B. Yehoshua Yael Halevi-Wise, 2020-12-22 Once referred to by the New York Times as the Israeli Faulkner A B Yehoshua's fiction invites an assessment of Israel's Jewish inheritance and the moral and political options that the country currently faces in the Middle East The Retrospective Imagination of A B Yehoshua is an insightful overview of the fiction nonfiction and hundreds of critical responses to the work of Israel's leading novelist Instead of an exhaustive chronological biographical account of Yehoshua's artistic growth Yael Halevi Wise calls for a systematic appreciation of the author's major themes and compositional patterns Specifically she argues for reading Yehoshua's novels as reflections on the condition of Israel constructed multifocally to engage four intersecting levels of signification psychological sociological historical and historiosophic Each of the book's seven chapters employs a different interpretive method to showcase how Yehoshua's constructions of character psychology social relations national history and historiosophic allusions to traditional Jewish symbols manifest themselves across his novels The book ends with a playful dialogue in the style of Yehoshua's masterpiece Mr Mani that interrogates his definition of Jewish identity Masterfully written with full control of all the relevant materials Halevi Wise's assessment of Yehoshua will appeal to students and scholars of modern Jewish literature and Jewish studies Reading the Abrahamic Faiths Emma Mason, 2014-12-18 Rethinking religion and literature in a series of chapters by leading international scholars Reading the Abrahamic Faiths opens up a dialogue between Jewish Christian Islamic and Post Secular literary cultures Literary studies has absorbed religion as another interdisciplinary mode of inquiry without always attending to its multifaceted potential to question ideologically neutral readings of culture belief emotion politics and inequality In response Reading the Abrahamic Faiths contributes to a reevaluation of the nexus between religion and literature that is socially affectively and materially determined in its sensitivity to the expression of belief Each section Judaism Christianity Islam and Post Secularism is introduced by a specialist in these respective areas to introduce the critical readings of the texts and discourses that follow Maven in

