Faces Of Change:

Faces of Change, 1976 To Remember the Faces of the Dead Thomas Maschio, 1994 As he challenges classical semiological accounts of cultural representation in this ethnography of Melanesian religious phenomenology Thomas Maschio shows that ritual and poetic performance are about the enactment expression and invention of the self Maschio demonstrates how such emotions as nostalgia anger sadness and grief are creatively transformed during the course of religious performance and expression into a form of cultural memory one that juxtaposes a pattern of cultural meaning with the emotional feeling of plenitude the Melanesian Rauto call makai Evoked during initiation mourning and agricultural rites and figuring prominently in Rauto discourse about the self makai joins personal memory to patterned sets of images and meanings that Westerners would call culture The Faces of Change Joan Jarvis Ellison, 2007-05 The Faces of Change is a nonfiction book about a small town in west central Minnesota that successfully survived a huge influx of refugees and other immigrants during the 1990 s The book is a collection of essays written from interviews with immigrants and the long term residents who worked with the immigrants It is the the amazing story of a small town that decided to welcome change and diversity rather than fight it The Faces of Change grew out of a photodocumentary exhibit produced by the Pelican Rapids Public Library Catalog of Copyright Entries.
