Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta, 1959 Glaciers, Nature, Water, and Local Community in Mount Kenya
Kazuharu Mizuno, Yuya Otani, 2022-03-18 This book describes the challenges for the natural environments and local communities in the future Among the high mountains of Africa only Kilimanjaro Mount Kenya and the Rwenzori Mountains are still capped with glaciers The retreating rate of these glaciers has accelerated and they are expected to disappear in the near future In the area around Mount Kenya the precipitation is generally low such that rainfall cannot stably supply water for farmlands and daily life It has been revealed that the glacial meltwater has produced springs at the foot of the mountain It is therefore important to characterize the condition of water sources near Mount Kenya for use by local people This book discusses the relationships between the actual state of the climate and glacier shrinkage around Mount Kenya the surrounding vegetation soil and water environments and the lives of the foothill region inhabitants confronting the glacier shrinkage This book is valuable in the contemporary age when the assurance of a sustainable relationship between nature and mankind is critical Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta, 1962 Reclaiming Indigenous Knowledge Systems Kendi Borona, 2019-01-03 Conservation has over the last couple of decades coalesced around the language of community engagement Models that seemed to prop up conservation areas as those emptied of human presence are cracking under their own weight This book grounds our understanding of people forest relationships through the lens of Indigenous Knowledge Systems IKS in the Nyandarwa Aberdare forest reserve in Kenya home to the Agikuyu people It confronts the history of land dispossession in Kenya demonstrates that land continues to be a central pillar of Agikuyu indigenous environmental thought and cements the role of the forest in sustaining the struggle for independence It also shines a light on seed and food sovereignty as arenas of knowledge mobilization and self determination The book concludes by showing how IKS can contribute to forging sustainable people forest relationships The Public Face of African New Religious Movements in Diaspora Afe Adogame, 2016-02-24 The growing pace of international migration technological revolution in media and travel generate circumstances that provide opportunities for the mobility of African new religious movements ANRMs within Africa and beyond ANRMs are furthering their self assertion and self insertion into the religious landscapes of Europe the Americas and Asia Their growing presence and public visibility seem to be more robustly captured by the popular media than by scholars of NRMs historians of religion and social scientists a tendency that has probably shaped the public mental picture and understanding of the phenomena This book provides new theoretical and methodological insights for understanding and interpreting ANRMs and African derived religions in diaspora Contributors focus on individual groups and movements drawn from Christian Islamic Jewish and African derived religious movements and explore their provenance and patterns of emergence their belief systems and ritual practices their public civic roles group self definition public perceptions and responses tendencies towards integration segregation organisational networks gender orientations and the implications of interactions within and between the groups and with the host societies The book includes contributions from scholars and religious practitioners thus offering new insights into how ANRMs can be better defined approached and interpreted by scholars policy makers and media practitioners alike

Facing Mount Kenya Jomo Kenyatta,1938 Women Leaders of Africa, Asia, Middle East, and Pacific Guida M. Jackson,2009-08-20

Women Leaders of Africa Asia Middle East and Pacific presents biographical sketches of hundreds of women leaders from earliest recorded history down to the present time It is the first of two volumes giving data on women leaders from every continent and island in the world the second volume deals with Europe and countries of the Western Hemisphere Each book is divided into two sections Part I of this volume deals with African women leaders Part II with Asian Middle East and Pacific women Within each section which is introduced by an essay overview entries are arranged alphabetically Suggestions for further reading on the subject appear at the end of each entry Not all entries are merely recitations of facts Some womens lives do not lend themselves to being reduced to statistics Many were much too colorful or lusty or bloodthirsty to fit into a neat categorical description How do you easily characterize the rule of the African queen who hacked her servant to death after she was through using him as a chairjust to intimidate her new Portuguese overlord Who kept as many as thirty slaves as sexual partners supposedly killing them off when she had finished with them How do you gloss over the actions of the newly enthroned Persian queen who ordered her stepbrother strangled then had gold and silver coins struck bearing her new title Purity of the earthly world and of the faith How do you describe nicely the actions of the Chinese queen who chopped off her own hand to make a point to a man she had just condemned to death How do you ascribe feminine traits to a grandmother who tried to kill her own grandson to keep him from succeeding her on the throne she herself had stolen On the other hand how do you do justice to the Queen of Tonga without mention of her commanding sizesix feet two inchesor her forty seven year devotion to matters far beyond mere governance but of more importance to her subjects like establishing handicraft outlets to market the wares of her people Or to the Queen of Thailand who acted as Regent while the King a devout Buddhist performed his meditations and duties as a monk She directed much more than affairs of state her concern for the common people led her to promote the export of hand woven Thai silk and to establish a chain of shops selling native crafts She also organized the Thai Red Cross for aid to refugees orphans wounded soldiers and flood victims These and dozens of stories like them make African Asian Middle East and Pacific Women Leaders a unique treasure that is hard to put down Although most of the entries in this volume deal with women rulers a portion of the book is devoted to women in leadership roles other than those of queen empress prime minister or chieftainess Of these additional entries the majority deals with contemporary women judges secretaries of state cabinet members or legislators of unusual influence and power

