The De-Judaization of the Image of Jesus of Nazareth (The Virgin Mary) at the Time of the Holocaust: Ensoulment and the Human Ovum Thomas Alexander Blüger,2021-03-09 Thomas has been researching his family s Jewish background for the last thirty years Herein he investigates how his Jewish grandparents and aunt defined as a nonprivileged Mischling survived the war while living in the heart of Nazi Germany This led Thomas to research Hitler s fear of having partial Jewish ancestry and expanded into a full blown study of following Christianity s understanding of the Jewish identity of Jesus of Nazareth throughout history Not leaving matters here Thomas outlines how Marian dogmatic theology used at the time of the Shoah brought to conclusion the Church s long journey in defining the time of ensoulment as articulated in the papal document Ineffabilis Deus promulgated by Pius in 1854 This happened twenty seven years after the discovery of the human ovum in 1827 by Karl Ernst von Baer Years later with the emergence of Nazi racial ideology many anti Christian Christians attempted to invert Christianity s core message of salvation through faith toward biological ends This would not do Roman authorities had consistently held throughout the centuries that faith is about salvation and not about biology According to that same end the ideal of ensoulment since the time of the Church s renewed understanding of it beginning in 1854 and indeed as it was first articulated through the writings of Aristotle and received into Christianity through the writings of Saint Augustine and later Thomas Aquinas was newly preserved within the confines of Western civilization This is the first book the author knows of that follows Augustine s concept of ensoulment as well as Aquinas s thinking on the matter while linking these to Karl Ernst von Baer's discovery of the human ovum in 1827 up until the events of Shoah and beyond This study is phenomenological in nature in that it does not follow Jesus of Nazareth the Virgin Mary throughout history but rather follows the image of Jesus of Nazareth the Virgin Mary a monumental difference This study supports the Second Vatican Council the Church's latest and ongoing efforts in affirming the Jewish identities of both Jesus of Nazareth and the Virgin Mary John Paul II's call for a purification of memory beginning in a year of Jubilee as well as the many present efforts in Catholic Jewish relations This study builds upon the author's past article Following the Virgin Mary through Auschwitz Marian Dogmatic Theology at the Time of the Shoah published in Holocaust Studies A Journal of Culture and History Vol 14 winter 2008 No 3 pp 1-24

American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Journeys to Albania; Land of Besa Kalman Dubov, 2024-02-18 Although tiny in comparison with other European countries Albania looms large in terms of its people culture and history Blessed by an abundance of natural resources together with the resourcefulness of its people it stands strong in the face of much larger countries that have tried to control it and subjugate its people In the face of overwhelming odds Albania stood firm refusing to be subdued to others despite that dominant country remaining on its soil for centuries Descendants from the ancient Illyrians a relatively unknown group together with an obscure language unlike any other in Europe its people are a mystery and a conundrum in the face of larger and more powerful countries The Ottoman Empire for example dominated Albania and the Balkans for five centuries but were unable to subjugate these people Albanian embers for independence were nurtured and kept alive until in the end it achieved its national aspirations Its core identity remained unchanged and strong in the face of such challenge Perhaps the most remarkable aspect of Albanian is the concept of besa a term denoting a code of honor Once given to another whether an Albanian or a stranger the Albanian would rather forfeit his life than violate this code and promise It was due to this concept and code that Jews in Albania were protected and every manner of succor was extended to them Albania remains the only country in Nazi occupied Europe when at the end of that world war there was an increase in its Jewish population rather than the reverse The Nazis considered the Jewish population in Albania to be about 200 persons In fact by war s end 2 000 people emerged relating tales of the extraordinary courage and heroism extended to them by either Muslim or Christian Albanians To date the State of Israel s Yad Vashem has recognized 75 Albanians for its prestigious award of Righteous Among the Nations Ironically the very same code of honor that protected Jews during World War Two is now used by Albanians to perpetrate criminality across the world The Albanian Mafia controls a vast international enterprise overseeing every form of crime At its basest element the clannish hallmark of its membership is based on familial connections with the code of besa given to its leadership and other members Thereby all in the clan are considered family for whom the code connects and protects demanding total unquestioned obedience Efforts to infiltrate these clans has proven an impossible task because of the interconnected webs of duty and control exerted on all in that organization Betrayal of the clan is a violation of family and community so that total obedience is a given at all times Hence the same nobility of besa is also used negatively against society and