Facing The World Orthodox Christian Essays On Global Concerns:

Facing the World Anastasios (Archbishop of Tirana and all Albania), 2003 The process of globalization evokes either euphoria or alarm Some view it as an unmistakable sign of progress while others see it as a threat Nevertheless the accelerated development of economic scientific political and social links among all the peoples of the world has turned our planet into a megalopolis replete with slums In this work Archbishop Anastasios presents his conviction that the ecumenical vision of the Orthodox Church is the best response to the growing global condition In the Orthodox tradition everything is understood within a universal context from the creation of the world to the vision of the new heaven and new earth Human enterprise as a whole and the salvation of the entire world are seen as the basic themes of Holy Scripture In this work Archbishop Anastasios discusses Orthodox perspectives on human rights the dialogue with Islam and the relationship between culture and the gospel and provides an analysis of world religions His words invite us to broaden our field of vision to encompass the whole earth Rezension: Anastasios Yannoulatos, Facing the World. Orthodox Christian Essays on Global Concerns Daniel Munteanu, 2010 World Christianity in the 20th Century Noel Davies, Martin Conway, 2008 Provides readers with an overall insight into and analysis of Christianity became a genuinely worldwide faith in the 20th century for the first time Written for 2nd and 3rd year university students and in seminaries the book maps out the development of Christianity towards genuinely becoming a world religion Orthodox Christians and Islam in the Postmodern Age Andrew Sharp, 2012-06-27 This book is the first comprehensive attempt to assess an Orthodox Christian position on Islam It demonstrates how a growing number of ordained and lay leaders have reframed the discussion within the Orthodox Church while participating in dialogue with Muslims God's Century: Resurgent Religion and Global Politics Monica Duffy Toft, Daniel Philpott, Timothy Samuel Shah, 2011-03-14 A fresh and illuminating perspective on the surge in religion's political influence across the globe Is religion a force for good or evil in world politics How much influence does it have Despite predictions of its decline religion has resurged in political influence across the globe helped by the very forces that were supposed to bury it democracy globalization and technology And despite recent claims that religion is exclusively irrational and violent its political influence is in fact diverse sometimes promoting civil war and terrorism but at other times fostering democracy reconciliation and peace Looking across the globe the authors explain what generates these radically divergent behaviors In a time when the public discussion of religion is overheated these dynamic young scholars use deeply original analysis and sharp case studies to show us both how and why religion's influence on global politics is surging Finally they offer concrete suggestions on how to both confront the challenges and take advantage of the opportunities posed by globally resurgent religion The Oxford Handbook of Christianity and Law John Witte (Jr.), Rafael Domingo, 2024 This volume tells the story of the interaction between Christianity and law historically and today in the traditional heartlands of Christianity and around the globe Sixty new chapters by leading scholars provide authoritative and accessible accounts of foundational

Christian teachings on law and legal thought over the past two millennia the current interaction and contestation of law and Christianity on all continents how Christianity shaped and was shaped by core public private penal and procedural laws various old and new forms of Christian canon law natural law theory and religious freedom norms Christian teachings on fundamental principles of law and legal order and Christian contributions to controversial legal issues Together the chapters make clear that Christianity and law have had a perennial and permanent influence on each other over time and across cultures albeit with varying levels of intensity and effectiveness This volume defines Christianity broadly to include Catholic Protestant and Orthodox traditions and various denominations and schools of thought within them It draws on Christian ideas and institutions norms and practices texts and titans to tell the story of Christianity's engagement with the world of law over the past two millennia The volume also defines law broadly as the normative order of justice power and freedom The chapters address natural laws of conscience reason and the Bible and positive laws enacted by states churches and voluntary associations Several chapters focus on Christian engagement with specific types of law canon law family law education law constitutional law criminal law procedural law and laws governing labor tax contracts torts property and beyond Other chapters take up cutting edge legal issues of racial justice environmental care migration euthanasia and bio technology as well as fundamental legal principles of liberty dignity equality justice equity judgment and solidarity