Feasting on History James De Lorenzi,2025-07-15

During the brutal Italian occupation of Ethiopia 1936 1941 the country descended into endless counterinsurgency and mass violence which specifically targeted local intellectuals with the sanction of Italy s leading experts Yet these atrocities followed decades of dialogue between Ethiopian and Italian researchers and in the postcolonial era their successors continued to debate Ethiopia's past and future as survivors and perpetrators. This historical reckoning unfolded against the backdrop of Third World liberation, disputed colonial guilt, and the search for postcolonial justice. Feasting on History is a wide-ranging intellectual history of the Italian-Ethiopian relationship told through the intertwined lives of Heruy Wold Sellas, an Ethiopian writer and civil servant, and Enrico Cerulli, an Italian Orientalist and colonial official. It takes place on the battlefields and detention sites of fascist empire within the evolving institutions of the international system and throughout the interlinked intellectual worlds of Europe, Africa, and the African diaspora. James De Lorenzi documents the violence perpetrated by experts across these spaces as well as the pioneering Ethiopian effort to address the crimes of empire through international law. He also explores a distinctive European tradition of Africa-focused Orientalism and its critical reception by Ethiopian, African, and Black American scholars, reconstructing a bold multilingual commentary on colonial knowledge, self-determination, and the global color line. Challenging conventional narratives of African and European intellectual history, Feasting on History vividly illuminates the links among weaponized research, colonial trauma, and the modern international order.

Zimbabwe Dance Kariamu Welsh-Asante, 2000. Kariamu Welsh-Asante examines and celebrates the ethnic diversity of Zimbabwe and the survival and endurance of the Zimbabwean national character. She emphasises how the former colonial power had proscribed indigenous cultures.

Gender and Authority across Disciplines, Space and Time Adele Bardazzi, Alberica Bazzoni, 2020-09-07. This edited collection investigates the relationship between gender and authority across geographical contexts, periods, and fields. Who is recognized as a legitimate voice in debate and decision-making, and how is that legitimization produced? Through a variety of methodological approaches, the chapters address some of the most pressing and controversial themes under scrutiny in current feminist scholarship and activism, such as pornography, political representation, LGBTI struggles, female genital mutilation, the MeToo movement, abortion, divorce, and consent. Organized into three sections: Politics, Law, and Religion; and Imaginaries, the contributors highlight formal and informal aspects of authority, its gendered and racialized configurations, and practices of solidarity, resistance, and subversion by traditionally disempowered subjects. In dialogue with feminist scholarship on power and agency, the notion of authority as elaborated here offers a distinctive lens to critique political and epistemic foundations of inequality and oppression, and will be of use to scholars and students across gender studies, sociology, politics, linguistics, theology, history, law, film, and literature.

Equality in Kenya's 2010 Constitution Victoria Miyandazi, 2021-02-25. This book makes a significant contribution to the ongoing global conversations on the various understandings of equality. It illuminates the many ways in which diverse equality guarantees clash or are interrelated. It also sets out principled approaches on how they can be coherently interpreted to address the myriad inequalities in Kenya. Taking a comparative approach, the book considers how other jurisdictions, including the United States, United Kingdom, Canada, South Africa, India, and Botswana, have approached the conceptualisation interpretation and application of various equality concepts The book focuses on important issues such as transformative constitutionalism in relation to the interpretation of Kenya's 2010 Constitution expanding the list of enumerated grounds for non discrimination affirmative action accommodating religious and cultural diversity versus gender equality the interrelation between socio economic rights and status based equality
