Earnest Enquirers After Truth Bernard E Jones, 2013-10-18 First published in 1970 Bernard E Jones s selection of Gifford lectures includes excerpts from the writings of over ninety scholars who occupied a Gifford Chair between 1888 and 1968 Lord Gifford had asked his lecturers to be honest to God insisting that they should be earnest enquirers after truth and had always envisaged the lectures being published Dr Jones s anthology is arranged under headings suggested by phrases from Lord Gifford s will The selection which includes names such as William James A N Whitehead Temple Barth Brunner Bultmann Niebuhr and Tillich was made in such a way that the reader would be able to really grasp what natural theology is about Bernard Ewart Jones served as a Methodist minister before being appointed to the Lewins Chair of Philosophy at his old college Hartley Victoria Manchester He was awarded a doctorate by the University of Leeds in 1966 for his thesis on The Concept of Natural Theology in Gifford Lectures Michael Oakeshott: Notebooks, 1922-86 Michael Oakeshott, Luke O'Sullivan, 2014-01-21 From the 1920s to the 1980s Oakeshott filled dozens of notebooks with his private reflections both personal and intellectual Their contents range from aphorisms to miniature essays forming a unique record of his intellectual trajectory over his entire career This volume makes them accessible in print for the first time drawing together a host of his previously inaccessible observations on politics philosophy art education and much else besides Religion in particular emerges as an ongoing concern for him in a way that is not visible from his published works The notebooks also provide a unique source of insight into Oakeshott s musings on life thanks to the hitherto unsuspected existence of the series of Belle Dame notebooks that were written in the late 1920s and early 1930s but which only came to light two decades after his death At the same period in which he was developing the concepts that would form Experience and its Modes Oakeshott s personal life lead him to reflect extensively on love and death themes that highlight his enduring romantic affinities Accompanied by an original editorial introduction the volume allows readers to see for themselves exactly which works Oakeshott used in compiling each of his notebooks providing a much clearer record of his intellectual influences than has previously been available It will be an essential addition to the library of his works for all those interested in his ideas Michael Oakeshott Selected Writings Collection Michael Oakeshott,2014-08-26 A collection of 6 volumes of Oakeshott s work Notebooks 1922 86 Early Political Writings 1925 30 The Concept of a Philosophical Jurisprudence Vocabulary of a Modern European State Lectures in the History of Political Thought and What is History Yoruba in Diaspora H. Harris,2006-09-16 The Nigerian diaspora is now world wide and when Yoruba travel they take with them their religious organizations As a member of the Cherubim and Seraphim church in London for over thirty years anthropologist Hermione Harris explores a world of prayer spirit possession and divination through dreams and visions Between Dancing and Writing Kimerer L. LaMothe,2004 This book provides philosophical grounds for an emerging area of scholarship the study of religion and dance In the first part LaMothe investigates why scholars in religious studies have tended to overlook dance or rhythmic bodily movement in favor of textual expressions of religious life In close readings of Descartes Kant Schleiermacher Hegel and Kierkegaard LaMothe traces this attitude to formative moments of the field in which philosophers relied upon the practice of writing to mediate between the study of religion on the one hand and theology on the other In the second part LaMothe revives the work of theologian phenomenologist and historian of religion Gerardus van der Leeuw for help in interpreting how dancing can serve as a medium of religious experience and expression In so doing LaMothe opens new perspectives on the role of bodily being in religious life and on the place of theology in the study of religion The Chicago Theological Seminary Register Chicago Theological Seminary,1928 Alumni directory issue 1859 1951 v 44 no 4 v 45 no 1 Payback G. W. Trompf,1994-07-14 In this ambitious study the first monograph on religion and the logic of retribution Professor Trompf shows how various aspects of payback both negative and positive provide the best indices to an understanding of Melanesian views of life The book explores the reasons why people pay back and opens up a whole new dimension in the cross cultural study of human consciousness The author conducts his readers through the most complex anthropological pageant on earth illustrating his arguments from western New Guinea to Fiji A History of Oxford Anthropology Peter Rivière,2009-10 Informative as well as entertaining this volume offers many interesting facets of the first hundred years of anthropology at Oxford University The Philosophy of Enchantment R. G. Collingwood,2005 This is the long awaited publication of a set of writings by the British philosopher historian and archaeologist R G Collingwood on critical anthropological and cultural themes only hinted at in his previously available work At the centre of the book are six chapters of a study of folktale and magic composed by Collingwood in the mid 1930s and intended for development into a book Here Collingwood applies the principles of his philosophy of history to problems in the long term evolution of human society and culture This is preceded in

Part I by a range of contextualizing material on such topics as the relations between music and poetry the nature of language the value of Jane Austen s novels the philosophy of art and the relations between aesthetic theory and artistic practice Part III of the volume consists of two essays one on the relationship between art and mechanized civilization and the second written in 1931 on the collapse of human values and civilization leading up to the catastrophe of armed conflict These offer a devastating analysis of the consequences that attend the desertion of liberal principles indeed of all politics as such in the ultimate self annihilation of military conquest The volume opens with three substantial introductory essays by the editors authorities in the fields of critical and literary history social and cultural anthropology and the philosophy of history and the history of ideas they provide their explanatory and contextual notes to guide the reader through the texts The Philosophy of Enchantment brings hitherto unrecognized areas of Collingwood s achievement to light and demonstrates the broad range of Collingwood s intellectual engagements their integration and their relevance to current areas of debate in the fields of philosophy cultural studies social and literary history and anthropology

