Facing Eden Steven A. Nash, Bill Berkson, 1995-01-01 The San Francisco Bay Area boasts one of the richest and most continuous traditions of landscape art in the entire country Looking back over the past one hundred years the contributors to this in depth survey consider the diverse range of artists who have been influenced by the region's compelling union of water and land peaks and valleys and fog and sunlight Paintings sculpture graphic arts photography landscape architecture earthworks conceptual art and designs in city planning and architecture are all represented The diversity reflects not just the glories of nature but also an exploration of what constitutes landscape in its broadest most complete sense Among the more than two hundred works of art are those by well known artists and designers such as Bernard Maybeck Diego Rivera Dorothea Lange Ansel Adams Richard Diebenkorn Joan Brown Lawrence Halprin and Christo Lesser known artists are here as well resulting in an exceptional array of approaches to the natural environment The essays also explore key themes in the Bay Area's landscape art tradition including the ethnic perspectives that have played an essential role in the region's art The inexhaustible ability of the land to stimulate different personal meanings is made clear in this volume and the effect yields a deeper understanding of how art can shape our lives in ways both spiritual and practical how the landscape without constantly merges with the landscape within Published in association with The Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco The San Francisco Bay Area boasts one of the richest and most continuous traditions of landscape art in the entire country Looking back over the past one hundred years the contributors to this in depth survey consider the diverse range of artists who have been influenced by the region's compelling union of water and land peaks and valleys and fog and sunlight Paintings sculpture graphic arts photography landscape architecture earthworks conceptual art and designs in city planning and architecture are all represented The diversity reflects not just the glories of nature but also an exploration of what constitutes landscape in its broadest most complete sense Among the more than two hundred works of art are those by well known artists and designers such as Bernard Maybeck Diego Rivera Dorothea Lange Ansel Adams Richard Diebenkorn Joan Brown Lawrence Halprin and Christo Lesser known artists are here as well resulting in an exceptional array of approaches to the natural environment The essays also explore key themes in the Bay Area's landscape art tradition including the ethnic perspectives that have played an essential role in the region's art The inexhaustible ability of the land to stimulate different personal meanings is made clear in this volume and the effect yields a deeper understanding of how art can shape our lives in ways both spiritual and practical how the landscape without constantly merges with the landscape within Published in association with The Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco American Arcadia Peter J. Holliday, 2016-05-03 American Arcadia explores the innumerable ways Californians shaped their visual and social culture using models and ideals from the classical tradition Garrett Eckbo Marc Treib, Dorothee Imbert, 1997 The man and his work are given an appreciative investigation in Garrett Eckbo Modern Landscapes for Living a detailed and elegant study that features more than sixty of his projects many published here for the first time Marc Treib examines the aesthetic formation of Eckbo's manner and by implication the broader field of landscape architecture since the 1930s Dorothee Imbert writes of Eckbo's social vision noting his belief that ultimately landscape design is the arrangement of environments for people The book includes an afterword by Garrett Eckbo a memoir by photographer Julius Shulman a biographical and professional chronology and a bibliography of publications by and about the landscape architect and his contemporaries Artists and the Practice of Agriculture Silvia Bottinelli, 2023-07-31 Artists and the Practice of Agriculture maps out examples of artistic practices that engage with the aesthetics and politics of gathering food growing edible and medicinal plants and interacting with non human collaborators In the hands of contemporary artists farming and foraging become forms of visual and material language that convey personal and political meanings This book provides a critical analysis of artistic practices that model alternative food systems It presents rich academic insights as well as 16 conversations with practicing artists The volume addresses pressing issues such as the interconnectedness of human and other than human beings the weight of industrial agriculture the legacy of colonialism and the promise of place based and embodied pedagogies Through participatory projects the artists discussed here reflect on the links between past histories present challenges and future solutions for the food sovereignty of local and networked communities The book is an easy to navigate resource for readers interested in food studies visual and material cultures contemporary art ecocriticism and the environmental humanities David Park Nancy Boas, 2012-03-17 In this beautifully illustrated biography compiled from comprehensive and sweeping interviews Nancy Boas traces Parks resolute search for a new kind of figuration one that would penetrate abstract expressionism's thickly layered surfaces and infuse them with human presence Mike Henderson Sampada Aranke, Dan Nadel, 2023-01-29 A monograph of paintings and films by Mike Henderson accompanying the artist's major retrospective exhibition Mike Henderson Before the Fire 1965-1985 The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries The Art of Maynard Dixon, Made in California Stephanie Barron, Sheri Bernstein, Ilene Susan Fort, 2000 Unusually inclusive visually intriguing and beautifully produced Made in California will appeal to anyone who has lived in visited or imagined California Pop L.A. Cécile Whiting, 2008-08-04 In this original and engaging book Cécile Whiting examines what Pop looked like when it left the highbrow cloisters of Manhattan's art galleries and ventured westward to the sprawling suburbs of Los Angeles On the Edge of America Paul J. Karlstrom, 1996-01-01 The past quarter century has witnessed the emergence of a scholarly appreciation of American art in California Yet assessments of the early modern pre 1950 have been haphazard Now in one bold volume these scholars have remedied that deficiency Thanks to the rich essays of this wonderful book the art history of California and the nation is graced with further light Dr Kevin Starr State Librarian of California The authors of these essays illuminate a diverse and compelling history one in which what happened at the geographic edges sheds new light on the European points of original A lively and valuable contribution not just to regional history but to the making and transmission of modernism Whitney Chadwick Professor of Art History San Francisco State University A welcome and overdue evaluation of the distinctive history of modernism in California these essays sensitively explore a cultural terrain at once familiar and strange surveying memorable achievements from painting to photography to architecture and film The authors provocatively suggest the centrality of edges wherever they are found to the national tale and demonstrate it through significant developments on our western margin A must for any serious student of American art and culture Charles C Eldredge The University of Kansas An engrossing examination of modernist practices in California before the Abstract Expressionists and beatniks came to town It includes art scenes peopled by Mexican muralists European artists in exile third generation Californians idealist photographers and immigrant artisans Wanda Corn Professor of Art History Stanford University These fascinating essays do much more than fill a major gap in our understanding of American regionalism Their scope is superb because of the inclusive range of their definition of art the varied ethnicities of the artists discussed and the distinctive impact of environment light and culture on California art A dazzling treasure as pleasing to the eye as it is to the mind Michael Kammen Professor of History Cornell University The Life of Maynard Dixon Donald J. Hagerty, Maynard Dixon, 2010 Maynard Dixon embellished themes that encompassed the timeless truth of the majestic western landscape the humanity of its memorable people and the religious mysticism of the Native American In an attempt to uncover the spirit of the American West Dixon roamed its plains mesas and deserts drawing painting and expressing his creative personality in poems essays and letters Written in a very personal style this biography includes anecdotes from Dixon s children historical vignettes and interviews with those who knew the artist California Impressionists Susan Landauer, Georgia Museum of Art, Irvine Museum, Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games, 1996 The years around the turn of the century were a dynamic time in American art Different and seemingly contradictory movements were evolving and the dominant style that emerged during this period was Impressionism Based in part on the broken brushwork and high keyed palette of Claude Monet it was a form especially suited to the dramatic landscape and shimmering light of California This book celebrates forty Impressionist painters who worked in California from 1900 through the beginning of the Great Depression it includes widely recognized California artists such as Maurice Braun and Guy Rose less well known artists such as Mary DeNeale Morgan and Donna Schuster and eastern painters who worked briefly in the region such as Childe Hassam and William Merritt Chase The contributors essays examine the socioeconomic forces that shaped this art movement as well as the ways in which the art reflected California s self cultivated image as a healthful sun splashed arcadia Triptych, 1995 Annual Report National Endowment for the Arts, Reports for 1980 19 also include the Annual report of the National Council on the Arts The Unforgettables Charles C. Eldredge, 2022-11-01 Eminent art historian Charles C Eldredge brings together top scholars to celebrate forgotten artists and create a more inclusive history of American art Why do some artists become canonical while others equally respected in their time fall into obscurity This question is central to The Unforgettables a vibrant collection of essays by leading experts on American art Each contributor presents a brief for an artist deserving of new or renewed attention including artists from the colonial era to recent years working in a wide variety of mediums Histories of American art have traditionally highlighted the work of a familiar roster of artists largely white and male The achievements of their peers notably women and artists of color have gone uncelebrated The essays in this volume provide a new and richer understanding of American art expanding the canon to include many worthy talents A number of these artists were acclaimed in their day others having missed that acclaim may achieve it now With contributions from major scholars and museum professionals The Unforgettables rescues and revises reputations as it enhances and enriches the history of American art