normative social frameworks In addition Albania still retains the cultural phenomenon of the third sex where women become sworn virgins They are released from their traditional feminine role and become a man doing so by a formal oath given to twelve elders in the community Afterwards none may remind this man of a previous life as a woman Though the number of sworn virgins in Albania is small it is still present and any woman may assume this transformation despite modernity and its claims of equality The Albanian diet reflects its Mediterranean culture using olive oil and an array of vegetables that provides an abundance of health to its people There is much to learn from this ancient society I hope this book does justice to the many traditions and culture of this unique people Faith, Hope and Charity Saint Augustine (of Hippo),1947 MAIDEN'S MANIFESTO: The Feminine Flame Eureka Circe,2025-09-11 The Maiden s Manifesto The Feminine Flame is not a new women s hammer or even a witch hammer but rather a passing on and unfolding of agency and identity Eight dimensions form a mission statement with which women pass the flame to one another The book brings together over 30 literary portraits of women who take their place on the Holy Chair in Rome Female Popes of Theology who speak lead teach bless and reform in the indicative of their responsibility It shows the biographical experiences skills and role models that women bring to the Church in liturgy leadership teaching and passion for the world What topics do women bring to the Catholic Church It is about the biological theological interpretation of the virgin birth about Noli Me Tangere the don t touch me attitude in celibacy why the hybridity of a cyborg suits the Catholic Church well what the theological guiding principle of Pincipium Integrale means and how patriarchy can be drowned every day It is proven that there are more than three biological genders and what that means for today s theology And why Eve has a primal grace that allows us to rewrite the history of the Catholic Church We learn why education for women is so important in the Catholic Church and that a decent life also includes political action against child hunger What does the doctrine say about right wing radicalism when we ask where charity remains Must theology be understood as political resistance at all This hybrid literary work shows how richly the Vatican draws on spiritually strong intellectually qualified women to make the Roman leadership and Curia culture more feminine younger and more diverse Fundamentum femineitatis The foundation of theology is femininity in faith This women s manifesto allows us to see what happens when we pass on the flame of fire and no longer let go The Abingdon Bible Commentary Frederick Carl Eiselen, Edwin Lewis, David George Downey, 1929

An Affaire with God Guillermo Torres, 2010-02-09 An Affaire with God a commentary from a reader Reynaldo Pareja I have finished reading your book An Affaire with God I will qualify it more like a wrestling match where the rules were established by the respect and the sincerity between you and the Creator At the end both attained victory but this outcome was the result of mainly your effort What a powerful recount you made of what I would consider a titanic trek through the labyrinths of the spirit until you found an anchor a firm rock a point of Certainty where the search finally came to an end and the longing ceased Congratulations There are not many of us willing to attempt taking the inner path in such a consistent and meticulous manner with such honesty and depth Many are willing to start the quest though only a few get to the end and even fewer are able to find answers to their questions This happened because they got tired along the way and did throw the towel yielding when confronted with the many hard tasks to undertake along the journey Frequently they became disillusioned and concluded that the sought end of the quest did not justify the effort to be exerted I never got the impression that through the quest you ever contemplated giving up the search You always followed your intuitions signals which were clear and at the same time difficult to read At no time did I perceive that you were about to abandon the struggle or the effort that may bring you to the discovery of that unmovable Rock of Gibraltar that inner place which would open the door to the other dimension the transcendent world That world that manifests itself as a continuous state of mind brightening your path with an ever expanding light that is bringing you closer to the Source It is that focal point that illuminates all existence and provides meaning and orientation to everything It is the primeval essence that permeates all with His own substance because He is the foundation of all I found in your writings a new freshness a new vigor of a way to feel and experience God in a direct manner through everything He has given us to communicate with Him our intuitive and reflexive capacity our introspection capacity our analytical capacity the capacity to feel the Divine presence in a direct manner directly manifested in that site where our own divine presence resides Only a few very few are able to attain this perception throughout a lifetime It is a present a gift from the Universe It was given by God to whom you can be thankful for and continue enjoying every single day Of this attainment you will never get tired or be able to exhaust the flow that connects you with the Transcendent One with the All with