Facing Death Stories Of Spiritual Response To Serious Illness:

Facing Death John H. Chapman, 1998 Real life courageous stories of patients their families and medical professionals confronting serious and terminal illnesses Caring for the Sick and Elderly Marie Roccapiore, 2003 This book highlights the various ways pastoral care ministers and parish volunteers can reach out to the sick and elderly There are a wealth of ideas here for extending spiritual sacramental and charitable support to parishioners who are homebound in nursing homes or in hospitals For many years Sr Marie Roccapiore has been involved with a parish program called Project H E A L Homebound are Encouraged through Assistance in Love The details of this program are provided in this book along with forms and other reproducible information that will be useful in developing this type of program in your own parish Also included is an extensive listing of resources that are invaluable for ministry with the sick and elderly The creative ideas offered will motivate more involvement among children as well as adults and bring positive results among the sick and elderly recipients who eagerly look forward to the compassionate and loving care of others Personal examples and anecdotes help illustrate the ways that even the simplest gestures of care and concern can make a world of difference in the lives of the infirm Embracing Life & Facing Death Daniel S. Brenner, 2002 Religious and Spiritual Issues in Psychiatric Diagnosis John R. Peteet, Francis G. Lu, William E. Narrow, 2011 Religious and Spiritual Issues in Psychiatric Diagnosis A Research Agenda for DSM V gathers for the first time the collective contributions of the prominent clinicians and researchers who participated in the 2006 Corresponding Committee on Religion Spirituality and Psychiatry of the American Psychiatric Association Facing Death: Images, Insights, and Interventions Sandra L. Bertman, 2016-01-08 Facing Death is a unique handbook for educators healthcare professionals and counselors It uses materials from the visual arts excerpts from poetry fiction drama and examples from popular culture to sensitize the reader to important universal issues confronting the dying and those responsible for their care Death, Dying and Bereavement Sharon Mallon, Laura Towers, 2024-11-28 While death dying and bereavement are universal life events the social conditions under which death takes place are fundamental in shaping how it is experienced by the individual Bringing together contributors from around the world this collection of chapters provides sociological insights into death dying and bereavement Drawing upon a range of sociological theorists including mile Durkheim Zygmunt Bauman and C Wright Mills the book reviews the historical contribution of sociology to the field of thanatology In doing so the book challenges individualistic psychological approaches to death dying and bereavement and demonstrates how sociological approaches can shape constrain and empower experiences by imbuing them with both collective and individual meaning Chapter length case studies explore a wide range of issues from digital aspects of remembrance and memorialisation and continued threats to liberties that permit life and death decisions to discussions of the impact and likely legacy of COVID 19 and climate change This collection will be of interest to students and researchers in the social sciences with an interest in societal attitudes towards death and bereavement Chapter 6 of this book is freely

Facing Death Sandra L. Bertman, 1991 This work draws upon material from the visual arts poetry fiction drama and pop culture to help lead the reader to a heightened awareness of the universal nature of the issues that face the dying and those who care for them The author argues

Handbook of Thanatology David K. Meagher, David E. Balk, 2013-07-18 If ever there was an area requiring that the research practice gap be bridged surely it occurs where thanatologists engage with people dealing with human mortality and loss The field of thanatology the study of death and dying is a complex multidisciplinary area that encompasses the range of human experiences emotions expectations and realities The Handbook of Thanatology is the most authoritative volume in the field providing a single source of up to date scholarship research and practice implications The handbook is the recommended resource for preparation for the prestigious certificate in thanatology CT and fellow in thanatology FT credentials which are administered and granted by ADEC

The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Social Work Terry Altiglio, Shirley Otis-Green, John G. Cagle, 2022 It is so important to advocate for things that may not always seem possible Getting to work with patients families at the end of their life is the ultimate honor Lauren G Markham MSW LCSW APHSW C In this work one witnesses both depths of human suffering and heights of human transcendence that can inspire both awe and fear At those times I have found that surrendering my need to be an expert and instead allow myself to simply be a human is the wisest action Kerry Irish LCSW OSW C FAOSW

Making Sense of Death Gerry Cox, Robert Bendiksen, Robert Stevenson, 2021-11-18 The editors of Making Sense of Death Spiritual Pastoral and Personal Aspects of Death Dying and Bereavement provide stimulating discussions as they ponder the meaning of life and death This anthology explores the process of meaning making in the face of death and the roles of religion and spirituality at times of loss the profound and devastating experience of loss in the death of a spouse or a child a psychological model of spirituality the dimensions of spirituality humor in client caregiver relationships the worldview of modernity in contrast to postmodern assumptions the Buddhist perspective of death dying and pastoral care meaning making in the virtual reality of cyberspace individualism and death and the historical context of Native Americans the concept of disenfranchised grief and its detailed application to the Native American experience It also explores a qualitative survey on the impact of the shooting deaths of students in Colorado a team approach with physicians nursing social services and pastoral care a study of health care professionals comparing clergy with other health professionals marginality in spiritual and pastoral care for the dying a qualitative research study of registered nurses in the northeast United States and loss and growth in the seasons of life

