Faith and Fragmentation J. Philip Wogaman, 2004-01-01 In this classic reissue scholar pastor and author J Philip Wogaman addresses people who wonder whether Christian Faith makes sense in light of the sweeping changes of our age changes that have created at the same time a pluralistic world a technologically sophisticated world a dangerous world a world of great prosperity and yet great suffering What are we to make of this time we live in Can the Christian faith really provide a stable foundation Wogaman wrestles with these and other questions as he investigates the true meaning of a Christian faith with a positive understanding of religious pluralism and a rejection of fanaticism He concludes that this faith is a hopeful love that proclaims the centrality of love against selfishness and the power of hope against despair Christian Ethics, Second Edition J. Philip Wogaman, 2010-12-24 This updated survey of Christian ethics addresses major thinkers movements and issues from the early church to the present A broad range of topics is discussed including the biblical and philosophical legacies of Christian ethics and ethics through the early medieval Reformation Enlightenment and modern eras This new edition contains more extensive discussions of ethics in the twentieth century including Vatican II ecumenical social ethics and Orthodox Christian ethics A new section Toward the Third Millennium looks at the issues we will face in the coming decades including medical scientific and political dilemmas and issues of terrorism war and peace Artisanal Theology Lisa M. Hess, 2009-01-15 Paradox and surprise face those who pursue deeper spiritual practice theological wisdom and even a religious calling into the ministry Unbeknownst to incoming students the pursuit of theological education in established institutions today furthers a faith that is recognizable in delight and compassion even as it may just as easily deform it into a moral duty and autonomous professionalism so divisive in today's religious ecology How may those drawn into ministry formation today receive its deep theological treasures and sustain a vibrant faith with a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others Artisanal Theology explores the paradoxes and surprises that await those walking in the worlds of theological education the local congregation the academy the tradition denomination Part handbook part witness it offers guidance for the path of intentional formation within contemporary institutions of theological education whose riches may be mined in a disciplined spiritual stewardship and grounded in radically covenantal companionship Just like artisanal bread blends the classical methods of bread baking with modern conveniences so an artisanal theology relies upon the personal and communal touch of human relationship amidst the contemporary forms of programmatic theological education An artisanal theology offers an articulate and traditionally rooted faith perspective grounded in covenantal companionships sustained in contexts of church tradition and most importantly practice Ultimately an artisanal theology witnesses beyond the anticipated political divides to the Triune God among us known in a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others From Midterms to Ministry Allan Hugh Cole, 2008-07-02 The distinguished contributors to this volume ministers scholars and theological educators share personal reflections on the sometimes difficult transition from being a seminarian to becoming a minister Based on their own life experiences they address the two related but different worlds of theological school and ministry settings each with its own set of expectations values challenges focal points and rewards Contributors Wallace M Alston Jr Ray S Anderson M Craig Barnes Elizabeth F Caldwell Allan Hugh Cole Jr Pamela D Couture Kathy Dawson Carrie Doehring Michael Jenkins L Gregory Jones Susan Pendleton Jones James F Kay Cleophus J LaRue Thomas G Long Loren B Mead Bonnie J Miller McLemore Earl F Palmer Stephanie Paulsell Anthony B Robinson Carol L Schnabl Schweitzer Theodore J Wardlaw Traci C West William H Willimon J Philip Wogaman Karen Marie Yust A Spiritual Life Allan Hugh Cole Jr.,2011-04-19 This revealing collection presents a selection of twenty poets prophets and preachers who share their understandings of what makes a good spiritual life They draw on their professional experiences and as important grace us with their personal thoughts The result is essentially a textbook for spirituality courses exposing readers to the spiritual lives of a wonderfully diverse group of people with a wide range of Christian experiences Every reader is sure to find a perspective with which he or she can identify