Pictures of Belonging ShiPu Wang,2023-12-05 Pictures of Belonging showcases more than one hundred objects created by Miki Hayakawa Hisako Hibi and Min Okubo These trailblazing American women of Japanese descent part of the pre World War II generation of artists in California were committed to exploring art as a productive means of storytelling but their achievements are rarely recognized in the pages of American history The book puts the artists works in dialogue with one another for the first time creating new conversations on citizenship community and agency in the historical record during an era of exclusion for Japanese Americans in particular and Asian Americans as a whole

Golden Dreams Kevin Starr,2011-09-09 A narrative tour de force that combines wide ranging scholarship with captivating prose Kevin Starr s acclaimed multi volume Americans and the California Dream is an unparalleled work of cultural history In this new volume Starr covers the crucial postwar period 1950 to 1963 when the California we know today first burst into prominence In a powerful blend of telling events colorful personalities and insightful analyses he brilliantly illuminates the dominant economic social and cultural forces in California in these pivotal years

Drawing from Life Jennifer New,2005-06-02 There are a few among us who not merely keep a journal but who with drawings watercolours charts collages portraits in a host of other ways make their journal a work of art Jennifer New explores the private worlds of these journal keepers

The Public Realm Lyn H. Lofland,2017-07-12 This book is about the public realm defined as a particular kind of social territory that is found almost exclusively in large settlements This particular form of social psychological space comes into being whenever a piece of actual physical space is dominated by relationships between and among persons who are strangers to one another as often occurs in urban bars buses plazas parks coffee houses streets and so forth More specifically the book is about the social life that occurs in such social psychological spaces the normative patterns and principles that shape it the relationships that characterize it the aesthetic and interactional pleasures that enliven it and the forces anti urbanism privatism post war planning and architecture that threaten it The data upon which the book s analysis is based are diverse direct observation interviews contemporary photographs historic etchings prints and photographs and historical maps histories of specific urban public spaces or spatial types and the relevant scholarly literature from sociology environmental psychology geography history anthropology and architecture and urban planning and design Its central argument is that while the existing body of accomplished work in the social sciences can be reinterpreted to make it relevant to an understanding of the public realm this quintessential feature of city life deserves much more u it deserves to be the object of direct scholarly interest in its own right Choice noted that The author s writing style is unusually accessible and the often fascinating narrative is generously supported by well chosen photos