Global Eastern Orthodoxy Giuseppe Giordan, Siniša Zrinščak, 2020-02-19 This volume highlights three intertwined aspects of the global context of Orthodox Christianity religion politics and human rights The chapters in Part I address the challenges of modern human rights discourse to Orthodox Christianity and examine conditions for active presence of Orthodox churches in the public sphere of plural societies It suggests theoretical and empirical considerations about the relationship between politics and Orthodoxy by exploring topics such as globalization participatory democracy and the linkage of religious and political discourses in Russia Greece Belarus Romania and Cyprus Part II looks at the issues of diaspora and identity in global Orthodoxy presenting cases from Switzerland America Italy and Germany In doing so the book ties in with the growing interest resulting from the novelty of socio political economic and cultural changes which have forced religious groups and organizations to revise and redesign their own institutional structures practices and agendas

Eastern Christianity and the Cold War, 1945-91 Lucian Leustean, 2010-01-21 Despite widespread persecution Orthodox churches not only survived the Cold War period but levels of religiosity in Orthodox countries remained significant This book examines the often surprising relations between Orthodox churches and political regimes It provides a comprehensive overview of the dynamics between Eastern Christianity and politics from the end of the Second World War to the fall of communism covering 40 Orthodox churches including diasporic churches in Africa Asia America and Australia Based on research from recently opened archives and publications in a wide range of European languages it analyses church state relations on both sides of the Iron Curtain It discusses the following key themes the relationship between Orthodox churches and political power religious resistance to communism the political control of churches religion and propaganda monasticism and theological publications religious diplomacy within the Orthodox commonwealth and religious contacts between East and West

Eastern Christianity and Politics in the Twenty-First Century Lucian N. Leustean, 2014-05-30 This book provides an up to date comprehensive overview of Eastern Christian churches in Europe the Middle East America Africa Asia and Australia Written by leading international scholars in the field it examines both Orthodox and Oriental churches from the end of the Cold War up to the present day The book offers a unique insight into the myriad church state relations in Eastern Christianity and tackles contemporary concerns opportunities and challenges such as religious revival after the fall of communism churches and democracy relations between Orthodox Catholic and Greek Catholic churches religious education and monastic life the size and structure of congregations and the impact of migration secularisation and globalisation on Eastern Christianity in the twenty first century

Christianity and Human Rights John Witte, Jr, Frank S. Alexander, 2010-12-23 Combining Jewish Greek and Roman teachings with the radical new teachings of Christ and St Paul Christianity helped to cultivate the cardinal ideas of dignity equality liberty and democracy that ground the modern human rights paradigm Christianity also helped shape the law of public private penal and procedural rights that anchor modern legal systems in the West and beyond This collection of essays explores these Christian contributions to human rights through the perspectives of jurisprudence theology philosophy and history and Christian contributions to the special rights claims of women children nature and the environment The authors also address the church's own problems and failings with maintaining human rights ideals With contributions from leading scholars including a foreword by Archbishop Desmond Tutu this book provides an authoritative treatment of how Christianity shaped human rights in the past and how Christianity and human rights continue to challenge each other in modern times

Just Peace Semegnish Asfaw, Alexios Chehadeh, Marian Gh. Simion, 2012-01-01 Despite their largely pacifist origins Christianity and Christian traditions can claim only limited success in their efforts to conciliate conflict avoid violence and stop war Perhaps it is time say the eminent contributors to this deeply reflective volume to look at Eastern and Oriental traditions to the very different perspectives of Orthodox Christian on issues of war peace and the justice that must undergird peace Writing from Europe and Russia as well as the Middle East and Asia two dozen Orthodox theologians and church people cast the classic dilemmas of war and peace military service just war and religious nationalism into a deeper theological framework Contents include historical characterizations of Orthodox in a variety of settings and nations Greece Oriental Christianity Bulgaria Armenia Western Europe etc dilemmas of nationalism for the churches the invasion of Iraq globalization fundamentalisms interreligious tensions the ecclesial vocation of peacemaking

