Faith In A Changing Culture

Sean McDowell

Faith In A Changing Culture:

Faith in a Changing Culture Allan Douglas Galloway, 1967 Faith in a Changing Culture John William Drane, 1997
One of the most creative thinkers in evangelicalism today John Drane explores how we can create a spirituality that is Christ centered yet vital relevant and attractive to people who are searching everywhere but in the church for a spiritual dimension John Drane is director of the Centre for the Study of Christianity and Contemporary Society at the University of Sterling in California

Habitudes, the Art of Changing Culture (A Faith Based Resource) Tim Elmore, 2007-02 Faith and Culture Emmanuel Osigwe, 2022-12-05
The recognition of the intersection of faith and culture has become a significant trend in contemporary theology Cultures are locations of divine activity The Sacramental Theology of Elochukwu Uzukwu in Light of Vatican II and Its Application in African Context brings freshness to the dominant Catholic sacramental thinking by offering an African appropriation of the Christian faith through African cultures It demonstrates the historical interaction of the Christian faith with multiple anthropologies that resonates with different peoples to celebrate rituals that convey divine activity This work engages the theology of Elochukwu Uzukwu a recent African sacramental liturgical theologian whose work reflects the elements of sacramental and liturgical renewal of the Second Vatican Council especially in its openness to a plurality of cultures This book retrieves resources from the African universe to offer a contextual appropriation of the interface between faith and African cultures It highlights the African view of the body in its expressive worship and significance of relationality as an undergirding existential philosophy of life Consequently it offers a flexible theological methodology that avoids polarities It provides an additional resource to the philosophical and theological approach to the perennial problem of duality and theologies constructed on this template This study moves beyond monocultural sacramental expression to engage symbols and indigenous resources to articulate an African sacramental theology

Philosophical Faith and the Future of Humanity
Helmut Wautischer, Alan M. Olson, Gregory J. Walters, 2012-01-02 Karl Jaspers who died in 1969 had a profound impact on 20th century theology and philosophy His central thesis called for among other things a de centering of philosophy from its Eurocentric roots and a renewal of its dialogue with other traditions especially Asian ones This collection of essays includes unpublished work by Jaspers himself as well as testimonies to his life and career by colleagues associates and translators some of who knew Jaspers personally Readers will also find commentary and interpretation by researchers who have explored Jaspers work for decades and a biographical account of Jaspers student Leonard Ehrlich who handled much of Jaspers English translation The book interrogates Jaspers conceptions of philosophical faith his philosophy of communication and the prospects for world philosophy in the future Focusing on philosophical faith it assesses Jaspers interpretations of key philosophers such as Kant Hegel Schelling Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Rosenzweig as well as examining his personal relationships with Bultmann and Heidegger Contributors also look at Jaspers philosophies of religion and history his hypothesis of the axial age Achsenzeit and his contributions to metaphysics periechontology and economics Finally chapters cover Jaspers philosophy of communication and world history The latter are informed by a burgeoning interest in Kantian Freiheitphilosophie that influenced Jaspers as well as concerns over the future of humanity These concerns in part account for Jaspers growing popularity in the Middle East Eastern Europe Central South America and Asia Also included are lucid clarifications of the difference between religious and philosophical faith and the relevance of certainty trust and communication for a future of mankind Trained as a psychiatrist Jaspers practiced this profession before becoming a philosopher and thus had a keen insight into the workings of the human mind even as he challenged the philosophical establishment of his time It is perhaps this depth to his background that adds to the contemporary relevance of his work

Breakthrough to Creative Change in Communities of Faith John E. Piper, 2002-10 It is possible for Communities of Faith to break through to creative change if they are willing to learn how to get differences working together without a war Proven practical tools that effect organizational rejuvenation and a roadmap of change keeps congregations moving together in the same direction Author John E Piper explores issues such as How to recognize controlling self interests How to identify hidden decision makers Church Chess the win lose turf game that everyone loses Creating a complementary team where everyone wins Learning to drive safely on the open roadmap of change Most change efforts center on either people processes or structure These tools bond together the varying perceptions styles and interests so that a congregation can get its organizational act together and maintain its integrity through future crises In this way congregations can shape change before it pushes them out of shape