the Omnipresent Your way for finding God has been traversed by some It is the path headed toward illumination Even though it is different to those followed by the majority it will bring you to the same destination provided by other valid means To attain Gods inner experience Nevertheless what differentiates your approach from others is that along the way you got rid of all attachments received by you as an inculcated inheritance You disowned any concept or image that was a part of previous indoctrination in order to start afresh an inner dialog searching through experiences rather than concepts direct experience instead of dogma introspection instead of analysis You have arrived to a degree of firmness and certainty that without a doubt there is nothing that could take away your direct and personal experience Blessed are those that without seeing understand that without hearing listen that by searching find those that by knocking get the door of the heart and the understanding open An Exploration of Christian Theology Don Thorsen, 2007-12-01 Beginning theology students often find themselves bewildered by a maze of beliefs represented in Christian history and tradition Don Thorsen's An Exploration of Christian Theology unravels the knots of theology by exploring the whole Christian tradition in a simple and straightforward way Beginning with introductory chapters on theology revelation and authority this book deals with biblical teaching and Christian tradition related to such topics as God creation sin Jesus Christ salvation and eschatology Chapters conclude with helpful questions for further reflection and discussion and a convenient glossary of theological terms is included This is an excellent introduction to Christian theology for classroom or individual use Catalog of Copyright Entries. Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood Michael R. Heinlein, Editor, 2020-12-15 The Church in the United States is greatly blessed by the contributions of Black Catholics and the legacy of holiness of so many men and women of color These men and women lived lives that are worthy of our study and emulation In Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood Michael R. Heinlein provides the first book to explore the lives of the six Black Catholics from the United States whose causes are under formal consideration by the Catholic Church for canonization Including biographies and personal reflections from diverse contributors this book shows how these six men and women provide a model of holiness for all Catholics and people of good will Venerable Pierre Toussaint Venerable Henriette Delille Venerable Father Augustus Tolton Servant of God Mother Mary Lange Servant of God Julia Greeley and Servant of God Sister Thea Bowman are sources of inspiration for us all As we continue to pray for the advancement of their causes for canonization all Catholics of every race can learn a great deal from these holy men and women By their stories of faith and virtue they show us how to respond to the call to holiness bringing healing reconciliation and peace to our wounded nation and world It is my profound honor to add my voice in support of Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood This book gives an insightful look at the Black Americans that are on the path to canonized sainthood in the Catholic Church The book introduces readers to six Black Americans who dealt in their lifetimes with the human denigration and suffering that is manifested by America's Original Sin of racism Yet they not only persevered but truly lived as Christian people which so many Americans claim to be but whose actions do not support that claim These Black Americans sought to show love compassion and forgiveness to all people regardless of their race ethnicity or station in life All of the men and women you will meet in Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood through their faith in God and by giving of themselves to God's people their sisters and brothers did what Servant of God Sister Thea Bowman said we must return love no matter what. These men and women show us the way forward. Most Reverend Roy E. Campbell Jr., Auxiliary Bishop of Washington, President of the National Black Catholic Congress, Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood is an inspiring look at six holy Black men and women who mirrored Christ in service to others. All of them persevered despite the many rejections they encountered, giving Black Catholics today the inspiration to meet the obstacles of racial inequity with equal grace and love and providing insight to all Catholics regardless of race into the effects of systemic racism and the many gifts and talents people of color bring to the Church. The accompanying reflections written by Catholic laity and religious provide deeper insight into the lives of the six candidates for Canonization and how best we can learn from them and emulate their examples in our own lives. The National Black Catholic Congress, Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood is a great expose on the lives and faith of some of our Black ancestors who responded with both prayer and action to overcome racism. Discovering through this book their life stories, their suffering, and their faith-filled response, one is inspired to seek the conversion of hearts with regard to racism through prayer and action so that we too can aspire to be saints by the manner in which we love one another. Most Reverend Shelton