The Future of Christianity David Martin,2016-03-16 This book offers a mature assessment of themes preoccupying David Martin over some fifty years complementing his book On Secularization Deploying secularisation as an omnibus word bringing many dimensions into play Martin argues that the boundaries of the concept of secularisation must not be redefined simply to cover aberrant cases as when the focus was more on America as an exception rather than on Europe as an exception to the furiously religious character of the rest of the world Particular themes of focus include the dialectic of Christianity and secularization the relation of Christianity to multiple enlightenments and modes of modernity the enigmas of East Germany and Eastern Europe and the rise of the transnational religious voluntary association including Pentecostalism as that feeds into vast religious changes in the developing world Doubts are cast on the idea that religion has ever been privatised and has lately reentered the public realm The rest of the book deals with the relation of the Christian repertoire to the nexus of religion and politics including democracy and violence and sharply criticises polemical assertions of a special relation of religion to violence and explores the contributions of cognitive science to the debate The Future of Christianity Professor David Martin,2013-06-28 This book offers a mature assessment of themes preoccupying David Martin over some fifty years complementing his book On Secularization Deploying secularisation as an omnibus word bringing many dimensions into play Martin argues that the boundaries of the concept of secularisation must not be redefined simply to cover aberrant cases as when the focus was more on America as an exception rather than on Europe as an exception to the furiously religious character of the rest of the world Particular themes of focus include the dialectic of Christianity and secularization the relation of Christianity to multiple enlightenments and modes of modernity the enigmas of East Germany and Eastern Europe and the rise of the transnational religious voluntary association including Pentecostalism as that feeds into vast religious changes in the developing world Doubts are cast on the idea that religion has ever been privatised and has lately reentered the public realm The rest of the book deals with the relation of the Christian repertoire to the nexus of religion and politics including democracy and violence and sharply criticises polemical assertions of a special relation of religion to violence and explores the contributions of cognitive science to the debate Reflecting Diversity Péter Losonczi, Géza G. Xeravits, 2007 The term interreligiosity is a characteristic invention of the postmodern discourse of religious studies But the feature it denotes the mutual connections between religions whereby they can share new viewpoints and paradigms is not modern at all One can say that religiosity and interreligiosity are correlative conceptions when speaking of religion as a social entity one is immediately and everywhere confronted by interreligious aspects The present volume contains various essays exploring such interreligious aspects found within the history and traditions of Judaism and Christianity American Book Publishing Record, 2004 THE NEW TESTAMENT Thomas F. Fernandez, 2009-02-01 The Theology of Struggle is a genuinely popular Filipino theology rooted in the history and culture of a people who have endured colonial oppression at the hands of Spain North America and Japan as well as neo colonialism and home grown dictatorship Because Christianity has played a role in assisting the history of oppression in the Philippines a theology of struggle must include a struggle in theology to wrest Christian symbols from the hands of the oppressors and return them to the poor This theology which is otherwise expressed in articles poems art and action receives its first systematic treatment in Toward a Theology of Struggle In Part One Fernandez establishes the historical and cultural context out of which the Theology of Struggle has emerged Part Two represents Fernandez's own constructive work in which he shows how a theology of struggle must address the quest for identity and peoplehood In Part Three Fernandez explores the question of theological method outlining the areas of convergence and distinction between the Theology of struggle and other Third World theologies as well as setting forth the distinctive challenge that this theology of the Philippines poses to the authority and dominance of Western theology as a whole

Reflecting the Divine Image H. Ray Dunning, 2003-10-08 John Wesley strived for a theology a theology both written and lived that delicately balanced sanctification and justification He hoped to uphold both faith alone and holy living Sadly says theologian H Ray Dunning many of Wesley s followers have not maintained that balance Some have tended toward legalism some toward a preoccupation with personal holiness and others toward social activism with little theological grounding Dunning believes Wesleyanism possesses the resources to help all Christians reflect the divine image and to do so holistically in all aspects of life His book incisively examines issues of ethical methodology and then shows how an ethic based on the Imago Dei shapes our relation to God to one another and to the earth This introduction to and overview of ethics will enlighten and benefit Christians in all traditions not despite but especially because it is written in the true Wesleyan tradition passionate profoundly faithful and plainspoken

