Faith And Piety In Early Judaism:

Nickelsburg, Michael E. Stone, Jewish writings from the period of Second Temple present a rich and complex variety of first hand materials Here the editors have updated their classic sourcebook on Jewish beliefs and practices to take into account current thinking about the sources      Society, the Sacred and Scripture in Ancient Judaism Jack N. Lightstone, 2010-10-30 This work explores the relationship between religion social patterns and the perception of the character of scripture in four modes of Ancient Judaism 1 the Jerusalem community of the fifth to fourth centuries B C E ie the Early Second Temple Period 2 the Judaism of the Graeco Roman Diaspora down to the end of the fourth century of the Christian Era 3 earliest rabbinic Judaism in the second century C E in the land of Israel 4 Late Antique Talmudic Rabbinism primarily in Babylonia down to the sixth century of the Christian Era Lightstone attempts not only to describe these perceptions and relationships but also to account for them to explore why scripture should be thus perceived His imaginative approach to the challenging descriptive and theoretical tasks is influenced by literary and formal critical methods as well as by the methods and perspectives of social anthropology and sociology of the mind This unique attempt at revising the perception of the character of scripture should arouse the interest of scholars and students of Ancient Judaism      The Embroidered Bible: Studies in Biblical

Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha in Honour of Michael E. Stone Lorenzo DiTommaso, Matthias Henze, William Adler, 2017-11-27 This Festschrift contains forty one original essays and six tribute papers in honour of Michael E Stone Gail Levin de Nur Professor Emeritus of Religious Studies and Professor Emeritus of Armenian Studies at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem The volume's main theme is Old Testament Pseudepigrapha envisioned in its broadest sense apocryphal texts traditions and themes from the Second Temple period to the High Middle Ages in Judaism Christianity and to a lesser extent Islam Most essays present new or understudied texts based on fresh manuscript evidence the others are thematic in approach The volume's scope and focus reflect those of Professor Stone's scholarship without a special emphasis on Armenian studies      The Early Reception of the Torah Kristin de Troyer, Barbara Schmitz, Joshua Alfaro, Maximilian Häberlein, 2020-07-20 This volume contains the papers presented at the 2017 meeting of the SBL Program Unit on Deuterocanonical and Cognate Literature in Boston MA The theme of the sessions was the interpretation of Torah in deuterocanonical literature The contributions cover a variety of concepts and themes related to Torah and trace these through the Hebrew Bible into the Septuagintal deuterocanonical books and other relevant and cognate literature      Early

Judaism and Its Modern Interpreters Matthias Henze, Rodney A. Werline, 2020-11-29 An essential resource for scholars and students Since the publication of the first edition of Early Judaism and Its Modern Interpreters in 1986 the field of early Judaism has exploded with new data the publication of additional texts and the adoption of new methods This new edition of the classic resource honors the spirit of the earlier volume and focuses on the scholarly advances in the past four decades that have led to the study of early Judaism becoming an academic discipline in its own right Essays written by leading scholars in the study of early Judaism fall into four sections historical and social settings methods manuscripts and materials early Jewish literatures and the afterlife of early Judaism Jewish Apocalypticism in Late First Century Israel Matthias Henze, 2011 The Syriac Apocalypse of Baruch or Second Baruch is a Jewish work of the late first century C E written in Israel in the aftermath of the Jewish War against Rome It is part of a larger body of post 70 C E Jewish literature The authors of these works had a difficult charge They needed to re imagine Judaism and its central symbols take count of a thriving Diaspora and articulate how Jewish life was to be lived from then on without the benefit of a temple Written at a time of religious reconstruction and mental reorientation Second Baruch occupies a unique place in the history of early Jewish thought In this highly original work the author of Second Baruch developed an apocalyptic program that was intended for post 70 C E Judaism at large and not for a small dissident community only The program incorporates various theological strands chief among them the Deuteronomic promise of a prosperous and long life for those keeping the Torah and the apocalyptic promise of a new heaven and a new earth In this book Matthias Henze offers a close reading of some of the central passages in Second Baruch exposes its main themes explains the apocalyptic program it advocates draws some parallels with other texts Jewish and Christian and locates Second Baruch's intellectual place in the rugged terrain of post 70 C E Jewish literature and thought For modern readers interested in Judaism of the late Second Temple period in the Jewish world from which early Christianity emerged and in the origins of rabbinic Judaism Second Baruch is an invaluable source

The Greek Apocalypse of Baruch (3 Baruch) in Hellenistic Judaism and Early Christianity Daniel C.