Globalization, and Culture Peter Beyer, Lori G. Beaman, 2007-10-30 This volume brings together over 25 articles by many of the most important authors who have worked on issues directly related to the theme of religion and globalization An additional emphasis on culture flags the inclusion of the relation of religion to its wider social context and also permits questioning the boundaries of religion so as to avoid a strong bias in favour of the analysis of institutionalized religion The key emphasis of the book however is the focus specifically on religion a topic that is still largely ignored in the burgeoning literature on globalization The articles are divided into five subthemes theoretical issues historical approaches to religion and globalization forms and boundaries of religion key issues such as ecology and gender and regional perspectives Contributors Afe Adogame Elisabeth Arweck Lori Beaman Peter Beyer John Boli Gary Bouma Dave Brewington George Van Campbell Jos Casanova Paul Freston Nobutaka Inoue Laurel Kearns Otto Maduro Vasilios Makrides Meredith McGuire Vincenzo Pace Rubina Ramji James T Richardson Ole Riis Roland Robertson Marie Andr e Roy Shandip Saha John H Simpson James V Spickard William Stahl George Thomas Bryan Turner Margit Warburg and Michael Wilkinson Identity Crises and

Indigenous Religious Traditions Elijah Obinna, 2017-02-10 This book highlights the complex identity crises among many Christians as they negotiate their new identities religious ideas and convictions as both Christians and members of Nigerian African societies of indigenous religious traditions and identities Through an interdisciplinary interpretation of religious practices and educational issues in teaching and ritual training the author provides tools to help analyse empirical cases These include the negotiation processes among Christians with focus on the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria PCN and members of the Ogo society within the Amasiri Afikpo North Local Government Area Ebonyi state in South eastern Nigeria Identifying the power dynamic identity role and influence of indigenous religions on Christians and the Ogo society this book reveals the limited interactions between many Christians and members of the Ogo society Questions explored include what makes the Ogo society an integral part of the socio religious life of Amasiri and what powers and identity does it confer on the initiates how is the PCN within Amasiri responding to the Ogo society through its religious practices such as baptism confirmation local auxiliary ministries and organisational structure and how does the understanding and application of conversion within the PCN impact on its members response to the Ogo society Demonstrating how complex religious identities and practices of Nigerian African Christians can balance mission influenced Christianity with indigenous religious traditions and identities this book recognises the importance of appropriating the powers of indigenous cultures ingenuity and creativity in the construction and preservation of community identities As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of Christian theology indigenous religious practice and African lived religion Get Real: Edward Rommen, 2010-06-27 The Gospel is more than information about the death and resurrection of our Lord It is an invitation to enter by way of personal faith into a relationship with the person referenced by our propositions Our task as believers is to mediate saving communion with a personal being upon whose will our very existence is contingent It is precisely this personal aspect of our message the Gospel as Person that is in conflict with the late modern notions of the Self and social discourse Get Real On Evangelism in the Late Modern World describes how the late modern phenomena of existential anxiety social alienation and epistemic uncertainty have resulted in what some have called the loss of Self It also identifies ways in which that loss obstructs both the presentation of and the reception of the Gospel as Person Finally it shows how the Gospel as Person facilitates the recovery of the Self and social discourse and how that message can be effectively presented in the late modern context