Blue Jeans Steven L. Jacobs, 2009 This collection of academic essays have been written in tribute to Professor Zev Garber and are divided to reflect the areas in which Professor Garber has devoted his teaching and writing energies the Holocaust Jewish Christian relations philosophy and theology history and biblical interpretation Sephardism Yael Halevi-Wise, 2012-04-11 In this book Sephardism is defined not as an expression of Sephardic identity but as a politicized literary metaphor Since the nineteenth century this metaphor has occurred with extraordinary frequency in works by authors from a variety of ethnicities religions and nationalities in Europe the Americas North Africa Israel and even India Sephardism asks why Gentile and Jewish writers and cultural figures have chosen to draw upon the medieval Sephardic experience to express their concerns about dissidents and minorities in modern nations To what extent does their use of Sephardism overlap with other politicized discourses such as orientalism hispanism and medievalism which also emerged from a clash between authoritarian progressive and romantic ideologies This book brings a new approach to Sephardic Studies by situating it at a crossroads between Jewish Studies and Hispanic Studies in ways that enhance our appreciation of how historical fiction and political history have shaped and were shaped by historical attitudes toward Jews and their representation The Dybbuk and the Yiddish Imagination Joachim Neugroschel, 2000 The Dybbuk is arguably the most famous play in the Yiddish repertoire and plays an intrinsic part in the cultural system that created the Yiddish imagination Along with this new translation this text offers a variety of literary works spanning the 17th to the 20th centuries The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century Sorrel Kerbel, 2004-11-23 Now available in paperback for the first time Jewish Writers of the Twentieth Century is both a comprehensive reference resource and a springboard for further study This volume examines canonical Jewish writers less well known authors of Yiddish and Hebrew and emerging Israeli writers includes entries on figures as diverse as Marcel Proust Franz Kafka Tristan Tzara Eugene Ionesco Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Arthur Miller Saul Bellow Nadine Gordimer and Woody Allen contains introductory essays on Jewish American writing Holocaust literature and memoirs Yiddish writing and Anglo Jewish literature provides a chronology of twentieth century Jewish writers Compiled by expert contributors this book contains over 330 entries on individual authors each consisting of a biography a list of selected publications a scholarly essay on their work and suggestions for further reading The Politics of Jewishness in Contemporary World Literature Isabelle Hesse, 2016-02-11 Reading a wide range of novels from post war Germany to Israeli Palestinian and postcolonial writers The Politics of Jewishness in Contemporary World Literature is a comprehensive exploration of changing cultural perceptions of Jewishness in contemporary writing Examining how representations of Jewishness in contemporary fiction have wrestled with such topics as the Holocaust Israeli Palestinian relations and Jewish diaspora experiences Isabelle Hesse demonstrates the colonial turn taken by these representations since the founding of the Jewish state Following the dynamics of this turn the book demonstrates new ways of questioning received ideas about victimhood and power in contemporary discussions of postcolonialism and world literature     The European Jews, Patriotism and the Liberal State, 1789-1939 David Aberbach, 2013 The fragility of the liberal democratic state after 1789 is illustrated in the history of the European Jews from the French Revolution to the Holocaust Emancipation and hope of emancipation amongst the European Jewish population created a plethora of Jewish identities and forms of patriotism This book takes the original approach of studying European Jewish patriotism as a whole with particular attention given to creative literature Despite their growing awareness of racial genocidal hatred most European Jews between 1789 and 1939 tended to be patriotic toward the countries of their citizenship an attitude reflected in the literature of the time Yet the common assumption among emancipated Jews that anti-Semitism would fade in a world governed by reason proved false For millions of European Jews the infinite possibilities they associated with emancipation came to nothing The Jewish experience exposed many of the weaknesses and failings of the liberal multicultural state and demonstrated that its survival cannot be taken for granted but is dependent on vigilance and struggle By focusing on Jewish patriotism from 1789 1939 this book explores the nature of the liberal state how it can fail and the conditions needed for its survival     Francophone Sephardic Fiction Judith Roumani, 2022-04-13 Francophone Sephardic Fiction Writing Migration Diaspora and Modernity approaches modern Sephardic literature in a comparative way to draw out similarities and differences among selected francophone novelists from various countries with a focus on North Africa The definition of Sepharad here is broader than just Spain it embraces Jews whose ancestors had lived in North Africa for centuries even before the arrival of Islam and who still today trace their allegiance to ways of being Jewish that go back to Babylon as do those whose ancestors spent a few hundred years in Iberia The author traces the strong influence of oral storytelling on modern novelists of the twentieth and early twenty first centuries and explores the idea of the portable homeland as exile and migration engulfed the long rooted Sephardic communities The author also examines diaspora concepts how modernity and post modernity threatened traditional ways of life and how humor and an active return into history for the novel have done more than mere nostalgia could to enliven the portable homeland of modern francophone Sephardic fiction

Polish-Jewish Literature in the Interwar Years Eugenia Prokop-Janiec, 2003-04-01 Foremost among a recent wave of Polish books on Jewish issues this groundbreaking work rectifies long held misconceptions about Polish Jewish writers Popular notion has it that Polish Jewish writers unlike their counterparts in Western Northern and Central Europe wrote solely in Yiddish or Hebrew Yet between the two world wars Poland produced an elite group of assimilated Jews who wrote exclusively in Polish Theirs was not an easy lot Torn between love of Poland and its literature and their own Jewish identity they straddled a fine line between two cultural worlds at once advocating acculturation while prey to virulent anti-Semitism This pioneering award winning volume examines the emergence and development of these writers their personal plight and the profound effect they had upon Polish letters and poetry Meticulously researched it explores the role of language as a bridge attitudes toward Polish writing impact of the ghetto and the transformation of Polish into a force for its Jewish populace Finally it pays homage to fine literary voices silenced by the Holocaust History and Literature William Cutter, David C. Jacobson, 2002

