Facing Texts:

Facing Texts Heide Ziegler, 2013-07-22 This selection of fiction by many of America's best writers each coupled with a distinguished critic's response is designed to defy the chronological secondariness of critical interpretation. During the creation of this book the majority of the contributions chosen by the writers themselves were as yet unpublished providing an unmediated encounter between author and critic. Every reader extends what editors, authors and critics have begun by adding to the imaginary space in which all texts may be woven together. This process serves as metaphor for the changing nature of any latter day encounter with one's own literary tradition. The interfacing of texts not only illuminates the fiction and the relationship of fiction to critics but also informs our conceptions of text criticism and fiction itself. From Syntax to Text: The Janus Face of Functional Sentence Perspective Libuše Dušková, 2015-10-01 The volume presents the author's articles written in the last fifteen years dealing with the interaction between syntax functional sentence perspective information structure and text in present day English. It is divided into five parts: I Syntactic Constancy II Syntax FSP Interface III FSP and Semantics IV Syntax FSP Text and V Style which reveal the two facets of functional sentence perspective syntactic structures as realization forms of the carriers of FSP functions and the connection of FSP with the level of text. The first and the last two parts frame the content of the volume in treating the role of functional sentence perspective at the syntactic and the textual levels. At the former FSP is investigated as a potential factor of syntactic divergence between English and Czech at the latter the role of FSP is examined with respect to theme development text build up and style. The points discussed in the other parts concern among others the hierarchical relationship between syntax and FSP the question of potentiality in FSP structure different realization forms of FSP structure and FSP functions general and specific questions of word order with major attention paid to the role of semantics. Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1977 Authorial Personality and the Making of Renaissance Texts Douglas S. Pfeiffer, 2020-09-03 How did we first come to believe in a correspondence between writers' lives and their works? When did the person of the author both as context and target of textual interpretation come to matter so much to the way we read? This book traces the development of author centrism back to the scholarship of early Renaissance humanists. Working against allegoresis and other traditions of non-historicizing textual reception they discovered the power of engaging ancient works through the speculative reconstruction of writers' personalities and artistic motives. To trace the multi-lingual and eventually cross-cultural rise of reading for the author this book presents four case studies of resolutely experimental texts by and about writers of high ambition in their respective generations: Lorenzo Valla on the forger of the Donation of Constantine Erasmus on Saint Jerome the poet George Gascoigne on himself and Fulke Greville on Sir Philip Sidney. An opening methodological chapter and exhortative conclusion frame these four studies with accounts of the central lexicon: character intention ethos persona and the range of genre evidence that contemporaries used.

to discern and articulate authorial character and purpose Constellated throughout with examples from the works of major contemporaries including John Aubrey John Hayward Galileo Machiavelli and Shakespeare this volume resurrects a vibrant culture of biographism continuous with modern popular practice and yet radically more nuanced in its strategic reliance on the explanatory power of probabilism and historical conjecture the discursive middle ground now obscured from view by the post Enlightenment binaries of truth and fiction history and story fact and fable The Great Texts of the Bible:
