Faith A Practical Theological Reconstruction:

Faith Gerrit Immink, 2005 Addressing faith as it is lived rather than as a system of doctrine F Gerrit Immink emphasizes that having faith means more than assenting to certain opinions about God it involves a dynamic relationship or dialogue with God As he investigates the practice of faith Immink holds together the poles of divine activity and human experience external Word and indwelling Spirit At its heart this book is about God How can faithful people speak about God and understand God's presence Well versed in both philosophical analysis and the theological tradition the author argues for an understanding of God as a speaking acting person genuinely experienced in faith In so doing he issues a compelling plea to reevaluate the theoretical foundations of practical theology Applying his work particularly to the theories of preaching and pastoral care Immink brings to bear insights garnered from years as an academic theologian as the dean of a theological seminary and as a minister Scholars ministers and seminary students alike will benefit from his careful reflections on the Christian life of faith
