Topical Exploration in Literacy Education Cheu - Jey Lee, This book is a Topical Exploration in Literacy Education. It critically examines two interrelated aspects of literacy education and attempts to explore issues on literacy by addressing two specific questions: what do we mean by literacy and what does it imply for literacy education.

Zoicide Sue Coe, 2018-10-30 The issue of zoos is not about treatment but use, not about reform but abolition. Zoos often pay lip service to education, enrichment, and conservation, but the cruelty is systemic and follows from the idea of animals as commodities. As long as they are property, animals will continue to be treated as things with no rights who can be caged, bred, abused, or killed for a zoo's profit and the public's entertainment. In Zoicide, Sue Coe applies her bold and breathtaking artistic style to confront the institution of zoos, exposing them as a form of capitalist cruelty that is enmeshed with the violence of war, colonialism, and ecological destruction.

(Mis)Reading Different Cultures Yukari Takimoto Amos, Daniel Miles Amos, 2018-06-29

Teachers selection of the literature they use in instruction frequently depends on how they interpret in other words whether or not they accurately take in the authors perspectives This point presents a particular challenge in the selection of international literature International literature reflects a country's and a region's unique cultural values and practices and is usually not written for people outside the country of origin Therefore it is possible that readers in other countries may not understand be aware of those values and misinterpret the stories Since Asian and the Western countries including the U S hold maximum sociocultural differences and the perceived cultural distance has remained significantly wide reading and interpreting literature from Asia can present tremendous challenges to Americans The book addresses the challenges teachers face when interpreting and teaching with international children's literature from Asia The book engages readers with comprehensive coverage on theories concepts pitfalls and applications when endeavoring to use international children's literature from Asia in classrooms The book should be used to teach how interpretations worldviews vary by cultures and how power influences such interpretations worldviews Strategies and frameworks will be provided relating to how teachers can be more culturally conscious of their own biases and develop culturally authentic interpretations In the Name of Humanity Ilana Feldman,2010-11-30 Collection of essays that consider how humanity as a social ethical and political category is produced through particular governing techniques and in turn gives rise to new forms of government The Taoist Pedagogy of Pathmarks Jie Yu,2018-10-28 Based on the intertwined complex conversations among Heidegger Dewey and Lao Tzu this book explores the possibilities of the Taoist Pedagogy of Pathmarks as a clearing between truth and untruth responding to the spiritual call of Tao as inaction and teaching as releasement In this book Yu provides a critical exploration of the rich dynamics in the direct conversations among the three great thinkers of east and west highlighting the implications of their ideas for education throughout As more educational researchers teacher educators and teachers recognize the limitations of didactic teaching as telling the author brings an alternate pathway to light
