Facing The Congo:

Facing the Congo Jeffrey Tayler, 2001-10-09 Faced with an identity crisis in his work and his life seasoned traveler and journalist Jeffrey Tayler made a bold decision He would leave behind his mundane existence in Moscow to re create the legendary British explorer Henry Stanley s trip down the Congo in a dugout canoe stocked with food medicine and even a gun toting guide But once his tiny boat pushed off the banks of this mysterious river Tayler realized he was in a place where maps and supplies would have no bearing on his survival As Tayler navigates this immense waterway he encounters a land of smothering heat and intense rains wary villagers corrupt officials and dead eyed soldiers demanding bribes jungle animals mosquitoes and surprisingly breathtaking natural beauty Filled with honesty and rich description Facing the Congo is a sophisticated depiction of today s Democratic Republic of the Congo a country brought to its knees by a succession of despotic leaders But most important Tayler s stunning narrative is a deeply satisfying personal journey of fear and awakening with a message that will resonate with anyone who has ever felt compelled whether in life or in fantasy to truly explore and experience our world

Facing the Congo Hb Book Club Jeffrey Tayler, 2001-04-18 Dances with Devils Jacques Pauw, 2011-02-28 For more than a decade Jacques Pauw has traversed his native continent in pursuit of warlords and drug traffickers child soldiers and charlatans adventure and anarchy What he found was a rich array of personalities and a panoply of stories ranging from the profoundly tragic to the intensely personal Pauw s stories range from South Africa to Rwanda from Sierra Leone and the Sudan to Mozambique Readers are taken behind the scenes of sensational news reports with compassion humour and occasional cynicism and emerge in the knowledge that even if it s true that there is nothing new out of Africa the writer has found fresh ways to present time honoured tales of love life misery and mortality

Going Places Robert Burgin, 2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader s Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing

Colonial and Postcolonial Rewritings of "Heart of Darkness" Regelin Farn, 2005 Joseph Conrad s novella Heart of Darkness 1899 is taught and read all over the world Everywhere novelists and travel writers respond to it in their own creative work I discuss 30 responses or rewritings from Africa India the Caribbean Australia

Europe and the US Their perspectives include those of groups who identify with Conrad s Europeans and groups who feel close to his Africans and increasingly those of groups who situate themselves between these two extremes in various ways I identify world wide developments as well as themes strategies and paradigm shifts that correlate with different geopolitical situations Rewriters address the contribution Conrad has made to the identities of his very different readers and the patterns he has suggested for encounters In ever more intense dialogues people from all backgrounds work through images of themselves and of each other However like Conrad s narrator they also become aware of limits of language and communication Rewriters act as rereaders of the many layers of meaning in Heart of Darkness and thus imply that the reader s experience is as important as the author s This approach is increasingly developing into a use of discourse analytical methods in non theoretical texts Rewritings can bring Heart of Darkness close to the readers lives Rewriters champion processes of highly personal learning and unlearning as well as political and social approaches and can thus help readers rework their own cultural backgrounds Accordingly I both use close reading methods and take into account political and didactic intentions In conclusion I recommend reading Heart of Darkness together with one or more of its rewritings and outline some ideas for teaching such combinations After comprehensive introductions to Heart of Darkness and to the theory of rewritings I discuss works by the following authors in a convenient handbook format Ford Madox Ford Hueffer Leonard Woolf W Somerset Maugham Andre Gide Louis Ferdinand Celine Graham Greene Charlotte Jay Patrick White Chinua Achebe Wilson Harris Ngugi wa Thiong o Tayeb Salih Arun Joshi J M Coetzee V S Naipaul Robert Silverberg Caryl Phillips David Dabydeen Marlene NourbeSe Philip David Malouf Mineke Schipper Abdulrazak Gurnah Urs Widmer Redmond O Hanlon Arundhati Roy Barbara Kingsolver and Jeffrey Tayler

African Dept., 2014-09-04 KEY ISSUES Economic context Growth has been strong inflation low and fiscal buffers and international reserves adequate However poverty and unemployment remain high despite large government spending financed from oil revenue The business climate is among the most challenging and the private credit to GDP ratio among the lowest in sub Saharan Africa SSA Outlook and Risks The economy is projected to expand by about 6 percent per annum between 2014 and 2019 as new oil fields come on stream and an ambitious public investment program is implemented to diversify the economy and make growth more inclusive Oil production is expected to peak in 2017 The medium term outlook for non oil growth and poverty reduction hinges on progress addressing deep seated structural weaknesses and fiscal adjustment Risks to the outlook relate to oil price volatility and political instability Policies Macroeconomic policies should focus on meeting the economy's social and development needs while mitigating risks to macroeconomic stability in the longer term The growth of government spending should be arrested and the 2014 budget should not be exceeded Amid spending pressures related to the 2015 Africa Games and the 2016 presidential elections new fiscal developments should be reflected in a supplementary budget in 2014 to enhance transparency In view of the limited remaining lifetime of oil reserves a gradual fiscal consolidation should be targeted over the medium term to safeguard fiscal and debt sustainability Ongoing efforts to address implementation and absorptive capacity constraints need to be stepped up to maximize the benefits from public investments Consideration should be given to adopt the non oil primary balance as the fiscal anchor The private sector's supply response to public infrastructure spending should be maximized through implementation of reforms to improve the business climate support private investment and develop the financial sector The pilot project for cash transfers should be well targeted and monitored to reduce poverty Compliance with reserves pooling requirements would insure the continued smooth operation of the BEAC and the exchange rate peg which both continue to serve the Republic of Congo well INN-Reach training: Facing the Congo Jeffrey Tayler, The Book of Rural Life, Teachers Manual, 1927 Travel Writing and Re-Enactment Lucas Tromly, 2023-09-07 Travel Writing and Re Enactment Echotourism explores the popular subgenre of travel narratives that re enact historically prominent journeys Drawing on philosopher Walter Benjamin this monograph reads such re enactments as quests for aura in which travellers seek to capture a sense of distinction and historical profundity Travel Writing and Re Enactment frames the re enactment of past journeys in a number of contexts including Benjamin's writing on mechanical reproduction Judith Butler's work on gender performance and postmodern parody Echotourist journeys are surprisingly contingent and precarious and force travellers to navigate historical changes involving empire gender and travel practice in densely performative ways Through close readings of contemporary travel narratives this monograph considers the legacies of Lord Byron Charles Darwin Graham Greene Mary Kingsley and Ernest Shackleton among others Travel Writing and Re Enactment examines the way literary re enactment expresses and sometimes confounds the desire to find meaning through travel in the contemporary world American Foreign Policy, Current Documents, 1960 Department of Homeland Security Appropriations for 2010 United States.