Harlow, 2023-08-14 This volume represents the first comprehensive study of the Greek Apocalypse of Baruch 3 Baruch one of the most neglected of the Old Testament Pseudepigrapha Harlow discusses such introductory issues as text genre setting and function He carefully examines the chief critical issues in the study of this fascinating document including the literary integrity of the work and its original Jewish or Christian authorship He then proceeds to offer an interpretation of 3 Baruch as both a Jewish and Christian text His study succeeds in situating 3 Baruch within post 70 Hellenistic Judaism and in clarifying the early Christian interest in adapting editing and transmitting the work will find this study illuminating The Problem of Blasphemy: The Fourth Gospel and Early Jewish Understandings Jerry D. Truex, 2010-11-11 This doctoral thesis provides evidence that during the later part of the first century certain Jewish Christians who produced and propagated the Fourth Gospel were perceived to be blasphemous and therefore cut off karet from the synagogue as reflected in John 9 22 12 42 and 16 2 This study reviews recent research on blasphemy offers analysis based on hundreds of ancient Jewish texts and examines seven Jewish traditions pertaining to blasphemy including cursing God naming The Name and sinning with a high hand A composite portrait of blasphemy is sketched and compared with the theological claims of the Fourth Gospel Three theological claims of the Fourth Gospel stand out as potentially blasphemous Jesus is equal with God Jesus and the Johannine

Community constitute the New Temple and Judean religious leaders are not of God The perception of blasphemy and the inability to tolerate it explains why some Jewish Christians could not remain in the synagogue

Roman Faith and Christian Faith Teresa Jean Morgan, 2015 This study investigates why faith pistis fides was so important to early Christians that the concept and praxis dominated the writings of the New Testament It argues that such a study must be interdisciplinary locating emerging Christianities in the social practices and mentalities of contemporary Judaism and the early Roman empire This can therefore equally be read as a study of the operation of pistis fides in the world of the early Roman principate taking one small but relatively well attested cult as a case study in how micro societies within that world could treat it distinctively Drawing on recent work in sociology and economics the book traces the varying shapes taken by pistis fides in Greek and Roman human and divine human relationships whom or what is represented as easy or difficult to trust or believe in where pistis fides is deferred and reified in practices such as oaths and proofs how pistis fides is related to fear doubt and scepticism and which foundations of pistis fides are treated as more or less secure The book then traces the evolution of representations of human and divine human pistis in the Septuagint before turning to pistis pisteuein in New Testament writings and their role in the development of early Christologies incorporating a new interpretation of pistis Christou and ecclesiologies It argues for the integration of the study of pistis pisteuein with that of New Testament ethics It explores the interiority of Graeco Roman and early Christian pistis fides Finally it discusses eschatological pistis and the shape of the divine human community in the eschatological kingdom

Judaisms and Their Messiahs at the Turn of the Christian Era Jacob Neusner, William Scott Green, Ernest S. Frerichs, 1987 In its approach to evidence not harmonizing but analyzing and differentiating this book marks a revolutionary shift in the study of ancient Judaism and Christianity

Selected Studies in Pseudepigrapha and Apocrypha with Special Reference to the Armenian Tradition Michael Stone, 2024-03-11 This work contains selected essays dealing with the Jewish Literature of the Second Temple period focusing around central themes of recent research Stone's varied interests are reflected in this book gathered around four main themes Under the title Enoch and the Testaments are assembled studies which present and draw the implications from recent discoveries including the Dead Sea Scrolls as they modify the view of these two pivotal documents of ancient Judaism Another focus of Stone's work has been 4 Ezra or 2 Esdras a work reflecting the situation of Judaism and especially to the understanding of apocalypticism form a third section of the present work while the particular development of apocryphal literature in Armenian is its fourth division This work presents a range of significant studies in areas standing at the forefront of the study of Ancient Judaism

Abraham as Spiritual Ancestor Israel Kamudzandu, 2010-03-22 New Testament commentaries and exegetes have not paid sufficient attention to the context in which Paul's Epistle to the Romans was crafted This book written from an African perspective offers a fresh interpretation on a contextualizing reading of Romans and its theology The argument of the book is that Paul's construction of Abraham as a Spiritual ancestor of all faith people was based on his encounter with the Roman Ideology based on Aeneas as the founder of Rome A juxtaposition of these two canonical ancestors needs to be considered in our 21st multi ethnic Christian world Paul's epistle is not about how God saves the individual human being rather the debate between Paul and the Jewish Christian interlocutor is about how families of people and nations establish a kinship with God and one another The concern with ancestors is apaque to Western Biblical readers and Christians This is book helps both Westerners and Africans to value ethnic diversity

Jewish Martyrs in the Pagan and Christian Worlds Shmuel Shepkaru, 2006 This book presents a linear history of Jewish martyrdom from the Hellenistic period to the high Middle Ages Following the chronology of sources the study challenges the general consensus that martyrdom was an original Hellenistic Jewish idea Instead Jews like Philo and Josephus internalized the idealized Roman concept of voluntary death and presented it as an old Jewish practice The centrality of self sacrifice in Christianity further stimulated the development of rabbinic martyrology and the talmudic guidelines for passive martyrdom However when forced to choosed between death and conversion in medieval Christendom Ashkenazic Jews went beyond these guidelines sacrificing themselves and loved ones Through death not only did they attempt to prove their religiosity but also to disprove the religious legitimacy of their Christian persecutors While martyrs and martyrologies intended to show how Judaisim differed from Christianity they in fact reveal a common mindset

