Wood, 2009-01-30 Testifies to the presence of God as both our post earthly hope and our present world existence These thought provoking sermons by Ralph Wood a layman who has taught religion and literature for many years seek to till new soil in the fertile field of Christian faith and life They draw on a wide range of reading not only in Christian theology but also in both classical and contemporary literature and culture And they also mine Wood's own professorial and personal experience in dealing with both the old and the young amid the chances and changes of life Wood squarely engages the American culture of death by wrestling with such vexing questions as sexuality and marriage war and peace abortion racial injustice and abuse of the elderly By grounding his homilies in specific times places and quandaries Wood demonstrates that Christianity remains a vigorous set of doctrines and morals precisely as preaching and ethics give shape to our worship and living in the here and now Focusing not so much on our getting to heaven Wood s Preaching and Professing shows concretely how the gospel gets heaven into us     Faith and Passion Geoffrey Hill,2024-08-15 The reader will find a collection of devotional style poems written by a hospital employee during the COVID period Collections are divided into categories to help the reader develop a basic understanding of theology morality and an understanding of how to read the Bible devotionally Emphasis is placed on the relationship between faith and passion in how our relationship with God shapes our personal relationships because these relationships are internal and not merely external experiences An emphasis is placed on developing a devotional understanding of Scripture as the living God will address issues and concerns we face in our daily lives These interactions with Scripture give us an understanding of God and encouragement to handle daily struggles A primary purpose of publishing the text is to bridge the gap between being a Christian and that of being gay There is no internal conflict outside of idolatry and true moral character However evident within the church today there are deep struggles These may turn the gay Christian away from the faith and away from real moral character Today the exclusion of single people in the church is experienced in quiet isolation and even in public doctrine There is no justification for exclusion A Christian cannot remove compassion from faith in the name of doctrine because faith is internal     The Faith We Proclaim Elmer J.