How Close Reading Made Us Yael Segalovitz, 2024-09-01 Shows how the method of close reading traveled from the United States to Brazil and Israel revealing its profound impact on global modernisms and reframing the lasting significance of New Criticism Does reading shape who we are What happens to the relationship between reading and subject formation as methods of interpretation travel globally Yael Segalovitz probes these questions by tracing the transnational journey of the New Critical practice of close reading from the United States to Brazil and Israel in the mid twentieth century Challenging the traditional view of New Criticism as a purely aesthetic project Segalovitz illustrates its underlying pedagogical objective to cultivate close readers capable of momentarily suspending subjectivity through focused attention How Close Reading Made Us shows that close reading as a technique of the self exerted a far reaching influence on international modernist literary production impacting writers such as Clarice Lispector Yehuda Amichai William Faulkner Jo o Guimar es Rosa and A B Yehoshua To appreciate close reading s enduring vitality in literary studies and effectively adapt this method to the present Segalovitz argues we must comprehend its many legacies beyond the confines of the Anglophone tradition

The Elsewhere Adam Zachary Newton, 2005-08-03 The Elsewhere Or midbar biblical Hebrew for both wilderness and speech A place of possession and dispossession loss and nostalgia But also a place that speaks Ingeniously using a Talmudic interpretive formula about the disposition of boundaries Newton explores narratives of place flight border and beyond The writers of The Elsewhere are a disparate company of twentieth century memoirists and fabulists from the Levant Palestine Israel Egypt and East Central Europe Together their texts cunningly paired so as to speak to one another in mutually revelatory ways narrate the paradox of the near distance Inextricably Bonded Rachel Feldhay Brenner, 2004-04-01 Despite the tragic reality of the continuing Israeli Arab conflict and deep rooted beliefs that the chasm between Israeli Jews and Israeli Arabs is unbridgeable this book affirms the bonds between the two communities Rachel Feldhay Brenner demonstrates that the literatures of both ethnic groups defy the ideologies that have obstructed dialogue between the two peoples Brenner argues that literary critics have ignored the variety and the dissent in the novels of both Arab and Jewish writers in Israel giving them interpretations that embrace the politics of exclusion and conform with Zionist ideology Brenner offers insightful new readings that compare fiction by Jewish writers Amos Oz A B Yehoshua David Grossman and others with fiction written in Hebrew by such Arab Israeli writers as Atallah Mansour Emile Habiby and Anton Shammas This parallel analysis highlights the moral and psychological dilemmas faced by both the Jewish victors and the Arab vanquished and Brenner suggests that the hope for release from the historical trauma lies on both sides in reaching an understanding with and of the adversary Drawing upon the theories of Walter Benjamin Jacques Lacan Sigmund Freud Emanuel Levinas and others Inextricably Bonded is an innovative and illuminating examination of literary dissent from dominant ideology World Literature Today , 1999 Orientalism and the Hebrew Imagination Yaron

Peleg,2018-07-05 Calling into question prevailing notions about Orientalism Yaron Peleg shows how the paradoxical mixture of exoticism and familiarity with which Jews related to Palestine at the beginning of the twentieth century shaped the legacy of Zionism In Peleg s view the tension between romancing the East and colonizing it inspired a revolutionary reform that radically changed Jewish thought during the Hebrew Revival that took place between 1900 and 1930 Orientalism and the Hebrew Imagination introduces a fresh voice to the contentious debate over the concept of Orientalism Zionism has often been labeled a Western colonial movement that sought to displace and silence Palestinian Arabs Based on his readings of key texts Peleg asserts that early Zionists were inspired by Palestinian Arab culture which in turn helped mold modern Jewish gender identity and culture Peleg begins with the new ways in which the lands of the Bible are formulated as a modern Orient in David Frishman s Bamidbar He continues by showing how in The Sons of Arabia Moshe Smilansky laid the basis for the literary construction of the New Jew modeled after Palestinian Arabs Peleg concludes with a discussion of L A Arielli s 1913 play Allah Karim in which both the promise and the problems of the Land of Israel as Orient marked the end of Hebrew Orientalism as a viable cultural option
