Tolkien Stuart D. Lee, 2020-06-02 This is a complete resource for scholars and students of Tolkien as well as avid fans with coverage of his life work dominant themes influences and the critical reaction to his writing An in depth examination of Tolkien's entire work by a cadre of top scholars Provides up to date discussion and analysis of Tolkien's scholarly and literary works including his latest posthumous book The Fall of Arthur as well as addressing contemporary adaptations including the new Hobbit films Investigates various themes across his body of work such as mythmaking medieval languages nature war religion and the defeat of evil Discusses the impact of his work on art film music gaming and subsequent generations of fantasy writers Falling into Grace: the Fiction of Andrew Greeley R. W. Carstens, 2008-10-07 Falling into Grace is a study of Andrew Greeley's fiction and the message behind his words revealing many timeless political and theological ideas Professor R W Carstens shares the findings of his deep exploration into Greeley's novels as evidence of a set of ancient values and key political ideas that are needed today more than ever As a great storyteller Greeley s message is significant that grace sustains us unites us comforts us and sometimes overwhelms us but it is also evidence of our freedom Carstens careful examination into the deeper meaning behind the stories demonstrates that Greeley s characters and the world in which they live portray life as acts of faith hope and love and prove that God is alive and well in the hearts of many in the world As Carstens discusses Greeley s imagination and his political and theological concepts he develops his own theories about how these ideas can be applied in today s world by creating freedom limiting authority and building communities where people are united by common goals In the end Carstens study demonstrates that Greeley s fiction shows us a way to go home to the images that appeal to the best in us and therefore tell us what might be Until We Fall Jessica Scott,2018-04-24 Caleb has spent ten years hiding in the dark refusing to speak about the night his young life was destroyed Instead he turned his grief off and focused on the one thing in life he wanted more than anything His career cut bitterly short everything he s avoided for the last decade is burning him up He s heading for a crash a big one and he keeps driving everyone away Nalini King has worked her entire life building a space for people to heal She s devoted her post army life to her passion using yoga to heal her fellow soldiers But meeting Caleb has sparked an irrational anger that she thought she d conquered When these two polar opposites collide nothing will ever be the same again Francophone African Narratives and the

Anglo-American Book Market Vivan Steemers,2021-03-01 In recent years the material circumstances governing the production of African literature have been analyzed from a variety of angles This study goes one step further by charting the trajectories of a corpus of francophone African sub Saharan narratives subsequently translated into English It examines the role of various institutional agents and agencies publishers preface writers critics translators and literary award committees involved in the value making process that accrues visibility to these texts that eventually reach the Anglo American book market The author evinces that over time different types of publishers dominated both within the original publishing space as in the foreign literary field contingent on their specific mission be it commercial ideological or educational as well as on socioeconomic and political circumstances The study addresses the influence of the editorial paratextual framing pandering to specific Western readerships the potential interventionist function of the translator and the consecrating mechanisms of literary and translation awards affecting both gender and minority representation Drawing on the work by key sociologists and translation theorists the author uses an innovative interdisciplinary methodology to analyze the corpus narratives