Dialectics of Faith-Culture Integration Michael Muonwe, 2014-02-21 This book navigates the contours of cultural and theological hermeneutics in order to critique affirm as well as reconceptualise the vital underpinnings and subtleties of faith culture intercourse and reciprocation It questions claims to effective inculturation by theologians and church authorities even as it acknowledges the inevitability of the tension between inculturation process and syncretic formations It is an irresistible asset for teachers and students of theology cultural and religious studies for pastors and missionaries and for all Christians in need of finding Christian beliefs and practices more meaningful to them in their daily lives The hope is that it challenges the straitjacketed conceptual and pastoral frameworks that have often characterised the church's evangelisation initiatives and assists in making Christian faith a concrete and living possession of every age and culture Michael Muonwe is a priest of the Catholic diocese of Awka Nigeria He holds Licentiate and Doctorate in Theology and Religious Studies from the Catholic University of Leuven Belgium He obtained Bachelors in Philosophy from Bigard Memorial Seminary Enugu Nigeria Michael also holds Diplomas in Mass Communication and Education He has authored a number of articles and is an editor of a book His major research interest is the often convoluted relationship and interplay between religion and the contemporary culture His research on the relationship between Christianity feminism and culture will soon be published in two volumes On the present book Prof Annemie Dillen of the Catholic University of Leuven affirms This is a must read book for local church leaders theologians and everyone involved in pastoral work It challenges the reader to give up a longing for security and finding answers in fixed rules or the so called universal truths and invites him or her to an in depth study of cultural practices and beliefs The overview of the discussions on inculturation and the reality or sometime maybe phantom of syncretism is very illuminating and thought provoking Thomas F Magill asserts A timely and well balanced study of the theology of inculturation as understood in the Roman Catholic tradition offering new and fresh insights situated in the cusp between the Benedict XVI's emphasis on the relationship between faith and reason and the problem of relativism and Francis I's desire for a poor church for the poor T F Magill L S S Ph D parish priest of the Diocese of Motherwell formerly a Lecturer in New Testament Studies at the University of Glasgow

Evangelism in a Spiritual Age Yvonne Richmand, Nick Spencer, Steven Croft, Rob Frost, Anne Richards, Mark Ireland, 2005 Takes a detailed look at the spirituality of people beyond the fringe of the church and offers insightful responses to how the church might address the issue of evangelism in the 21st century

Faith Maps Michael Paul Gallagher, 2010 Each section of this book takes a major religious thinker and asks how he or she points us in the direction of Christian faith My hope is to capture their vision in today's language and in a non academic way In most chapters I create an imaginary monologue what would this giant say to us today Here I try to speak to many honest friends who tell me that God is not so much incredible as unreal simply off their map In Faith Maps an imaginative theologian with a feeling for today s spiritual sensibility translates the voices of leading thinkers into a series of reflections on faith in contemporary culture The result is an introduction to theology for students and general readers as well as an attractive set of variations on themes familiar to specialists Book jacket United by Faith Curtiss Paul DeYoung, Michael O. Emerson, George A. Yancey, 2004 Presents an argument for multiracial Christian congregations in breaking down racial barriers in the United States To Change the World James Davison Hunter, 2010-04-14 The call to make the world a better place is inherent in the Christian belief and practice But why have efforts to change the world by Christians so often failed or gone tragically awry And how might Christians in the 21st century live in ways that have integrity with their traditions and are more truly transformative In To Change the World James Davison Hunter offers persuasive and provocative answers to these questions Hunter begins with a penetrating appraisal of the most popular models of world changing among Christians today highlighting the ways they are inherently flawed and therefore incapable of generating the change to which they aspire Because change implies power all Christian eventually embrace strategies of political engagement Hunter offers a trenchant critique of the political theologies of the Christian Right and Left and the Neo Anabaptists taking on many respected leaders from Charles Colson to Jim Wallis and Stanley Hauerwas Hunter argues that all too often these political theologies worsen the very problems they are designed to solve What is really needed is a different paradigm of Christian engagement with the world one that Hunter calls faithful presence an ideal of Christian practice that is not only individual but institutional a model that plays out not only in all relationships but in our work and all spheres of social life He offers real life examples large and small of what can be accomplished through the practice of faithful presence Such practices will be more fruitful Hunter argues more exemplary and more deeply transfiguring than any more overtly ambitious attempts can ever be Written with keen insight deep faith and profound historical grasp To Change the World will forever change the way Christians view and talk about their role in the modern world Faith and the Pursuit of Health Jessica Hardin, 2018-10-26 Faith and the Pursuit of Health explores how Pentecostal Christians manage chronic illness in ways that sheds light on health disparities and social suffering in Samoa a place where rates of obesity and related cardiometabolic disorders have reached population wide levels Pentecostals grapple with how to maintain the health of their congregants in an environment that fosters cardiometabolic disorders They find ways to manage these forms of sickness and inequality through their churches and the friendships developed within these institutions Examining how Pentecostal Christianity provides many Samoans with tools to manage day to day issues around health and sickness Jessica Hardin argues for understanding the synergies between how Christianity and biomedicine practice chronicity Managing Religion: The Management of Christian Religious and Faith-Based Organizations Malcolm Torry, 2014-09-09 This two volume work explores the management of religious and faith based organizations Each chapter offers a discussion of the earliest Christian organizations based on New Testament evidence a study of managing faith based organizations and an exploration of secular management theory in relation to the management of faith based organizations Faith, Life, and Learning Online Brant M. Himes, John W. Washatka, 2022-04-08 Faith Life and Learning Online is an invitation for faith based institutions to take bold steps toward integrating a holistic mission of spiritual formation into the online learning environment For Christian higher education faith integration is a matter of mission not modality Regardless of whether learning happens in the traditional classroom through hybrid models or exclusively online Christian universities have a missional mandate to continue their long legacy of forming students of competence and character While traditional campuses continue to provide unique and meaningful opportunities for students to grow in their faith online learning has opened new avenues for engagement and development of spiritual formation As such all Christian higher education institutions are now called to take advantage of this unique technological moment to continue to offer transformative opportunities for the holistic integration of faith life and learning in the online environment