T&T Clark Companion to Liturgy Alcuin Reid, 2015-12-17 In the decades following the Second Vatican Council Catholic liturgy became an area of considerable interest and debate if not controversy in the West Mid late 20th century liturgical scholarship upon which the liturgical reforms of the Second Vatican Council were predicated and implemented no longer stands unquestioned The liturgical and ecclesial springtime the reforms of Paul VI were expected to facilitate has failed to emerge leaving many questions as to their wisdom and value Quo vadis Catholic liturgy This Companion brings together a variety of scholars who consider this question at the beginning of the 21st century in the light of advances in liturgical scholarship decades of post Vatican II experience and the critical re examination in the West of the question of the liturgy promoted by Benedict XVI The contributors each eminent in their field have distinct takes on how to answer this question but each makes a significant contribution to contemporary debate making this Companion an essential reference for the study of Western Catholic liturgy in history and in the light of contemporary scholarship and debate      Predicting Religion Grace Davie, Paul Heelas, Linda Woodhead, 2017-07-05 Religion in the contemporary west is undergoing rapid change In Predicting Religion twenty experts in the study of religion present their predictions about the future of religion in the 21st century predictions based on careful analysis of the contemporary religious scene from traditional forms of Christianity to new spiritualities The range of predictions is broad A number predict further secularization with religion in the west seen as being in a state of terminal decline Others question this approach and suggest that we are witnessing not decline but transformation understood in different ways a shift from theism to pantheism from outer to inner authority from God to self as god and above all from religion to spirituality This accessible book on the contemporary religious scene offers students and scholars of the sociology of religion and theology as well as interested general readers fresh insights into the future of religion and spirituality in the west Published in association with the British Sociological Association Study of Religion group in the Ashgate Religion and Theology in Interdisciplinary Perspective series      Renewing Theology J. Matthew Ashley, 2022-07-15 This comprehensive study investigates the role that Ignatian spirituality has played in the renewal of academic theology using three prominent Jesuits as case studies Over several centuries spirituality has come to define a field of concerns and themes increasingly treated separately from those of academic theology as if the latter had little relation to the former This raises the question for us today How is spirituality related to the practice of theology In Renewing Theology J Matthew Ashley provides an answer by turning to Ignatian spirituality and three prominent twentieth century theologians who embraced its spiritual resources Karl Rahner Ignacio Ellacur a and Jorge Mario Bergoglio that is Pope Francis Ashley begins his investigation by considering the historical origins of the widening separation between spirituality and academic theology in the Christian West He provides an initial overview of Ignatian spirituality focusing on the openness and multidimensionality of Ignatius of Loyola s Spiritual Exercises presented here as a text in which the conditions of modernity that defined its author s world are present at least incipiently Ashley then offers three case studies in order to show how each Jesuit Rahner Ellacur a and Pope Francis responded to the challenges of modernity in a way that is uniquely nourished and illuminated by themes constitutive of Ignatian spirituality Their theologies Ashley suggests evince a particular clarity and force when the Ignatian spirituality that animates them is foregrounded Providing new and productive avenues into understanding the theologies of these three individuals this sophisticated and enlightening book will interest scholars and students of systematic theology as well as readers who are interested in the future of theology and spirituality in a fragmented age      On Religion and Memory Babette Hellemans, Willemien Otten, Burcht Pranger, 2013-05 Religion and Pastness examines the implications of the Augustinian concept of time as favoring a causality over linear continuity From this viewpoint the various essays address problems of dynamics and stasis in texts paintings and music ranging from Augustine to Abelard Eriugena Thoreau Calvin Shakespeare Rubens Bach Stravinsky Messiaen Virginia Woolf Cavell      Anxiety in the Era of Uncertainty Ali

Chavoshian, Jung Eun Sophia Park, 2025-03-20 The burgeoning field of Lacan studies critiques that most discourses have been formed in dominant cultures considering the impacts of Western imperialism on the structure of non Western or postcolonial human subjects This groundbreaking work invites readers to read Jacques Lacan s Seminars in an interdisciplinary way with scholars from diverse backgrounds Readers will see a new picture of anamorphosis emerge with possible transformation while facing the uncanny feeling of anxiety through the global peoples perspectives Human Subjectivity 'in Christ' in Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Theology

Jacob Phillips, 2019-09-19 Jacob Phillips presents a critical study of a neglected aspect of Dietrich Bonhoeffer s theology his writing on human subjectivity self reflection and individual identity in Christ In response to the rise of chronic self representation through digital technology Phillips argues that Bonhoeffer presents a radical challenge maintaining that from the perspective of Christian theology there is something deeply negative about beholding representations of oneself Bonhoeffer instead holds that discipleship means adopting a posture of radical agnosticism toward one s own identity Phillips focuses on the interrelation of simplicity and reflection in theological cognition and ethical deliberation showing a wider significance in contemporary theological anthropology soteriology and ethics By following the tradition of reading Bonhoeffer in relation to the philosophical sources such as W stenberg Janz Whitson Floyd Marsh Zimmermann Gregor Phillips highlights the ways in which Bonhoeffer s work relates to modern debates in epistemology and ethics generally and that of Wilhelm Dilthey and hermeneutical phenomenology in particular This volume offers a detailed theological analysis of the themes of self identity human subjectivity and self understanding which are highly pertinent for contemporary society
