Facing Reality A Tool For Congregational Mission Assessment:

Facing Reality Thomas G. Bandy, 2001 A congregation can transform itself and thrive in the 21st Century if the congregation is willing to undertake a transformation of the whole flow of congregational life In order to help churches meet this challenge Bandy has developed the Congregational Mission Assessment a powerful and comprehensive tool designed to aid even the smallest congregation in discovering a healthier future Key Features Provides practical easy to understand assessment tools Provides self assessment worksheets for clergy staff and lay leaders Provides surveys to gauge demographic trends in a congregation s area Key Benefits Allows even the smallest congregation to assess their strengths and weaknesses and discern the path to transformation Helps congregations discern the vitality of all major areas of their corporate lives including spirituality and service Narrative Research in Ministry Carl E. Savage, Dr William Presnell, 2008 We are in a real sense our stories Who we are what we think and how we act are all shaped by the many large and small stories that make up the discourse embedded in our multi sensory social experience It is this postmodern understanding of identity and reality that has prompted the authors to fashion a new way of thinking about doing research in faith communities today particularly through a Doctor of Ministry program It is our belief that in order for faith communities to define themselves and to know what to do in ministry they must first understand the multiple stories which intersect with a given ministry situation in their specific context Transitional Ministry Molly Dale Smith, 2009-06 Transition is the word we use to describe the time following significant change In congregations that change might be the departure of the pastor a catastrophe such as Hurricane Katrina or 9 11 or simply the changes caused by growth Transition calls for clergy with special training to respond to the needs generated by the special time Task training and time limit are the hallmarks of transitional ministry Trained intentional interim clergy must have the skill and experience to lead congregations during transition However transitional or interim ministry has a bad reputation in some places As one diocesan leader said We have never had a church in this diocese that was so bad off that an interim was needed Indeed there are some sick churches but most congregations have some good things happening and some things that need attention Intentional interim ministry can be medicine for the sick but in most cases it is better compared to vitamins that are taken to promote health This book seeks to clear up misconceptions about transitional ministry and present an accurate and up to date picture of transitional ministry and to describe the various settings in which this specialized ministry can be helpful Chapter authors all expert in transitional ministry in mainline Protestant denominations include Robert Friedrich John Keydel George Martin Loren Mead Barry Miller Nancy Miller Ineke Mitchell Ken Ornell Molly Dale Smith and Rob Voyle Unfreezing Moves Bill Easum, William Easum, 2010-10-01 Prepares Christian congregations to fulfill their basic function to make disciples who make disciples for Jesus Christ This book is about helping stuck and unstuck churches either become unstuck or constantly improve their ministry of making disciples This book is designed to help church leaders make profound changes in the way they do ministry or constantly practice methodological innovation improvement to be effective in creating disciples churches Branded Nation James B. Twitchell, 2004-09-08 Branding says James Twitchell is nothing more than commercial storytelling brands are the stories that are associated with products For example the special taste of Evian says Twitchell is in the brand not the water Branding has become so successful so ubiquitous that even institutions that we thought were above branding antithetical to branding have succumbed Such cultural institutions as religion higher education and the art world have learned to love Madison Avenue or lose market share Of course most ministers university presidents and museum directors will insist that branding has nothing to do with them but as Twitchell brilliantly demonstrates in this witty insightful examination of three of our most important cultural institutions wherever supply exceeds demand branding follows The rise of the megachurch epitomizes branding in religion From its inception the megachurch was designed not to compete with other churches but to bring in the unchurched especially men worshippers who might otherwise be home watching television or strolling through the mall on a Sunday morning The megachurches have been phenomenally popular none more so than Willow Creek Community Church just south of Chicago one of the oldest megachurches which Twitchell analyzes in Branded Nation Colleges and universities have embraced branding as they have grown more alike Especially among the top schools in the country the student bodies the faculties often even the campuses themselves are practically interchangeable What distinguishes each school is the story it tells about itself Now every institution of higher learning has its image organizers its brand managers usually in the admissions or development offices whose job it is to make their institution seem different from all the rest Even museums with their multimillion dollar Monets have seen the advantages of branding The blockbuster exhibitions often put familiar paintings in a new context that is they provide a new narrative branding the art Museums keep expanding their stores placing them not just near the entrance on the ground floor but throughout the museum in the galleries themselves Some museums such as the Guggenheim even franchise themselves turning the institution itself into a brand In short high culture is beginning to look more and more like the rest of our culture In perhaps his most subversive observation Twitchell doesn't condemn the branding of cultural institutions On the contrary he believes that branding may be invigorating our high culture bringing it to new audiences making it a more integral part of our lives Not since Bobos in Paradise has there been such a trenchant provocative analysis of our world Spiritual Leadership in a Secular Age Edward H Hammett, 2013-05-09