Understanding Children's Spirituality Kevin E. Lawson, 2012-03-22 How important is childhood in the spiritual formation of a person How do children experience God in the context of their lives as they grow What does God do in the lives of children to draw them to himself and help them grow into a vital relationship with him How can adults who care about children better support their spiritual growth and direct it toward relationship with God through Jesus Christ These are critical questions that church leaders face as they consider how best to nurture the faith of the children God brings into our lives In this book over two dozen Christian scholars and ministry leaders explore important issues about the spiritual life of children and ways parents church leaders and others who care about children can promote their spiritual formation Care of the Child Facing Death Lindy Burton,2022-05-24

Originally published in 1974 and written by paediatricians social workers nurses and a parent who cared for her dying child this book is concerned with pinpointing the problems which exist for parents and those involved in the care of sick children both in terms of accepting the facts of a child s illness and in loving supporting and giving them maximum enjoyment within the limits of their condition The fears and anxieties of such children are examined separation from parents fear of pain an increasing sense of difference and in some cases a very real appreciation of their situation All these limit the child s happiness and ways of counteracting them are suggested Similarly the distress of parents and of medical advisers is discussed Principles and Practice of Palliative Care and Supportive Oncology Ann M. Berger,John L. Shuster,Jamie H.

Von Roenn,2007 The first truly interdisciplinary book on supportive oncology and palliative care returns with a new edition that serves as a practical guide to the management of the myriad symptoms and quality of life issues that occur in patients with cancer including newly diagnosed patients patients undergoing treatment cancer survivors and patients whose disease is no longer curable The interdisciplinary group of contributors includes leading experts in hospice care and palliative medicine oncology nursing neurology psychiatry anesthesiology and pharmacology This completely revised edition features new chapters on caregiver stress hepatic failure pulmonary failure research issues in palliative care and beginning a palliative care program Content has been aligned with the needs of today s palliative care fellowship programs and includes additional tables algorithms and flow charts Oxford Textbook of Spirituality in Healthcare Mark Cobb,Christina M

Puchalski,Bruce Rumbold,2012-08-09 Spirituality and healthcare is an emerging field of research practice and policy Healthcare organisations and practitioners are therefore challenged to understand and address spirituality to develop their knowledge and implement effective policy This is the first reference text on the subject providing a comprehensive overview of key topics The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,1999 Breaking Open the Word of God Karen M.

Hinman,1987 Resources for weekly RCIA meetings using the lectionary readings from Cycle B Religion, Death, and Dying Lucy Bregman,2009-11-25 A wide ranging anthology for general readers covering many religious ethical and spiritual aspects of death dying and bereavement in American society What do various spiritual and ethical belief systems have to say about modern medicine s approach to the end of life Do all major religions characterize the afterlife in similar ways How do funeral rites and rituals vary across different faiths Now there is one resource that gathers leading scholars to address these questions and more about the many religious ethical and spiritual aspects of death dying and bereavement in America Religion Death and Dying compares and contrasts the ways different faiths and ethical schools contemplate the end of life

The work is organized into three thematic volumes first an examination of the contemporary medicalized death from the perspective of different religious traditions and the professions involved second an exploration of complex often controversial issues including the death of children AIDS capital punishment and war and finally a survey of the funeral and bereavement rituals that have evolved under various religions When Professionals Weep Renee S. Katz, Therese A.

Johnson, 2016-01-22 When Professionals Weep speaks to the humbling and often transformational moments that clinicians experience in their careers as caregivers and healers moments when it is often hard to separate the influence of our own emotional responses and worldviews from the patient's or family's When Professionals Weep addresses these poignant moments when the professional's personal experiences with trauma illness death and loss can subtly often stealthily surface and affect the helping process This edition like the first both validates clinicians' experiences and also helps them process and productively address compassion fatigue burnout and secondary traumatic stress New material in the second edition includes increased emphasis on the burgeoning fields of hospice and palliative care organizational countertransference mindfulness and compassionate practice It includes thought provoking cases self assessments and exercises that can be used on an individual dyadic or group basis This volume is an invaluable handbook for practitioners in the fields of medicine mental health social work nursing chaplaincy the allied health sciences psychology and psychiatry Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing Betty R. Ferrell, Nessa Coyle, Judith A. Paice, 2015 The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing is the definitive text on nursing care of the seriously ill and dying It is a comprehensive work addressing all aspects of palliative care including physical psychological social and spiritual needs The text is written by leaders in the field and includes an impressive section on international palliative care Each chapter includes case examples and a strong evidence base to support the highest quality of care The book is rich with tables and figures offering practical resources for clinical practice across all settings of care and encompassing all ages from pediatrics to geriatrics Eldercare For Dummies Rachelle

Zukerman, 2011-03-10 Cope with legal financial and medical issues Minimize anxiety and stress and make the later years golden Need help caring for an elderly loved one This sensitive reassuring guide provides strategies for assessing older persons' needs arranging for care ensuring their safety and enhancing quality of life all while respecting their dignity You'll see how to manage physical disabilities and chronic health problems evaluate nursing homes and help elders control their destinies The Dummies Way Explanations in plain English Get in get out information Icons and other navigational aids Tear out cheat sheet Top ten lists A dash of humor and fun