Branded Faith Rajkumar Dixit, 2010-06-07 Christianity may be the greatest story ever told but in Western culture it is losing ground against the powerful forces of secularization In examining the root causes of this cultural shift does the church have anything to learn from secular society and the business sector For decades the church has resisted the idea of using business methodologies in the religious sphere Yet a closer look reveals that most church hierarchies have borrowed much of their organizational structure from the business sector But the church is not alone in its borrowing Today the lines between the church and the business sector are blurred as both entities influence each other interchangeably In Branded Faith Rajkumar Dixit enters an engaging and intellectually stimulating analysis of what the church can learn from the business practices of marketing branding and contextualization Using examples drawn from widely recognized companies such as Nike Starbucks Coca Cola and Subway Dixit systematically builds a case for the power of a story and emphasizes the importance of seeking culturally relevant ways to spread it Those who care deeply about sharing Christianity powerfully and effectively will find in Branded Faith a thoughtful presentation of ideas on how to maintain the integrity of the gospel while exploring fresh methods of communicating the good news to a postmodern society

In Good Faith Marie Parker-Jenkins, Dimitra Hartas, Barrie A. Irving, 2019-05-23 First published in 2005 this timely volume challenges those who see faith schools as contributing positively to the well being of society and responding to parent choice to think through the implications of September 11 for our multi ethnic and multi faith society without taking a position on the ultimate necessity of faith schools The authors conducted research in several faith based schools representative both of older religious traditions in England and Wales and of those which have been more recently established The focus was on state funded faith based schools but a range were visited to provide an overview of issues facing all faith based schools as well as those specific to newly funded institutions

The Betrayal of Faith: How Evangelical Leaders Abandoned Truth for Leftist Ideals Gayle Zavala, Unmasking the Shadows The Betrayal of Faith

This startling expos uncovers the clandestine alliance between Evangelical leaders and Leftist ideologies revealing a profound betrayal of Christian principles The book meticulously traces the insidious erosion of Evangelical values exposing the insidious forces that have corrupted its core Step into a world where unwavering beliefs have been shattered and once trusted leaders have led their followers astray Witness firsthand the devastating consequences as churches embrace progressive doctrines that contradict the very foundations of Christianity The Betrayal of Faith chronicles the subtle and not so subtle shifts in Evangelical teachings from the rejection of biblical authority to the embrace of social justice as the ultimate goal It exposes the hollowing out of spiritual truth replaced by a distorted gospel that conforms to secular dictates But this is not merely a tale of disappointment It is a call to action urging Christians to reclaim their faith from those who have subverted it The book empowers readers to discern truth from falsehood to stand firm in the face of deceptive doctrines and to rebuild a Christianity that is rooted in the unyielding principles of Scripture Gospel Without Borders Jim Rotholz, 2015-03-04 To what degree does culture facilitate or distort the Christian faith the gospel of Jesus and the life of the church In America the distortion is enormous Gospel Without Borders carefully examines the complex intersection of culture and faith in America providing insights that allow for better understanding and a more genuine experience of biblical and historic Christianity Gospel Without Borders analyzes the formative and interactive roles that human nature and cultural history play in contemporary expressions of Christianity in America It outlines their profound but little appreciated influence upon the shape and scope of Christian faith within society at large the church and the lives of individuals The study illuminates the dimensions of a largely unheralded gospel message characterized by unimpeded faith that fully accords with the kingdom Jesus stridently proclaimed It outlines the dimensions of faith freed from the disappointing forms of culturalized Christianity that always prove insufficient on a personal level and woefully inadequate to the demands of contemporary life within our globalizing world Today s world can only be effectively impacted through a gospel without borders a compelling gospel most Americans have yet to hear and too many Christians of every cultural and denominational background have yet to fully embrace