Welfare and Religion in 21st Century Europe Anders Bäckström, Grace Davie, Ninna Edgardh, Per Pettersson, 2023-04-21 Historically European churches have played a large part in the provision of welfare Responsibility however has gradually shifted to the state a shift that forms an integral part of the process of secularization and one that has been readily accepted by European populations But what happens when the state itself begins to recede a process that is occurring in most if not all European societies for a wide variety of reasons The implications for welfare are considerable not least for the role of the churches which begin to resume the responsibilities previously shed but in new and different ways This book looks at the connections between religion and welfare in Europe exploring in detail eight European societies Finland Norway Sweden England Germany France Italy and Greece The different theological traditions different church state relationships and different welfare regimes are all examined The analysis is based on first hand empirical research which considers not only the changing situation on the ground but attitudes towards this within a range of different constituencies the churches local government and the general public Particular attention is paid to the significance of gender in both the process of change and in attitudes towards this Welfare and Religion in 21st Century Europe Volume 1 represents comparative research at its best and highlights key policy implications for the future A companion book Welfare and Religion in 21st Century Europe Volume 2 explores thematically the changing nature of religion and welfare and the new relationships that are emerging between the religious and the secular and between church and state in the 21st century Call to Mission and Perceptions of Proselytism John Baxter-Brown, 2022-04-13 Proselytism remains one of the most divisive issues in global Christianity jeopardizing many ecumenical initiatives and projects Almost all traditions accuse others of proselytism but none readily confess to it as one tradition's mission and evangelism is another's proselytism This work brings together for the first time significant formal statements from Christian bodies and churches alongside articles from leading commentators in this hotly contested issue It gives clergy academics and students a vital resource in understanding the perspectives of different traditions and therefore the opportunity to study and understand viewpoints and opinions from competing perspectives The volume originates in a process of work commissioned by the World Pentecostal Fellowship the World Council of Churches the World Evangelical Alliance and the Roman Catholic Church under the auspices of the Global Christian Forum We discovered that there are no easy answers that resolve the tensions and debates about proselytism but through listening and understanding different voices new opportunities for establishing constructive relationships can and do emerge God's Century Monica Duffy Toft, Daniel Philpott, Timothy Samuel Shah, 2011-02-02 A fresh and illuminating perspective on the surge in religion's political influence across the globe Is religion a force for good or evil in world politics How much influence does it have Despite predictions of its decline religion has resurged in political influence across the globe helped by the very forces that were supposed to bury it democracy globalization and technology And despite recent claims that religion is exclusively irrational and violent its political influence is in fact diverse sometimes promoting civil war and terrorism but at other times fostering democracy reconciliation and peace Looking across the globe the authors explain what generates these radically divergent behaviors In a time when the public discussion of religion is overheated these dynamic young scholars use deeply original analysis and sharp case studies to show us both how and why religion's influence on global politics is surging Finally they offer concrete suggestions on how to both confront the challenges and take advantage of the opportunities posed by globally resurgent religion Consultations between the Conference of European Churches (CEC) and the Community of Protestant Churches in Europe (CPCE) Conference of European Churches, Gemeinschaft Evangelischer Kirchen in Europa, 2007 Theology in Global Context Amos Yong, Peter G. Heltzel, 2016-10-06 Robert Cummings Neville has been a consistent advocate for the necessity of global theology Early in his career he realized that the philosophical framework of the West alone was inadequate for a truly global theology Since then he has sought to develop theology creatively and responsibly within the world context The original essays in this volume written in his honour by fellow theologians participate in and model the kind of dialogical global theology embodied in Neville's work The Theology of Amos Yong and the New Face of Pentecostal Scholarship Wolfgang Vondey, Martin Mittelstadt, 2013-06-15 In The Theology of Amos Yong and the New Face of Pentecostal Scholarship Wolfgang Vondey and Martin William Mittelstadt gather a table of experts on one of the most influential voices in current Pentecostal theology The authors provide an introduction and critical assessment of Yong's biblical foundations hermeneutics epistemology philosophical presuppositions trinitarian theology theology of religions ecumenical and interfaith relations theology of disability engagement with contemporary culture and participation in the theology and science conversation These diverse topics are pursued through the complementary perspectives that together shape Yong's methodology pneumatology pentecostalism and the possibility of renewal The contributors invite a more thorough reading of Yong's work and propose a more substantial engagement with the new face of Pentecostal scholarship Contributors include Andrew Carver Jacob D Dodson Jeff Hittenberger Mark Mann Martin William Mittelstadt L William Oliverio Jr David A Reed Tony Richie Christopher A Stephenson Steven M Studebaker Paraskev Eve Tibbs and Wolfgang Vondey