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001-06 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1971 Transformational Church Ed Stetzer, Thom S. Rainer, 2010-06-01

How are we doing The church that is And how are we doing it Congregations have long measured success by bodies budget and buildings a certain record of attendance the offering plate and square footage But the scorecard can't stop there When it does the deeper emphasis on accountability discipleship and spiritual maturity is lost Ignoring those details we see fewer lives transformed Christian influence wane and churches thin out a situation that is all too familiar across North America today It is time to take heart and rework the scorecard According to Ed Stetzer and Thom S Rainer the authors of Transformational Church Too often we've highlighted the negative realities of the declining American church but missed the opportunity to magnify the God of hope and transformation Based on the most comprehensive study of its kind including a survey of more than 7 000 churches and hundreds of on site interviews with pastors Transformational Church takes us to the thriving congregations where truly changing lives is the norm Stetzer and Rainer clearly confirm the importance of disciple making for all through active biblical engagement and prayerful dependence on God alongside of ever increasing intentional participation in mission and ministry activities As the church engages these issues the world will see the change More people following Christ More believers growing in their faith More churches making an impact on their communities The transformation starts now

Victims of Child Abuse; Domestic Violence; Elderly Abuse; Rape; Robbery; Assault; and Violent Death Hans Walter Wolff, 1992-06 Presents the findings of a project that was designed to assess current practices procedures used in the handling of criminal court cases involving children as victims witnesses Project utilized case reviews interviews of participants in recently adjudicated cases to describe current approaches to children in the criminal justice system

Tradition and Tension Stuart Macdonald, 2025-07-21 In 1945 the Presbyterian Church was one of Canada's largest and most culturally influential churches This impressive standing in the aftermath of a depression and a global war and just twenty years after much of its membership had departed to form the United Church of Canada was a mark of the Presbyterian Church's resilience and resourcefulness Yet the denomination's greatest challenges lay in the decades that followed Tradition and Tension explores the history of the Presbyterian Church in Canada from 1945 to 1985 In the first half of this period the church vigorously built new congregations in the suburbs revitalized existing congregations and took part in the religious revival of the 1950s It opened its doors to new ethnic communities updated its forms of worship and revised its structures to permit the ordination of women These renewal efforts were not without controversy within the church however Amid the cultural aftershocks of the 1960s and as membership growth stalled arguments about who was responsible for the church's waning influence widened the rift between modernizers and traditionalists Their common vision was lost The place of religion in Canadian society changed dramatically in the postwar period Tradition and Tension examines how the Presbyterian Church consciously sought to reflect these changes and how it was transformed and even overwhelmed by them When Helping Hurts Steve Corbett, Brian Fikkert, 2009-06-24 Churches and individual Christians typically have faulty assumptions about the causes of poverty resulting in the use of strategies that do considerable harm to poor people and themselves When Helping Hurts provides foundational concepts clearly articulated general principles and relevant applications The result is an effective and holistic ministry to the poor not a truncated gospel A situation is assessed for whether relief rehabilitation or development is the best response to a situation Efforts are characterized by an asset based approach rather than a needs based approach Short term mission efforts are addressed and economic development strategies appropriate for North American and international contexts are presented including microenterprise development
