Foster, 2013 Just what is a generation And why if at all does it matter This book asks what generation means to ordinary people arguing that generation is real and it matters but not in the ways that we think Generations are not groups of people who can be categorized and attributed with static immutable and universal characteristics nor are they reducible to cohorts as is the tendency in much social research Rather the book reveals generation to be a social phenomenon and a mechanism of social change as a constellation of ideas and discourses that explains what happens when ideas and ideals collide and why some discourses flourish and take hold at particular times An Exposition of the Epistles of St. Paul, and of the Catholic Epistles; Consisting of an Introduction to Each Epistle, an Analysis of Each Chapter, a Paraphrase of the Sacred Text, and a Commentary, ... John MacEvilly, 1860 The Juvenile Instructor ,1905 A Voice to the faithful ,1885

Ego Sum Jean-Luc Nancy, 2016-05-02 First published in 1979 but never available in English until now Ego Sum challenges through a careful and unprecedented reading of Descartes's writings the picture of Descartes as the father of modern philosophy the thinker who founded the edifice of knowledge on the absolute self certainty of a Subject fully transparent to itself While other theoretical discourses such as psychoanalysis have also attempted to subvert this Subject Nancy shows how they always inadvertently reconstituted the Subject they were trying to leave behind Nancy's wager is that at the moment of modern subjectivity's founding a foundation that always already included all the possibilities of its own exhaustion another thought of the subject is possible By paying attention to the mode of presentation of Descartes's subject to the masks portraits feints and fables that populate his writings Jean Luc Nancy shows how Descartes's ego is not the Subject of metaphysics but a mouth that spaces itself out and distinguishes itself The Beast Within Joyce E. Salisbury, 2022-03-09 The third edition of The Beast Within has been updated throughout to include current scholarship new discussion of definitions and fresh perspectives on critical animal theory that places animals rather than humans at the center of the discourse Organized thematically Salisbury incorporates many new sections and subsections to reveal the multifaceted history of the relationship between humans and animals domestication animal diseases and pandemics dogfights cockfights Islamic dietary restrictions menageries and zoos and animals as entertainers To show how modern concerns have been informed by medieval precedents sections have been expanded to uncover medieval understandings of animal sexuality animals before the law and vegetarianism and modern fake meat The logical narrative concludes with chapters on Animals as Humans and Humans as Animals demonstrating that the lines between humans and animals have become increasingly blurred from the fourth to the twenty first century With an interdisciplinary approach that discusses humans and animals in relation to domestication symbolism science law religion food and diet sexuality and entertainment The Beast Within is an essential resource for all students of animal history literature and art in the Middle Ages

Compassionate Intercultural Care Practices for Coping with Grief James Japheth Sudarshan Harrichand, 2024-03-31 As humans we all express our grief differently Acknowledging this truth Dr James Harrichand examines Old Testament accounts of grief and mourning alongside the experiences of marginalized Guyanese and Vietnamese immigrant communities in Canada He explores both biblical and pastoral theology through an anthropological lens bridging the horizons of Scripture and culture in a hermeneutically and pastorally sensitive manner Dr Harrichand s focus on prosaic prayers in the Old Testament fills a significant gap in the scholarship but this book is also significant for its immense practicality sensitizing readers to grief s varied expressions and equipping culturally intelligent pastoral caregivers He presents five compassionate intercultural care practices for coping with grief grounding each in the living hope of the redemptive work of Jesus Christ the one who bore our griefs and carries our sorrows
