muslims It aims to push beyond the habitual populist framing of Muslims as strangers or interlopers whose ways and beliefs are at odds with those of modernity exposing the hide bound conservative assumptions that underpin such perspectives While returning to themes that are of particular significance to diasporic Muslim cultures such as secularism modernity multiculturalism and citizenship the essays reveal that Muslim writing grapples with the same big questions as serve to exercise all writers and intellectuals at the present time How does one reconcile the impulses of the individual with the requirements of community How can one belong in the modern world What is the role of art in making sense of chaotic contemporary experience
