The Speech of the Grail Linda Sussman,1995 Storyteller and ceremonialist Linda Sussman explores how to speak in a new way that is one that heals and transforms She takes the epic story of the grail as told by Wolfram von Eschenbach in Parzival as her guide This tale weaves together Celtic Oriental Christian Arthurian and alchemical sources Linda Sussman sees Parzival as depicting the path of initiation to healing speech to doing the truth in word and deed First she tells the story in a beautiful way allowing the reader to reproduce within themselves the potent inner pictures of the text Then she shows that it is not so much a path toward perfection as the recovery of a right relationship to our imperfections She shows too that it is a path in which male and female aspects work together in the overcoming of evil Critical Social Issues in American Education H. Apocalypse, The Transformation of Earth Friedrich Benesch, 2015-08-01 In the Revelation of St John spiritual worlds and spiritual entities appear both in images of the sensory world and in images of the mineral realm This book discusses these two sides of world manifestation It is often argued that the images of St John s Revelations are intended in a purely symbolic way If this is so the mineral appears as a symbol for something of a soul like and spiritual nature The Revelator however did not see symbols but rather realities even a symbol can be genuine only if something of the reality for which it stands shines through It must in a real way be inwardly identical with what it intends the essence from which it stems Thus it must arise from the same reality otherwise it contains no meaning The images of the minerals in the Apocalypse are just as much reality as the minerals are on Earth Neither is essential both are simply manifestations of something essential Hence both are truly apocalyptic the mineral we hold in our hand and the image we hold in our mind They reveal themselves mutually This book juxtaposes the objects of sensory appearance and natural scientific research with sayings from the Revelation of St John to express the joint background of the appearances When we connect one with the other it can lead to an encounter with the essence This is an esoteric mineralogy Friedrich Benesch enables a renewed encounter between the human being and mineral being from which essence and future
