

WHAT IS CONGRESS?

Congress is a legislative body that plays a vital role in the governance of a country. It consists of representatives elected by the people to make laws, debate important issues, and represent the interests of their constituents.

Congress is divided into two chambers: the House of Representatives and the Senate. These chambers work together to discuss and pass laws that affect the nation. Congress serves as a forum for expressing different viewpoints, deliberating on policies, and ensuring a balanced decision-making process.
