Falkepek A Kozepkori Magyarorszagon:

Régi falképek Magyarországon Flóris Rómer,1874 Eclecticism in Late Medieval Visual Culture at the Crossroads of the Latin, Greek, and Slavic Traditions Maria Alessia Rossi,Alice Isabella Sullivan,2021-11-22 This volume builds upon the new worldwide interest in the global Middle Ages It investigates the prismatic heritage and eclectic artistic production of Eastern Europe between the fourteenth and seventeenth centuries while challenging the temporal and geographical parameters of the study of medieval Byzantine post Byzantine and early modern art Contact and interchange between primarily the Latin Greek and Slavic cultural spheres resulted in local assimilations of select elements that reshaped the artistic landscapes of regions of the Balkan Peninsula the Carpathian Mountains and further north The specificities of each region and in modern times politics and nationalistic approaches have reinforced the tendency to treat them separately preventing scholars from questioning whether the visual output could be considered as an expression of a shared history The comparative and interdisciplinary framework of this volume provides a holistic view of the visual culture of these regions by addressing issues of transmission and appropriation as well as notions of cross cultural contact while putting on the global map of art history the eclectic artistic production of Eastern Europe Falképek a középkori Magyarországon Dénes Radocsay,1977 The Cult of St Ursula and the 11,000 Virgins Jane Cartwright,2016-06-15 The cult of St Ursula and the 11 000 virgins was one of the most popular and relic rich of all saints cults in the medieval period This volume constitutes the first interdisciplinary collection of essays in English to explore the development and transmission of the legend of St Ursula in detail considering a wealth of different sources including physical remains literary texts artistic representations and medieval music A középkori Magyarország falképei Dénes Radocsay,1954 The Late Medieval Cult of the Saints Carmen Florea,2021-11-11 This is a book that explores the nature of sainthood in a region at the margins of medieval Latin Christendom Defining the model of sanctity that characterized Transylvania between the fourteenth and sixteenth centuries the study considers how the cults of saints functioned within specific local social and cultural contexts Analyzing case studies from a multi ethnic region influenced by both the Latin and Eastern Christian traditions this book provides a close reading of little surveyed primary sources and offers a comprehensive understanding of sainthood in Transylvania enhancing the broader study of medieval saints cults and their relationship to social power structures It will be of great interest to scholars of medieval religion researchers in medieval studies and religious studies scholars engaged in comparative research Royal Divine Coronation Iconography in the Medieval Euro-Mediterranean Area Mirko Vagnoni,2020-12-15 In the last decades historians and art historians have created an active historiographical debate about one of the most fascinating and studied iconographic themes of the Middle Ages the royal divine coronation Indeed in the specific case of some Ottonian and Salian illuminations it has been proposed that their function was not only political or to legitimize power as traditionally suggested Herrscherbilder but also liturgical and religious Memorialbilder This has led to a complete rethinking of the meaning of this iconographic theme the divine coronation of the king would not symbolically allude to his earthly power but to the wholly devotional hope of receiving the crown of eternal life in the afterlife If this academic debate has been concentrated above all on Ottonian and Salian royal images this Special Issue of Arts would like to deal with this topic by stimulating the analysis of royal divine coronation and blessing scenes in religious and liturgical context mosaics frescos or paintings placed in cathedrals or monastic churches and illuminations of liturgical texts with a wider geographical and temporal setting that is the European and Mediterranean kingdoms in the period from the 12th to the 15th centuries

Louis the Great, King of Hungary and Poland Steven Béla Várdy, Géza Grosschmid, Leslie S. Domonkos, 1986 The Routledge Handbook of Byzantine Visual Culture in the Danube Regions, 1300-1600 Maria Alessia Rossi, Alice Isabella Sullivan, 2024-02-22 This volume aims to broaden and nuance knowledge about the history art culture and heritage of Eastern Europe relative to Byzantium From the thirteenth century to the decades after the fall of Constantinople in 1453 the regions of the Danube River stood at the intersection of different traditions and the river itself has served as a marker of connection and division as well as a site of cultural contact and negotiation The Routledge Handbook of Byzantine Visual Culture in the Danube Regions 1300 1600 brings to light the interconnectedness of this broad geographical area too often either studied in parts or neglected altogether emphasizing its shared history and heritage of the regions of modern Greece Croatia Serbia Bulgaria Romania Hungary Slovakia and Czechia The aim is to challenge established perceptions of what constitutes ideological and historical facets of the past as well as Byzantine and post Byzantine cultural and artistic production in a region of the world that has yet to establish a firm footing on the map of art history The 24 chapters offer a fresh and original approach to the history literature and art history of the Danube regions thus being accessible to students thematically chronologically or by case study each part can be read independently or explored as part of a whole