Nwanyi Phaniel Akubueze Egejuru,Ketu H. Katrak,1997 We All Fall Down, by Robert Cormier Mika Rodic,2000 A Novel Bookstore Laurence Cossé,2010-08-31 A devotee of Stendhal who has shunned the company of his fellow human beings to live on the outskirts of a tiny village in Savoy is kidnapped and left for dead along a forest road A middle aged mother who spends much of her time shuttling her numerous offspring along twisting mountain roads loses control of her car and ends up injured but alive in a gorge Meanwhile an elderly man of unbreakable habits is taunted and threatened by two unknown men while on his morning walk along the cliffs of Brittany Mystery abounds but A Novel Bookstore is no everyday mystery The victims here are not members of the underworld toughs or thugs but mild meek and apparently ordinary people In the eyes of their aggressors they are guilty of only one crime expressing their tastes in literature Indeed all three victims are members of The Good Novel s secret selection committee Tucked away in a corner of Paris The Good Novel bookstore offers its clientele literary masterpieces both contemporary and classic selected by a top secret committee of authors The store has proven an instant success but nobody could have imagined that success would unleash a tide of hatred Now there are those who will stop at nothing to destroy The Good Novel One by one the pieces of this puzzle fall ominously into place as it becomes clear to the store s owners Ivan and Francesca that their dreams of an ideal place for books may be shattered by envy and violence Elegantly mixing the mystery and literary fiction genres Laurence Coss has written an enthralling fable for lovers of good books and a heartfelt tribute to fine bookselling Break My Fall Jessica Scott,2016-02-16 Violence I m addicted to it It s how I feel alive It s the only thing that s real any more And now I have to sit around and discuss it like it s physics or calculus I can t do it I can t pretend that it s some sterile academic topic Violence isn t sterile It isn t calm It s pulsing It s alive It s my drug Until I met Abby I never wanted anything beyond the next fight Never considered that I might finally find a way back to the land of the living Now Now I find myself dreaming of a woman with golden eyes But I can never be with her Because I am not whole And I never will be again But I cannot stay away And loving her might finally be what breaks me Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne,Pushpa Naidu Parekh,2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Doris Lessing Tsitsi Dangarembga Tahbar Ben Jelloun among others Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author s writings an overview of the critical response to the author s work and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature The Chinua Achebe Encyclopedia M. Keith Booker,2003-12-30 Several hundred A Z entries cover Achebe s major works important characters and settings key concepts and issues and more Though best known as a novelist Achebe is also a critic activist and spokesman for African culture This reference is a comprehensive and authoritative guide to his life and writings Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries Some of these are substantive summary discussions of Achebe s major works of fiction nonfiction and poetry Entries are written by expert contributors and close with brief bibliographies The volume also provides a general bibliography and chronology Nigerian writer Chinua Achebe is widely regarded as the most important of the numerous African novelists who gained global attention in the second half of the 20th century Achebe is certainly the African writer best known in the West and his first novel Things Fall Apart is a founding text of postcolonial African literature and regarded as one of the central works of world literature of the last 50 years Though best known as a novelist Achebe is also a critic activist and spokesman for African culture This reference is a comprehensive and authoritative guide to his life and writings Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries Some of these are substantive summary discussions of Achebe's major works of fiction nonfiction and poetry Other topics include all of his major fictional characters and settings important concepts and issues central to his writings historical persons places and events relevant to his works and influential texts by other writers Entries are written by expert contributors and close with brief bibliographies The volume also provides a general bibliography and chronology Bookseller & Stationer and Office Equipment Journal, 1929

Emerging Perspectives on Chinua Achebe Ernest Emenyonu, 2004 This compendium of 37 essays provides global perspectives of Achebe as an artist with a proper sense of history and an imaginative writer with an inviolable sense of cultural mission and political commitment Toronto Trailblazers Ruth Panofsky, 2019-09-12 The first ever study of women in Canadian publishing Toronto Trailblazers delves into the cultural influence of seven key women who despite pervasive gender bias helped advance a modern literary culture for Canada Publisher Irene Clarke scholarly editors Eleanor Harman and Frances Halpenny trade editors Sybil Hutchinson Claire Pratt and Anna Porter and literary agent Bella Pomer made the most of their vocational prospects first by securing their respective positions and then by refining their professional methods Individually each woman asserted her agency by adapting orthodox ways of working within Canadian publishing Collectively and perhaps more importantly their overarching approach emerged more broadly as a feminist practice Guided by the resolve to make industry wide improvements these women disrupted the dominant masculine paradigm and reinvigorated the culture of publishing and authorship in Canada Through their vision and method these trailblazing women became agents of change who helped transform publishing practice Pour Le Sport Roxanna Nydia Curto, Rebecca Wines, 2021 The essays of this volume examine physical culture in literature written in French from around the Francophone world focusing on texts from a wide variety of periods and genres in order to consider the fundamental yet highly neglected place of athletic activities in literature and culture from the French speaking world
