Homines, Funera, Astra 3-4: The Multiple Faces of Death and Burial Raluca Kogălniceanu, Mihai Gligor, Andrei Soficaru, Susan Stratton, 2023-07-27 Papers focus on two central topics regarding past funerary behaviour in Central and South Eastern Europe cremation and cause and time of death Six studies relate to prehistory from the Neolithic to Iron Age Three more papers focus on the Roman Age and the other four are dedicated to the Medieval period The Horror Film Stephen Prince, 2004-02-09 In this volume Stephen Prince has collected essays reviewing the history of the horror film and the psychological reasons for its persistent appeal as well as discussions of the developmental responses of young adult viewers and children to the genre The book focuses on recent postmodern examples such as The Blair Witch Project In a daring move the volume also examines Holocaust films in relation to horror Part One features essays on the silent and classical Hollywood eras Part Two covers the postWorld War II era and discusses the historical aesthetic and psychological characteristics of contemporary horror films In contrast to horror during the classical Hollywood period contemporary horror features more graphic and prolonged visualizations of disturbing and horrific imagery as well as other distinguishing characteristics Princes introduction provides an overview of the genre contextualizing the readings that follow Stephen Prince is professor of communications at Virginia Tech He has written many film books including Classical Film Violence Designing and Regulating Brutality in Hollywood Cinema 1930-1968 and has edited Screening Violence also in the Depth of Field Series The Faces of Forgiveness F. LeRon Shults, Steven J. Sandage, 2003-05-01 While forgiveness has historically been regarded as a religious concern it has also become a popular topic in contemporary psychology Unfortunately there has been little effort to combine a Christian understanding of forgiveness with psychology The Faces of Forgiveness winner of the Narramore Award from the Christian Association for Psychological Studies steps in to fill this void The authors fuse Christian forgiveness and psychology with the unifying motif of the face thereby building on the considerable psychological research linking emotions related to forgiveness with the human face At a deeper level the face can serve as a metaphor for integrating forgiveness wholeness and salvation The authors argue that forgiveness should take a central role in our understanding of salvation because it is warranted by the Bible and engages our postmodern context Pastors psychologists family counselors and students of psychology and theology will find The Faces of Forgiveness a helpful resource different angles and perspectives The Phenomenon of Death: Faces of Morality, 1973 Faces of Renewal Paul Elbert, 2007-02-05 Renewal has always been a concern of God's people. This present volume, a tribute to Pentecostal Bible scholar Stanley M. Horton, offers biblical and historical glimpses into the various facets of renewal throughout the history of the church. It further provides fresh insights into the outworkings of this renewal throughout the history of the church today. Essays examining the biblical themes of renewal include J. G. McConville's study of Renewal as Restoration in Jeremiah and J. Massyngherde Ford's inquiry into the Social and Political Implications of the Miraculous in Acts. Among the essays in Part 2, Historical Studies, Donald Dean Smeeton discusses how William Tyndale was a theologian of renewal. Church historian Richard Lovelace honors Professor Horton with an essay on Baptism in the Holy Spirit and the Evangelical Tradition. Part 3, Contemporary Studies, explores some of the effects of the modern charismatic renewal, including the appearance and growth of loving communities and the impact of renewal movements on society. These essays truly take a new tack towards understanding the various faces of spiritual renewal. They offer the specialist a challenge to see things in a new light while they afford the non-specialist some practical models of renewal that can affect how he or she views Christian experience. Overall, the editor and respective authors submit this anniversary volume to their colleague and friend Dr. Stanley M. Horton and to its readers everywhere with the hope that these sixteen studies may make a useful international contribution to scholarship and that Faces of Renewal may be found helpful to preachers, teachers, and students of God's Word. End of Life Communication Christine S. Davis, Jonathan L. Crane, 2019-08-19 This book examines the dialectic between fictional death as depicted in the media and real death as it is experienced in a hospital setting. Using a Terror Management theoretical lens, Davis and Crane explore the intersections of life and death experience and fiction to understand the relationship between them. The authors use complementary perspectives to examine what it means when we speak and think of death as it is conceived in cultural media and as it is constructed by and circulates between patients, health professionals, and supportive family members and friends. Layering analysis with evocative narrative and an intimate tone with characters, plot, and action that reflect the voices and experiences of all project participants, including the authors' own, Davis and Crane reflect on what it means to pass away. Their medical humanities approach bridges health communication, cultural studies, and the arts to inform medical ethics and care. Three Faces of Sun Tzu Scott Boorman, 2024-02-15 Sun Tzu's Art of War is widely regarded as the most influential military strategic classic of all time. Through reverse engineering of the text, structured around 14 Sun Tzu themes, this rigorous analysis furnishes a thorough picture of what the text actually says, drawing on Chinese language analyses, historical philological, archaeological sources, traditional commentaries, computational ideas, and strategic logistics perspectives. Building on this anchoring, the book provides a unique roadmap of Sun Tzu's military and intelligence insights and their applications to strategic competitions in many times and places worldwide, from Warring States China to contemporary US-China strategic competition and other 21st-century competitions involving cyber warfare computing other hi tech conflict espionage and more Simultaneously the analysis offers a window into Sun Tzu s limitations and blind spots relevant to managing 21st century strategic competitions with Sun Tzu inspired adversaries or rivals