Social Anthropology and Human Origins Alan Barnard, 2011-03-17 The study of human origins is one of the most fascinating branches of anthropology Yet it has rarely been considered by social or cultural anthropologists who represent the largest subfield of the discipline In this powerful study Alan Barnard aims to bridge this gap Barnard argues that social anthropological theory has much to contribute to our understanding of human evolution including changes in technology subsistence and exchange family and kinship as well as to the study of language art ritual and belief This book places social anthropology in the context of a widely conceived constellation of anthropological sciences It incorporates recent findings in many fields including primate studies archaeology linguistics and human genetics In clear accessible style Barnard addresses the fundamental questions surrounding the evolution of human society and the prehistory of culture suggesting a new direction for social anthropology that will open up debate across the discipline as a whole

Anthropological Quarterly, 1928

Defining Magic Bernd-Christian Otto, Michael Stausberg, 2014-09-11 Magic has been an important term in Western history and continues to be an essential topic in the modern academic study of religion anthropology sociology and cultural history Defining Magic is the first volume to assemble key texts that aim at determining the nature of magic establish its boundaries and key features and explain its working The reader brings together seminal writings from antiquity to today The texts have been selected on the strength of their success in defining magic as a category their impact on future scholarship and their originality The writings are divided into chronological sections and each essay is separately introduced for student readers Together these texts from Philosophy Theology Religious Studies and Anthropology reveal the breadth of critical approaches and responses to defining what is magic

Stratton Randall Styers Edward Tylor Dissonant Worlds Earle H. Waugh, 2010-10-30 How did a Belgian Oblate missionary who came to Canada to convert the aboriginals come to be buried as a Cree chief In Dissonant Worlds Earle Waugh traces the remarkable career of Roger Vandersteene his life as an Oblate missionary among the Cree his intensive study of the Cree language and folkways his status as a Cree medicine man and the evolution of his views on the relationship between aboriginal traditions and the Roman Catholicism of the missionaries who worked among them Above all Dissonant Worlds traces Vandersteene's quest to build a new religious reality a strong spiritually powerful Cree church a magnificent Cree formulation of Christian life In the wilderness of northern Canada Vandersteene found an aboriginal spirituality that inspired his own poetic and artistic nature and encouraged him to pursue a religious vision that united Cree tradition and Catholicism one that constituted a dramatic revision of contemporary Catholic ritual Through his paintings poetry and liturgical modifications Vandersteene attempted to recreate Cree reality and provide images grounded in Cree spirituality Dissonant Worlds in telling the story of Vandersteene's struggle to integrate European Catholicism and aboriginal spirituality raises the larger issue Is there a place for missionary work in the modern church It will be of interest to students of Native studies the religious history of the Oblates Canadian studies and Catholicism in the mid twentieth century Fragile Resonance Jason Danely, 2022-10-15 Fragile Resonance describes the paths carers take as they make meaning of their experiences and find a sense of moral purpose to sustain them and guide their decisions When a parent or partner becomes frail or disabled often a family member assumes responsibility for their care But family care is a physically and emotionally exhausting undertaking Carers experience moments of profound connection as well as pain and grief Carers ask themselves questions about the meaning of family their entitlement to support and their capacity to understand and sympathize with another person's pain Based on his research gathering stories of family carers in Japan and England Jason Danely traces how care transforms individual sensibilities and the roles of cultural narratives and imagination in shaping these transformations which persist even after the care recipient has died Throughout Fragile Resonance Danely examines the implications of unpaid carer's experiences for challenging and enhancing social policies and institutions highlighting innovative alternatives grounded in the practical ethics of care Theology and the Anthropology of Christian Life Joel Robbins, 2020-07-29 Anthropological theory can radically transform our understanding of human experience and offer theologians an introduction to the interdisciplinary nature between anthropology and Christianity Both sociocultural anthropology and theology have made fundamental contributions to our understanding of human experience and the place of humanity in the world But can these two disciplines despite the radical differences that separate them work together to transform their thinking on these topics Robbins argues that they can To make this point he draws on key theological discussions of atonement eschatology interruption passivity and judgement to rethink important anthropological debates about such topics as ethical life radical change the ways people live in time agency gift giving and the nature of humanity The result is both a major reconsideration of important aspects of anthropological theory through theological categories and a series of careful readings of influential theologians such as Moltmann Pannenberg J nkel and Dalferth informed by rich ethnographic accounts of the lives of Christians from around the world In conclusion Robbins draws on contemporary discussions of secularism to interrogate the secular foundations of anthropology and suggests that the differences between anthropology and theology surrounding this topic can provide a foundation for transformative dialogue between them rather than being an obstacle to it Written as a work of interdisciplinary anthropological theorizing this book also offers theologians an introduction to some of the most important ground covered by burgeoning field of the anthropology of Christianity while guiding anthropologists into core areas of theological discussion Although theoretically ambitious the book is clearly argued throughout and written to be accessible to all readers in the social sciences theology and religious studies interested in the place of religion in social life and human experience
