Faiths In Conflict Christian Integrity In A Multicultural World:

Faiths in Conflict? Vinoth Ramachandra, 1999 Crosscultural communication and interconnection have never been greater in the history of the world Yet the potential for intercultural conflict accompanies every advance And religious belief which lies at the heart of most cultures often appears to contribute to such unrest and at times even to violence In this fascinating and ground breaking study Vinoth Ramachandra explores the complex nature of conflict among the major world religions of Islam Hinduism Buddhism and Christianity and also between them and the rising tide of secularism Challenging stereotypes built up on every side he raises questions about the seemingly inevitable clash of cultures due to their respective religious commitments He puts to the test the belief that a secular society that rejects universal truth claims can sustain a truly tolerant and pluralistic society He passionately demonstrates how the distinctive message of Christianity concerning the uniqueness of Jesus Christ actually provides a basis for a truly democratic and multicultural society Faiths in conflict? :

Christian integrity in a multicultural world Vinoth Ramachandra, 1999 Faiths in Conflict? Vinoth Ramachandra, 2000-08-28 In this fascinating and ground breaking study Vinoth Ramachandra explores the complex nature of conflict among the major world religions of Islam Hinduism Buddhism and Christianity and also between them and the rising tide of secularism Who Can Be Saved? Terrance L. Tiessen, 2009-09-20 Throughout history millions have lived and died without hearing the gospel of Jesus Christ Despite vigorous missionary efforts large populations of the world today have never been evangelized And now religious pluralism has set up shop on Main Street The question Who can be saved forces itself on the minds of Christians like never before Is there a wideness in God s mercy Does God reveal himself in a way that invites all people to respond positively in saving faith Does one have to be an Arminian to believe so Or is there a way for Calvinists to see how God might reveal and save apart from the explicit gospel and yet exclusively through Jesus Christ And if so what does this say about the role of religions within the sovereign providence of God These are big questions requiring thoughtful care In this intriguing study Terrance L Tiessen reassesses the questions of salvation and the role of religions and offers a proposal that is biblically rooted theologically articulated and missiologically sensitive This is a book that will set new terms for the discussion of these important issues Transforming Worldviews Paul G. Hiebert, 2008-05-01 In the past changes in behavior and in belief have been leading indicators for missionaries that Christian conversion had occurred But these alone or even together are insufficient for a gospel understanding of conversion For effective biblical mission Paul G Hiebert argues we must add a third element a change in worldview Here he offers a comprehensive study of worldview its philosophy its history its characteristics and the means for understanding it He then provides a detailed analysis of several worldviews that missionaries must engage today addressing the impact of each on Christianity and mission A biblical worldview is outlined for comparison Finally Hiebert argues for gospel ministry that seeks to transform people s worldviews and offers suggestions for how to do so Christians Meeting Hindus Bob Robinson, 2011-06-16 With rare exceptions serious intentional reflective and sustained interfaith encounter is a novel and recent enterprise This book looks in detail at one such encounter the intentional recent Hindu Christian dialog in India and asks why and how the practice of dialog came to replace previous attitudes of confrontation and monologue especially on the part of Christians Part I sets the encounter in its global context Part II offers a comprehensive and critical analysis of the actual encounter Part III draws on aspects of the Christian tradition as it critically examines the ways in which the dialog has been justified in Christological categories A final chapter discusses the future of the encounter Unlike many other works in the area of interfaith studies this work combines both descriptive detail of the actual encounter and critical theological analysis of the strengths and weakness of the dialog model

Christianity and Religious Diversity Harold A. Netland, 2015-05-12 This book explores how religions have changed in a globalized world and how Christianity is unique among them Harold Netland an expert in philosophical aspects of religion and pluralism offers a fresh analysis of religion in today s globalizing world He challenges misunderstandings of the concept of religion itself and shows how particular religious traditions such as Buddhism undergo significant change with modernization and globalization Netland then responds to issues concerning the plausibility of Christian commitments to Jesus Christ and the unique truth of the Christian gospel in light of religious diversity The book concludes with basic principles for living as Christ s disciples in religiously diverse contexts

The Political Economy of NGOs Jude L. Fernando, 2011-07-08 This book explores the paradoxical relationship between NGOs and capitalism showing that supposedly progressive organisations often promote essentially the same policies and ideas as existing governments It examines how a diverse group of NGOs have shaped state formation in Bangladesh and Sri Lanka It argues that rather than influencing state formation for the better NGOs have been integrated into the capitalist system and their language adopted to give traditional exploitative social relations a transformative appearance This enlightening study will give pause to those who see NGOs as drivers of true social change and will encourage students of development studies to make a deeper analysis of state formation

(Author), 2016-02-15 The most basic questions everyone faces in life is Why am I here What is my purpose Gerard Kelly presents the stories that make up the overall story of God in the world And here we find our purpose for each of our individual Christian lives Our purpose is as distinctive as our fingerprint and we will connect with it when we connect with our identity and origin in God God remembers how he made us and is committed to the fruitfulness and fulfilment of our potential We discover the importance of finding our place of service and usefulness knowing that our lives have meaning in the purposes of God The Pursuit & Acquisition of Health & Wealth Gerard Jacobs, 2012-04-30 The pursuit and acquisition of health and wealth are part of the worldview that drives Singaporean society It encompasses a strong work ethic in the pursuit to modernise and be a key player in the global economy Health and wealth are defined in terms of an individuals well being in the sense of good health and a continued assurance of material provision and security This worldview stems from a syncretism with non Christian religions that have reconceptualised themselves with the socioeconomic and political goals of Singaporean society Subsequently they continue to be the authentic expression of the noblest longings of people that have become symbiotic with their daily expressions shaping their history and culture The book attempts to show that while Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity have played a significant role in the growth of contemporary Singaporean churches it has inadvertently presented a gospel that appeals to the deeply embedded dominant religious secular worldview of its society in the context of health and wealth Contemporary Muslim and Christian Responses to Religious Plurality

Lewis E Winkler, 2012-04-26 In our rapidly changing and progressively globalized world Christians and Muslims are faced with the prospect of directly encountering and responding to people of other faiths and cultures This has pushed us all to address the vital question of how best to live with work beside and love one another as fellow citizens of our planet Using resources from Christian theologian Wolfhart Pannenberg Muslim ethicist Abdulaziz Sachedina and several others Winkler argues that we must continually dialogue with one another not only about the beliefs and practices held in common between us but also about the ways in which we are distinctively different Only then can we take the opportunity more comprehensively to understand appreciate and cooperate with each other to build just moral and cohesive communities of hope in our often uncertain and unsettling times Neighboring Faiths Winfried Corduan,2024-04-30 In this updated and revised edition of a classic text readers will find informed empathetic insights into world religions like Judaism Islam Hinduism Native American religion and many more Emphasizing both formal teaching and daily practice this text shows Christians how to engage adherents of these faiths in constructive dialogue Nationalism and Hindutva Mark T.
