Digby, 1846 History of the Triumphs of Our Holy Faith Amongst the Most Barbarous and Fierce Peoples of the New World Andržs Pžrez de Ribas, 1999 Considered by historian Herbert E Bolton to be one of the greatest books ever written in the West Andr s P rez de Ribas s history of the Jesuit missions provides unusual insight into Spanish and Indian relations during the colonial period in Northern New Spain First published in Madrid in 1645 it traces the history of the missions from 1591 to 1643 and includes letters from Jesuit annual reports and other correspondence much of which has never been found or cataloged in historical archives Daniel T Reff Maureen Ahern and Richard K Danford have now prepared the first complete scholarly and fully annotated edition of this important work in English P rez de Ribas was the first permanent missionary to the Ahome Zuaque and Yaqui Indians After fifteen years on the mission frontier he was recalled to Mexico City where he held various posts including Jesuit Provincial Addressed to novitiates ignorant of the challenges they would face in the field his Historia was a virtual textbook on missionary work in the New World Also written to encourage ongoing support of the Jesuit missions it reflected the author s deep grasp of what rhetorically soothed and moved Church and Crown officials Perhaps of greatest interest to the modern reader are P rez de Ribas s often detailed comments on indigenous beliefs and practices These firsthand observations provide a rich resource of ethnographic and historical data concerning everything from native subsistence settlement patterns and myths to the dynamics of Jesuit Indian relations The many cases of conversion that P rez de Ribas describes are especially rich in ethnographic data clarifying the values and beliefs from which the Indians were rescued History of the Triumphs is a primary document of great importance made more valuable here by an exceptionally fluid translation and painstaking annotations It will be a standard reference for all engaged in research on New Spain and a captivating read for anyone interested in this chapter of American history

Kondrath,2013-08-05 Facing Feelings in Faith Communities is based on a simple premise We have emotions because we need them God created us as affectively competent beings William Kondrath argues to help us understand our world and to give appropriate signals to people around us about what we are experiencing When we express our feelings clearly other people can more easily respond in ways that are helpful to us thus enhancing our relationships and the work we might do together Kondrath also recognizes that unfortunately for many of us our emotional software was infected early on with viruses early familial and social conditioning that distorted the way we responded to natural stimuli Because we are underusing or misusing our emotional capacities we are missing out on the opportunity to express our full humanity Fortunately we can reprogram our emotional software Facing Feelings in Faith Communities helps us restore our emotional systems to their original state or at least invites us to imagine how we would live differently if our emotional expressions were more nearly congruent with the situations and events we encounter Kondrath invites us to explore six feelings fear anger sadness peace power and joy through poetry meditation on an evocative drawing as well as through his own analysis of each feeling Congregational Resources for Facing Feelings is a companion collection to this book For more information click here

Living in Happiness in a Complex World Charles P. Nemeth,2020-02-29 In Living in Happiness in a Complex World Aristotle and Aquinas formulate a dependable and perennial recipe and rule for happiness Readers can compare and contrast these two approaches to human happiness that of Aristotle and Aquinas with more contemporary visions and then decide what works and what does not As a result readers encounter a series of delineated problems that inevitably lead to either happiness or distress such as drug and alcohol usage sexual gratification sexual promiscuity marriage or non marriage family natural family planning versus artificial interference materialism power and greed to name a few In the final analysis the text lays out two versions of how one encounters these problems and attractions and by the use of data empirical evidence about the current state of social conditions gives life to a classical vision for human happiness First Comes Faith W.

Frank Harrington,1998-01-01 Drawing from his experience as longtime pastor of Preachtree Presbyterian Church in Atlanta W Frank Harrington says that if the church is to flourish in this time it must return to its primary purpose the proclamation of the gospel for the salvation of humankind To be successful proclamation must be rooted in faith and faith has to be lived out in the real world of need and evil my faith needs HELP Justin DuBose,2014-07-22 The post modern world in which we live often makes it easier to doubt your faith than it does to have assurance about what you believe According to a research study recently released by the Barna Group 59 percent of young adults disconnect from the church in their teen years Many study participants told researchers that they stopped attending church because they wanted to find common ground with their peers not build walls in areas where they disagreed The apostle John wrote a letter to a group of Christians who were in the middle of the exact same struggle you may find yourself in They were struggling with knowing for certain that Jesus Christ is the one true God The good news that John provides in this letter is that there is a way to know that what you believe about Jesus Christ is the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth This book is a study through the book of I John and is for those struggling with faith The Spiral Gospel Rob James,2022-09-29 How did the author of the Gospel of Luke intend it to be read In The Spiral Gospel Rob James shows that the assumptions many modern readers bring to the text that it claims to be historically factual or merely regurgitates existing stories are not those of antiquity Building on the central insight that it was written for a community who would have used it as their pre eminent text James argues convincingly for a continuous cyclical reading of Luke s narrative The evidence for this view and also its consequences can be seen in the gospel s intratextuality Context is given at the end of the gospel that informs the beginning and there are countless other intratextual elements throughout the text that are most readily noticeable on a second or subsequent reading This deliberate creative interweaving on the author s part opens up new levels of appreciation and faith for those who read in the way Luke s first audience received his work The R.C. Your Faith is Your Fortune Neville Goddard, 2012-11-20 Your Faith Is Your Fortune by Neville Goddard Man can decree a thing and it will come to pass Man has always decreed that which has appeared in his world He is today decreeing that which is appearing in his world and he shall continue to do so as long as man is conscious of being man Nothing has ever appeared in man's world but what man decreed that it should This you may deny but try as you will you cannot disprove it for this decreeing is based upon a changeless principle Man does not command things to appear by his words which are more often than not a confession of his doubts and fears Decreeing is ever done in consciousness Every man automatically expresses that which he is conscious of being Without effort or the use of words at every moment of time man is commanding himself to be and to possess that which he is conscious of being and possessing
