Anthony H. Cordesman

Facing The Powers What Are The Options:

European Security in the Twenty-First Century Adrian Hyde-Price, 2007-02-12 Combining a sophisticated theoretical analysis with detailed empirical case studies this book provides an original view of the challenges and threats to a stable peace order in Europe The end of Cold War bipolarity has transformed Europe Using structural realist theory Adrian Hyde Price analyzes the new security agenda confronting Europe in the twenty first century Europe he argues is not primed for peace as mainstream thinking suggests rather it faces new security threats and the challenge of multipolarity This critical and original volume looks at European security after the Iraq War the failure of the EU constitution and the change of government in Germany Reflecting on the inherently competitive and tragic nature of international politics it concludes that realism provides the only firm foundations for an ethical foreign and security policy European Security in the Twenty First Century will appeal to students and scholars of international relations European politics and security studies With Option to Die Richard Lockridge, 2018-05-15 Inspector Heimrich gets embroiled in a small town conspiracy in this mystery from the coauthor of the excellent Mr and Mrs North series The New Yorker Inspector M L Heimrich of the New York State Police may not have the flash of hard boiled city detectives but there s no lead the intrepid investigator won t follow until his every hunch is satisfied Tensions have been rising in the conservative community of North Wellwood New York ever since African American lawyer Thomas Peters moved to town with a plan to open a desegregated country club Those in opposition are determined to see Mr Peters s plan fail at all costs going so far as to harass liberal newcomers like Eric and Ann Martin and commit vile acts against those who dare to support equality like widow Faith Powers Called in to investigate Mrs Powers s shocking murder recently promoted Inspector Heimrich soon finds himself caught in the storm that has taken over North Wellwood Now if he wants to see justice served he ll have to make it out of a hate fueled powder keg that s ready to explode With Option to Die is the 18th book in the Captain Heimrich Mysteries but you may enjoy reading the series in any order

Issues and options in flood hazards management. , De-Facing Power Clarissa Rile Hayward, 2000-09-14 A sophisticated new view of power as a network of social boundaries Aspirational Power David R. Mares, Harold A. Trinkunas, 2016-06-28 Brazil s soft power path to major power status The largest country in South America by land mass and population Brazil has been marked since its independence by a belief that it has the potential to play a major role on the global stage Set apart from the rest of the hemisphere by culture language and history Brazil has also been viewed by its neighbors as a potential great power and at times a threat But even though domestic aspirations and foreign perceptions have held out the prospect for Brazil becoming a major power the country has lacked the capabilities particularly on the military and economic dimensions to pursue a traditional path to greatness Aspirational Power examines Brazil as an emerging power It explains Brazil s present emphasis on using soft power through a historical analysis of Brazil s three past attempts to achieve major power status Though these efforts have fallen short this book suggests that Brazil will continue to try to emerge but that it will only succeed when its domestic institutions provide a solid and attractive foundation for the deployment of its soft power abroad Aspirational Power concludes with concrete recommendations for how Brazil might improve its strategy and why the great powers including the United States should respond positively to Brazil's emergence

In the Days of Caesar Amos Yong, 2010-09-14 In the Days of Caesar is a constructive political theology formulated in sustained dialogue with the Pentecostal and charismatic renewal one of the most vibrant religious movements at the beginning of the twenty first century Amos Yong here argues that the many tongues practices and gifts of renewal Christianity offer up new resources for thinking about how Christian community can engage and transform the social political and economic structures of the world Yong has three goals here First he seeks to correct stereotypes of Pentecostalism both political and theological Secondly he aims to provoke Pentecostals to reflect theologically from out of the depths of their own Pentecostalism rather than merely to adopt some framework for theological or political self understanding Finally Yong shows that a distinctively Pentecostal form of theological reflection is not a parochial activity but has constructive potential to illuminate Christian belief and practice This book's engagement with political theology from a Pentecostal perspective is the first of its kind Losing a million minds : confronting the tragedy of Alzheimer's disease and other dementias.

, 1987 Twilight of the Titans Paul K. MacDonald, Joseph M. Parent, 2018-04-15 In Twilight of the Titans Paul K MacDonald and Joseph M Parent examine great power transitions since 1870 to determine how declining powers choose to behave identifying the strong incentives to moderate their behavior when the hierarchy of great powers is shifting Challenging the conventional wisdom that such transitions push declining great powers to extreme measures this book argues that intimidation provocation and preventive war are not the only alternatives to the loss of relative power and prestige Using numerous case studies MacDonald and Parent show how declining states tend to behave the policy options they have how rising states respond to those in decline and what conditions reward particular strategic choices The Four Faces of

All the Year Round ,1873 Italy's Foreign Policy in the Twenty-First Century Bertjan Verbeek,Giampiero Giacomello,2011-11-16 Italy s Foreign Policy in the Twenty First Century The New Assertiveness of an Aspiring Middle Power edited by Giampiero Giacomello and Bertjan Verbeek shows how changes in Italy s international and domestic environment since the early 1990s have affected Italy s foreign policy and raised its aspiration to become and be treated as a middle power The contributors theoretically engage with both rationalist and constructivist accounts of middle power behavior They reveal that the end of the Cold War the advent of globalization and the increase in institutionalized regional cooperation have increased Italy s freedom to maneuver by reducing its dependence on the United States while simultaneously causing Italy s policy freedom to decrease as a result of delegation of policy competencies to the EU and the need for cooperation in a globalized world Domestic changes notably the transition from the First to the Second Republic and the transformation of political leadership in Italy under Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi have altered the specific way domestic politics is played out in foreign policy Rather than adopting the more common focus on Italy s bilateral relations with other counties or regions Italy s Foreign Policy in the Twenty First Century centers on actors issues and policy instruments in vital areas of Italy s foreign In addition it discusses the search for Italy s position in global affairs and emphasizes the importance of leadership styles domestic political agendas and party rhetoric in determining Italy s foreign policy As Giacomello and Verbeek s volume demonstrates being consistent with such strategic prescription has always been a problematic undertaking for various Italian governments

Specialists from Ireland, the United Kingdom, Sweden, the Netherlands, Germany, France, Spain, Italy, and Greece analyse the development of threat perceptions concerning terrorism and counter-terrorist policy making in their respective countries.
