Factfinding Before Internat:

Fact-Finding before International Tribunals Richard Lillich, 2025-01-27 This volume is the seminal work on fact finding and international tribunals It addresses the many questions raised in recent cases before the International Court of Justice the Iran United States Claims Tribunal the European Court of Justice various international administrative tribunals human rights courts and commissions Its 15 chapters introduced by a perceptive essay by Judge Schwebel for the International Court of Justice have been written by present or former members of such international bodies leading lawyers who have appeared before them and distinguished academic lawyers from the United States and abroad Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint

Fact-Finding before the International Court of Justice James Gerard Devaney, 2016-09-29 Fact Finding before the International Court of Justice examines a number of significant recent criticisms of the way in which the ICJ deals with facts The book takes the position that such criticisms are warranted and that the ICJ's current approach to fact finding falls short of adequacy both in cases involving abundant particularly complex or technical facts and in those involving a scarcity of facts The author skilfully examines how other courts such as the WTO and inter State arbitrations conduct fact finding and makes a number of select proposals for reform enabling the ICJ to address some of the current weaknesses in its approach The proposals include but are not limited to the development of a power to compel the disclosure of information greater use of provisional measures and a clear strategy for the use of expert evidence

Evidence, Proof, and Fact-Finding in WTO Dispute Settlement Michelle T. Grando, 2009-12-24 This book examines how a World Trade Organization WTO dispute settlement panel formulates its conclusions with respect to the facts of a dispute brought before it It does so by discussing the legal concepts which shape the process of fact finding analysing the approach taken by panels thus far and offering suggestions for improvement