J. Fabre, Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux, Chairman of the USCCB Ad Hoc Committee Against Racism, Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood provides a glimpse into the power of God's grace at work in the lives of men and women who were often treated with disdain. The Archdiocese of Denver has been blessed by the heroic charitable witness of Julia Greeley on our streets, in our churches, and in our homes. This book extends that blessing to all who are seeking additional examples of courage, perseverance, and determination. As our country and Church work to address racism, may we turn to these holy men and women for their example and intercession. Most Reverend Samuel J. Aquila, Archbishop of Denver, Michael Heinlein performs a great service in bringing together engaging reflections on and portraits of Black Catholics who are on the road to sainthood. Their stories differ, but they have at least one thing in common: They rose above the racism of their day to the heights of holiness. From their place in eternity, they challenge us to root out racism from our midst. This volume should prompt us to pray and work for the canonization of these worthy witnesses to the Lord's truth and love. Most Reverend William E. Lori, Archdiocese of Baltimore, The last three Bishops of Rome have called Christ's Church to a New Evangelization, a renewal of the mandate given at Pentecost to carry on the mission of the Redeemer. Heinlein's book offers us a glimpse of a central theme of our renewal: personal witness, the heart of it seen in the cloud of witness of these holy ones. These men and women of color lived their faith, life, and became living gospels of the Gift, the Passion of the Cross, seen in the evil of racism, the Liberation of the Resurrection, recognized in the courage of the prophets and the songs of the Kingdom, heard and shared in the joy of the Spirit. They call us to witness. Most Reverend David P. Talley, Bishop of Memphis, Can anything good come from Nazareth? was Nathaniel's response in John's gospel to Philip's invitation to meet Jesus. Philip's words in reply echo down the centuries: Come and see. John 1:45-46. Within this book is a cohort of six awe inspiring disciples who encountered the Lord and proved that when grasped by Jesus Christ God can raise up goodness from anywhere As former slaves and descendants of chattel slavery they bore fruit a hundred fold in their time and place and bequeathed to the Church a lasting legacy I invite all who yearn for racial justice and peace to come and see in this book six black women and men who show us the path to life in this world as they continue on the road to sainthood Most Reverend Joseph Kopacz Bishop of Jackson Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood gives us an opportunity to become better acquainted with six black women and men from the United States and to be inspired by their lives of faith As we strive for holiness we are given the privilege to learn more about their journey to canonization and to participate in their process Most Reverend Gregory M Aymond Archbishop of New Orleans Black Catholics on the Road to Sainthood is essential reading for all Catholics particularly at this time in our country s history There is a common thread in the stories of these six holy men and women a strong faith love for others and personal sacrifice I appreciate OSV raising awareness of the lives of these candidates for sainthood It is my hope that reading about their lives and struggles will inspire not just devotion but others to follow in their footsteps The world desperately needs models of holiness and virtue like the ones contained in this short volume May their testimony of faith help us bring healing and reconciliation to a divided world and inspire us to respond to our own call to holiness Most Reverend Nelson J P rez Archbishop of Philadelphia chairman USCCB Committee on Cultural Diversity in the Church

Startling Figures Michael O'Connell,2023-08-01 Startling Figures is about Catholic fiction in a secular age and the rhetorical strategies Catholic writers employ to reach a skeptical indifferent or even hostile audience Although characters in contemporary Catholic fiction frequently struggle with doubt and fear these works retain a belief in the possibility for transcendent meaning and value beyond the limits of the purely secular Individual chapters include close readings of some of the best works of contemporary American Catholic fiction which shed light on the narrative techniques that Catholic writers use to point their characters and their readers beyond the horizon of secularity and toward an idea of transcendence while also making connections between the widely acknowledged twentieth century masters of the form and their twenty first century counterparts This book is focused both on the aspects of craft that Catholic writers employ to shape the reader s experience of the story and on the effect the story has on the reader One recurring theme that is central to both is how often Catholic writers use narrative violence and other similar disorienting techniques in order to unsettle the reader These moments can leave both characters within the stories and the readers themselves shaken and unmoored and this O Connell argues is often a first step toward the recognition and even possibly the acceptance of grace Individual chapters look at these themes in the works of Flannery O Connor J F Powers Walker Percy Tim Gautreaux Alice McDermott George Saunders and Phil Klay and Kirstin Valdez Quade
