Facing History The Black Image In American Art 1710194:

Facing History: the Black Image in American Art 1710-... Guy C. McElroy, 1996      Facing History , 1990      Facing History Guy C. McElroy, Henry Louis Gates, 1990 Traces realistic and racist images      Facing History ,      Facing History Christopher C. French, 1990      Creating Their Own Image Lisa E. Farrington, 2005 Creating Their Own Image marks the first comprehensive history of African American women artists from slavery to the present day Using an analysis of stereotypes of Africans and African Americans in western art and culture as a springboard Lisa E Farrington here richly details hundreds of important works many of which deliberately challenge these same identity myths of the carnal Jezebel the asexual Mammy the imperious Matriarch in crafting a portrait of artistic creativity unprecedented in its scope and ambition In these lavishly illustrated pages some of which feature images never before published we learn of the efforts of Elizabeth Keckley fashion designer to Mary Todd Lincoln the acclaimed sculptor Edmonia Lewis internationally renowned for her neoclassical works in marble and the artist Nancy Elizabeth Prophet and her innovative teaching techniques We meet Laura Wheeler Waring who portrayed women of color as members of a socially elite class in stark contrast to the prevalent images of compliant maids impoverished malcontents and exotics others that proliferated in the inter war period We read of the painter Barbara Jones Hugu s collaboration on the famed Wall of Respect even as we view a rare photograph of Hugu in the process of painting the mural Farrington expertly guides us through the fertile period of the Harlem Renaissance and the New Negro Movement which produced an entirely new crop of artists who consciously imbued their work with a social and political agenda and through the tumultuous explosive years of the civil rights movement Drawing on revealing interviews with numerous contemporary artists such as Betye Saar Faith Ringgold Nanette Carter Camille Billops Xenobia Bailey and many others the second half of Creating Their Own Image probes more recent stylistic developments such as abstraction conceptualism and post modernism never losing sight of the struggles and challenges that have consistently influenced this body of work Weaving together an expansive collection of artists styles and periods Farrington argues that for centuries African American women artists have created an alternative vision of how women of color can are and might be represented in American culture From utilitarian objects such as quilts and baskets to a wide array of fine arts Creating Their Own Image serves up compelling evidence of the fundamental human need to convey one s life one s emotions one s experiences on a canvas of one s own making      African-American Art Sharon F. Patton, 1998 Discusses African American folk art decorative art photography and fine arts      African-American Art Lisa E. Farrington, 2017 African American Art A Visual and Cultural History offers a current and comprehensive history that contextualizes black artists within the framework of American art as a whole The first chronological survey covering all art forms from colonial times to the present to publish in over a decade it explores issues of racial identity and representation in artistic expression while also emphasizing aesthetics and visual analysis to help students develop an understanding and appreciation of African American art that is informed but not entirely defined by racial identity Through a carefully selected collection of creative works and accompanying analyses the text also addresses crucial gaps in the scholarly literature incorporating women artists from the beginning and including coverage of photography crafts and architecture in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as well as twenty first century developments All in all African American Art A Visual and Cultural History offers a fresh and compelling look at the great variety of artistic expression found in the African American community Visit www.oup.com/us/farrington for additional support material including chapter outlines study questions links to artists sites and other resources to help students succeed