Ancient Judaism Michael E. Stone, 2011-03-22 In Ancient Judaism New Visions and Views Michael Stone examines a broad range of basic issues in the study of Second Temple Judaism and calls for a radical rethinking of approaches to Jewish history Stone challenges scholars and students to question theologically conditioned histories of ancient Judaism devised by later orthodoxies whether Jewish or Christian and to acknowledge religious experience as a major factor in the composition and transmission of ancient religious documents He urges readers to look above and beyond the spectacles of tradition and cultural memory that too often distort their understanding of the ancient past Addressing an assortment of topics regarding the authorship transmission and interpretation of the canonical Hebrew Bible the Dead Sea Scrolls apocryphal and pseudepigraphic literature and more Stone's Ancient Judaism underscores the stunning complexity of both the raw data and the resulting picture of Judaism in antiquity

Early Biblical Interpretation Rowan A. Greer, 1986-01-01 Discusses the history and diversity of early interpretation and the influence of Jewish traditions

At the Origins of Christian Worship Larry W. Hurtado, 2000-09-07 At the Origins of Christian Worship can deepen readers understanding of early Christian worship by setting it within the context of the Roman world in which it developed Hurtado highlights the two central characteristics of earliest Christian worship its exclusive rejection of the ancient world gods and its inclusion of Christ with God as the focus of devotion

'Hell': A Hard Look at a Hard Question David J. Powys, 2007-01-01 I welcome this rigorous examination of some of the many questions which are raised by the doctrine of hell At a time when it is rare to hear even heaven spoken about in our churches it is encouraging that this sober theme is once more in our sights It was plainly often on the lips of Jesus Nigel M de S Cameron

Trinity International University Dr Powys has pursued a rigorous examination of the Scriptures He rivets our attention on what the New Testament actually says about the fate of the unrighteous This is a seminal work David Claydon Federal Secretary CMS Australia The author writing from a position of biblical conservatism has presented a powerful convincing and scholarly case for the view that the unrighteous will forfeit resurrection life in the Kingdom of God It is in my judgment the most thorough treatment of the issue in recent years John W Pryor Macquarie University This book is an impressive thorough discussion of a thorny question Dr Powys is at home in many branches of biblical studies He examines the biblical evidence carefully and sets his case out lucidly and with real insight showing convincingly how ill founded are many ancient and many recent views on the fate of the unrighteous His own solution of a set of complex exegetical and theological issues is judicious and clearly the end result of careful thought from the Foreword by Graham Stanton University of Cambridge David Powys has made a significant contribution to an increasingly important debate His book s real strength lies in its very careful study of New Testament teaching in the light of a comprehensive analysis of the Old Testament and Jewish literature This literature is rightly seen not merely as background but as the key to a right understanding of the New Testament teaching I wish that such a clear discussion had been available when I first began engaging with these questions Stephen Travis St John s College Nottingham David Powys was educated at The University of Melbourne He gained degrees in arts and social work studied theology at Ridley College and was ordained in 1981 Dr Powys has ministered in four Melbourne parishes He is an Examining Chaplain to the Archbishop of Melbourne and a member of Archbishop in Council and National Synod He was awarded the Doctor of Theology by the Australian College of Theology in 1994 for his The Hermeneutics of Hell The present volume is a slightly abbreviated version of that dissertation First Century Palestinian Judaism David Ray Bourquin,2007-01-01 Jesus was a Jew That simple statement carries with it a millennia of cultural bias persecution and ignorance David Ray Bourquin attempts to shed some light on what it meant to be a Jew during the Roman Period with this detailed annotated bibliography of works in English Following a brief introduction and guide on how to use the book Bourquin divides his work into three major sections A Primary Sources B Books and C Periodical and Serial Articles In each section materials are arranged by subject and in each sub section in alphabetical order by main entry Entries include complete bibliographical data plus concise descriptive and analytical annotations A glossary and four detailed indexes all correlated to entry numbers complete the volume Every student of the period will want a copy of this carefully compiled bibliography Jewish Leadership in Roman Palestine from 70 C.E. to 135 C.E. Junghwa Choi,2013-07-15 Reconstructing Jewish socio political leadership of the late Second Temple and Talmudic periods this book suggests that the period between two great revolts is the best period to study leadership dynamics Prior to the emergence of the rabbinic leadership biblically modelled leadership was still a realistic option often co existing with non biblical polity It also attempts to reconstruct the Jewish socio political leadership of this period by examining how consistently the ideas of leadership that were available before 70 C E were followed after 70 C
