

The background of the slide is a purple-tinted image of a pair of glasses resting on a document. The document has the word 'DECLARATION' printed on it in large, bold, capital letters. Below 'DECLARATION', there is smaller text that reads 'TO WIT: TO THE NATURAL DEATH ACT OR CAUSE'. The glasses are positioned in the center of the frame, with the title 'FACING THE AGE WAVE' overlaid on top of them in a white, serif font.

une certitude que certaines vagues outrepassent en hauteur et en cambrure les prédictions fondées sur les modèles courants. L'amélioration de la compréhension des raisons des mécanismes et des circonstances de leur apparition se doit donc d'être une priorité de recherche. Le colloque Rogue Waves 2000 a rassemblé un grand nombre de scientifiques et ingénieurs actifs sur le sujet qui y ont trouvé l'occasion de confronter et discuter leurs avancées les plus récentes en termes de définition de statistiques de modélisation et de prédiction de ces vagues anormales. Mots clés : vagues extrêmes, non linéaires, vagues anormales, vagues scilicet.

Response of Structures to Aircraft Generated Shock Waves, 1959
Young People, Media and Politics in the Digital Age Vera Slavtcheva-Petkova, 2023-10-27 The book explores the relationship among young people, politics and the media. It presents a novel multidimensional analytical framework, The Circle Line Media Model, which accounts for the importance of a range of processes, actors and social structures in the political socialisation process. By defining political socialisation as a lifelong interactive process that develops civic cultures, collective identities and citizenship underpinned by social structures, nationality and generational order, the author draws attention to its manifestation in acts of political participation and interactions with authoritative actors such as school teachers, family, the media and friends/peers. The volume's longitudinal study on young people in Europe and the media, spanning 13 years of research in two very different countries, also makes recommendations for more effectively engaging young people with politics and political media based on Generation Z's own views about current deficiencies in their relationship with news media. Shedding new light on the changing nature of young people's engagement with politics, this book will be of interest to researchers, lecturers, professors and upper-level undergraduate and postgraduate students in the fields of media studies, communication and journalism studies, as well as politics and sociology.

The Routledge Handbook of LGBTQIA Administration and Policy Wallace Swan, 2018-10-26 The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, Asexual and Allies community, abbreviated LGBTQIA or LGBT, is responding to a radically changed social and political environment. While a host of books have analyzed legal dimensions of LGBT public policy, this authoritative Routledge handbook is the first to utilize up to the minute empirical data to examine and unpick the corrosive post-factual changes undermining LGBT public policy development. Taking an innovative look at a wide range of social and policy issues of broad interest, including homelessness, transgender rights, healthcare, immigration, substance abuse, caring for senior members of the community, sexual education, resilience and international policy, through contributions from established scholars and rising stars, this comprehensive and cutting-edge volume will be a landmark reference work on LGBT administration and policy for decades to come.

The Hidden Faces of Courage

Peter C. Wilcox, 2019-01-16 Mother Teresa said to have courage for whatever comes in life everything lies in that When people think about courage they often think about those who put their lives on the line for us every day like first responders firefighters or police officers But there are so many others who quietly endure with steadfast courage whatever comes their way in life These people are like the anawhim in the Old Testament the good kind people whom very few know about but who trust in the Lord He is their strength It is because of their faith in him that they live their lives with courage to face whatever comes their way In over thirty years as a psychotherapist and spiritual director Wilcox has often been amazed at the strength and courage of so many of his clients Some have faced physical disabilities others struggle with mental emotional or psychological problems still others with personal family or career issues These people are what he calls the hidden faces of courage Often they are not well known They certainly receive no notoriety or press Yet they are always there doing the best they can each day This book is an invitation to understand and appreciate the unnoticed courage and strength of ordinary people If we can walk in their shoes it will help us to be courageous for whatever comes to us in life

The Age of New

Waves James Tweedie, 2013-09-02 The Age of New Waves examines the origins of the concept of the new wave in 1950s France and the proliferation of new waves in world cinema over the past three decades. The book suggests that youth cities and the construction of a global market have been the catalysts for the cinematic new waves of the past half century. It begins by describing the enthusiastic engagement between French nouvelle vague filmmakers and a globalizing American cinema and culture during the modernization of France after World War II. It then charts the growing and ultimately explosive disenchantment with the aftermath of that massive social, economic, and spatial transformation in the late 1960s. Subsequent chapters focus on films and visual culture from Taiwan and contemporary mainland China during the 1980s and 1990s, and they link the recent propagation of new waves on the international film festival circuit to the economic miracles and consumer revolutions accompanying the process of globalization. While it travels from France to East Asia, the book follows the transnational movement of a particular model of cinema organized around mise en scène or the interaction of bodies, objects, and spaces within the frame rather than montage or narrative. The master shot style of directors like Hou Hsiao Hsien, Tsai Ming Liang, and Jia Zhangke has reinvented a crucial but overlooked tendency in new wave film, and this cinema of mise en scène has become a key aesthetic strategy for representing the changing relationships between people and the material world during the rise of a global market. The final chapter considers the interaction between two of the most global phenomena in recent film history: the transnational art cinema and Hollywood, and it searches for traces of an American New Wave.