Forms of Deformity Lynn Holden,1991-01-01 A vigorous imagination is the principal source for many of the abnormalities of fictional characters Many of the motifs also bear some relation to the rituals and religious symbols embraced by the people among whom they are or were at one time current Another important source can be found in symbolism of a religious or social kind This motif index is the first to present and analyse this material in biblical narrative and post biblical literature down to the twelfth century CE it lists all possible abnormalities deformities and disabilities arranged according to the parts of the body affected and the type of deformity sums up the narrative and gives the explicit or implicit reason for its appearance

The Many Faces of Osteoarthritis Vincent C. Hascall,Klaus E. Kuettner,2012-12-06 Osteoarthritis is the most common joint pathology which primarily affects the older population The disease is characterized by unique pathological changes in some synovial joints predominantly affecting the articular cartilage but also entire joints including the synovial tissue and subchondral bone The remarkable growth of research on normal and abnormal biology of tissues in the articulating joint including the application of novel molecular biological approaches and new imaging techniques is reflected in this volume It describes the current state of knowledge and helps to further understand the etiopathology of osteoarthritis hopefully leading to early detection of the disease and novel treatment modalities The volume contains contributions and discussions from a select group of investigators all experts in this field who met at the conference The Many Faces of Osteoarthritis held in June 2001 at Lake Tahoe to acknowledge Klaus E Kuettner and his contributions to osteoarthritis

Body Bag Religion Greg Williams,2008-06-19 Death The very thought of death haunts us When it comes knocking at our door we desperately try to avoid having to answer it When it enters in to our family everything changes forever Casket A reminder of THE END Once that lid is closed nothing on this side of heaven will ever be able to open it again Grave That one final destination that has only a one way ticket Once the last shovel of soil is thrown on the plot everything is over Every visit to the grave reopens the wounds that seem to never heal But wait What if I told you that the very book that is in your hand can reverse death eliminate the casket and shred that one way ticket to the grave This book can do just that Not in your physical death casket and grave but in your heart and spirit Author Greg Williams will take you on an adventure that describes the horror and tragedy of what is happening in so many Christian lives and churches The good news is that Williams also gives you the tools that you may need to experience a true life changing resurrection in your walk with the Lord Are you tired of tasting the spiritual embalming fluid on your lips during worship feeling the wax cold emotions of Bible study and a comatose prayer life Then this book is for you The next 21 days will change your life forever and help you eliminate what so many people have embraced Body Bag Religion
